Attention Golfers St. Michael Annual Golf Outing has a new date and golf course. The change is to accommodate those with date conflicts in hopes more will be able to attend.

No Treats for Troops this Year

This year, the Blue Star Moms organization announced they will not be accepting candy donations for their annual Treats for Troops program. They have received an overwhelming amount of donations already. Thank you students for all your past donations and making this a huge success in the past. We hope to collect next year.

FunFest Auction Ride to School by GLPD

"A special thank you to the Grand Ledge Police Department for the escort to school for Sawyer's birthday. Thank you to the Mackenzie family for the donation towards our live auction at our annual Funfest in August."

The 3rd graders learned about magnetism in Science class and had fun playing "magnetic chess."

October PTO News 2025-2026!

THANK YOU to everyone who helped with football parking this year. PTO made about $1,600 total. Our funds go to help support the school with various things such as security equipment, playground, Catholic School Week, etc.

I hope everyone enjoyed Trunk or Treat today— always a fun event!

Catholic Schools Week t-shirt design contest will be going home in bags within the next couple of weeks. They will receive a blank piece of paper and instructions. The winner will have their drawing featured on the back of our CSW shirts.

Our Craft Bazaar will be on Saturday December 6th, please consider saving some time during the day to volunteer. This is always a huge hit! Stay tuned for more volunteer information.

Follow us on Facebook for updates and reminders, search us at St. Michael Catholic School PTO! If you have any questions, feel free to reach us at stmichaelglpto@gmail.com

Our next PTO meeting is in November and will be via email only. The agenda will be emailed out in the middle of November.

God Bless,

Elizabeth Ford

MOMS Group

Attention Moms!

Do you enjoy talking with other moms about raising kids and growing in your faith? The MOMS group at St. Michael meets the first and third Tuesdays of each month at 9:00 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall. We focus on faith, fellowship, and fun, as well as completing several service projects throughout the year. All moms (and any young children) are welcome to attend.

Please contact Nikki Brewer at 517-290-7162 with any questions.

Upcoming dates: Tuesday, November 4, 9am

Tuesday, November 18 (make Giving Tree tags), 9am

Halloween at St. Mikes

Halloween inspired a haunted house fit for a ghost!

Veterans' Day Project

In celebration of Veterans' Day, the Student Council is organizing a collection of items for our veterans at the Battle Creek VA Medical Center. We are asking students and their families to donate an item, or items, from the list below. Please abide by the rules given to us by the VA for the donated items on the list. These items will be taken to the Battle Creek VA Medical Center to be distributed to our veterans needing assistance. If you could please donate, it would be greatly appreciated. This drive will run Monday, November 10th, through Friday, November 21st. Just send the item, or items, to school with your student. There will be labeled boxes to place the items in across from the school office.

Miscellaneous items: Flip flops (used in shower), gym shorts, sweatpants, men's underwear (no briefs), Paint-by-Numbers kits, non-spiral bound journals, word search/crossword/Sudoku books (larger print), coffee, popcorn kernels, oil, and salt for popcorn machines. Clothing is needed in sizes Small to 2X.

Toiletries (no sample or hotel sizes): Men's shampoo and conditioner, body wash, deodorant, toothpaste, toothbrushes, alcohol free mouth wash, and men's shaving cream and razors.

THE VA DOES NOT ACCEPT DONATIONS OF USED CLOTHING, KNITTED OR CROCHETED BLANKETS OR LAP ROBES. NO BAR SOAP.
