Easter Sunday The Resurrection of the Lord April 12, 2020

FOCUS: We demonstrate our belief in the empty tomb by the way we live our faith.

Peter and the beloved disciple rush to the tomb and believe. We rush toward many things in our busy lives—does our rushing around include paying attention to how God is working in our lives, and speaking to us? We show we believe the tomb is empty by the way we live our faith.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: Peter speaks to his listeners about what has happened all over Judea—the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. Paul tells the Colossians they have been raised with Jesus and therefore need to seek what is above. In the Gospel, Mary of Magdala brings the news of the empty tomb to Simon Peter and the other disciple whom Jesus loved. Peter and the beloved disciple rush to the tomb.

REFLECTION: What and where are the empty tombs for us? Relationships that have died, or dried up; pursuits and ambitions that have proven vain and wasted; misplaced confidences in what was shallow and fruitless; nostalgic attempts to re-create the warm and good feelings we had when we were children coming to church on Easter Sunday?

So we ask ourselves:

- ◆ Does the empty tomb remind us of the places and situations in our lives which have proved lifeless and left us empty inside?
- ◆ Do I believe that Christ is alive and with me as I peer into the empty tomb?

The following prayer was made by Pope Francis to Mary during the coronavirus pandemic as it hit Italy. It is a beautiful prayer for any suffering.

"O Mary, you always shine on our path
as a sign of salvation and of hope.
We entrust ourselves to you,
Health of the Sick,
who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain,
keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need,
and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings
and carried our sorrows to lead us,
through the cross,
to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge,
Holy Mother of God.

Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin."

God's love endures forever.
God's love endures forever.
God's love endures forever.
God's love endures forever.

While we are not attending Masses in Church or able to receive Holy Communion at Mass, we can still say a

Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually
into my heart.

I embrace You

as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

The Resurrection of the Lord Easter Sunday

Christ is risen! Alleluia! When we read today's Gospel it is easy for us to laugh at Mary of Magdala. How could she not have known that Jesus had risen? Sometimes we have to remind ourselves that we know how the story goes. Imagine the utter shock of visiting the tomb of a loved one to find it empty. John's Gospel notes that even Simon Peter and the disciple whom Jesus loved did not understand what had happened. Perhaps this is an invitation for each of us to think deeply about what the Resurrection means in our own lives.

In addition to watching the Mass on TV today, you may also choose to do this.

Ritual at Home

The Easter Sunday liturgy celebrates Resurrection through the lens of discipleship. We hear the Gospel story of Mary and the disciples running to the tomb almost immediately before we have the opportunity to renew our own Baptismal promises as we profess our faith. Create a prayer space full of greenery and flowers. On a table that is easy accessible by everyone, place a bowl of holy water.

Opening Prayer

Loving God, we celebrate this day of gladness and rejoicing, basking in the depth of your love revealed in an empty tomb. May we, like the disciples, make haste to share the news of Resurrection with everyone we encounter.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Reading: John 20:1-9

Profession of Faith

As we profess our faith, we proclaim the Apostle's Creed.

After the communal recitation of the Apostle's Creed, each person is welcome to sign themselves with the Holy Water, recalling the waters of Baptism and our commitment to life in Christ. You might wish to play some soft, instrumental music in the background during this ritual signing.

Intercessions

Confident that the living God is truly present in our lives we raise our petitions, confident that they will be heard.

- ◆ For Pope Francis and all church leaders: May they guide the faithful with the patience and kindness the Risen Christ shows to the disciples.
- ◆ For all who support and nurture life, especially healthcare workers, teachers, and public servants: May they find joy in their vocation of service to others.
- ◆ For all who celebrate new beginnings this Easter season: May they know life and love in their experiences and opportunities.
- ◆ For all who work for equality and justice: May they never tire of proclaiming the peace of Christ.
- ◆ For all who are sad or suffering during this time of Easter Alleluias: May they find the consolation of Christ through all those who love and support them.

The Lord's Prayer

Gathering these prayers together, as well as those we hold in the silence of our hearts, we pray in the words that Jesus taught us. Our Father.....

Loving God, we celebrate the life and love that you proclaim and share with us. May we know the joy of your Resurrection in our hearts as we strive to share this joy with others. Like, Mary, Simon Peter and the beloved disciple, may we run to spread the Good News of the life and love you share.

Conversation Starters

1. What images, words, or phrases do you associate with Easter Sunday?
2. What are some important Easter traditions in your own family?
3. Where do you encounter the Risen Christ?

As you celebrate the Easter season, take time to notice the daily experience of resurrection and new life. Share these moments with your family and friends at the end of each day or week. You might be surprised how much new life permeates our world!
