The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Second Book of Kings

One day Elisha came to Shunem, where there was a woman of influence, who urged him to dine with her. Afterward, whenever he passed by, he used to stop there to dine. So she said to her husband, "I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp, so that when he comes to us he can stay there." Sometime later Elisha arrived and stayed in the room overnight.

Later Elisha asked, "Can something be done for her?" His servant Gehazi answered, "Yes! She has no son, and her husband is getting on in years." Elisha said, "Call her." When the woman had been called and stood at the door, Elisha promised, "This time next year you will be fondling a baby son."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

Second Reading Letter of St. Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God. Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel The holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to his apostles: "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

"Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple—amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

FOCUS: Putting Jesus first is our challenge.

Once again Jesus discusses the challenge of living the Gospel. Faithful discipleship comes with demands. But we are not to keep the Gospel message to ourselves ~ it must be proclaimed and lived no matter what the cost. For those who are faithful, the reward will be newness of life.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, a woman of influence who consistently offers hospitality to Elisha is rewarded with the promise of a son. St. Paul reminds the Roman community that through baptism they share in the death and resurrection of Christ. In the Gospel, Jesus tells his Apostles that whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.

REFLECTION: During the first part of our celebration today we, like the Shunemite woman welcomed God's Word into our "home" – we made room for it in our hearts. As Scripture reminds us, the Word blossoms there with a promise of new life. God sends prophetic people to speak the Word to us, but remember, prophetic people don't always fit into official categories; they aren't always bearing an institutional stamp of approval. Yet, God often comes to us in the other and through people who are strangers.

So we ask ourselves:

- Who comes bearing the Word of God to me?
- Do they comfort, or challenge me with their message?

We could use 6 to 8 people to help clean the pews after the daily Masses (6:30 & 8:30am) and on weekends. It will take about 20 minutes of your time. If you would like to help, please contact Chris Rauscher-King at 215-722-8624.

Sister Jane Mary Carr, IHM arrived at St. Cecilia School eleven years ago to serve as the school principal. During this time our school has changed and grown in many ways. Sister Jane has led us through the Middle States Accreditation process and she guided us in welcoming students from St. William Parish.

Sister Jane Mary is a masterful leader. She is thorough, careful, positive and supportive. Some of the highlights of these past eleven years include the growth of our school technology program. Our school has a strong technology program with up-to-date devices. Sister Jane was key in purchasing Smart Boards for every classroom so teachers and students could have interactive teaching & learning. In addition, we have iPads and Chromebooks for students to use from grades 4 - 8. Sister Jane also initiated the hands-on science program, Lab Learner. This program, supported with a part-time teacher, helps students learn science in ways they will remember.

In so many ways Sister Jane has been the face of St. Cecilia School for these past years. She is present for all the events and she is behind the scenes making sure everything is done and done well. One of the greatest challenges and blessings took place when St. Cecilia School became the welcoming school for the students of St. William School. Sister Jane coordinated many events and activities to make sure everyone felt the warmth and welcome during time of great transition.

Sister Jane worked with the faculty to accept a grant to be part of the Penn Center for Educational & Distributive Leadership with the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. This program developed and implemented a distributed leadership approach for the school and included professional development and training, evaluation and coaching support. Sister Jane encourages faculty members to take leadership roles throughout the school.

School principals have to coordinate so many communications! The Office of Catholic Education (OCE) and the faculty, OCE and parents, Faculty and parents, School and Parents, School and Community, School and Advisory Board just to name a few. Sister Jane provides everyone with the information they need in a timely way to be successful. It is not easy!

Sister Jane for many years was a member of the Philadelphia North Advisory Council. This entailed many hours of work, regularly scheduled meetings, and coordination of materials for principals, pastors, and community members. This year Sister Jane completed her term and was recognized at the annual Gala in October.

Through the years, in good times and during challenging times, Sister Jane has always projected the love of God for everyone. She is a true example of the IHM Charism of Love, Creative Hope, and Fidelity. Our IHM Companions and every student can learn from Sister Jane's daily example of kindness and goodness.

Each year Sister Jane coordinates many wonderful assemblies for the students - Red Cross, dental care, Franklin Institute, etc. She is always looking for ways to enhance the school curriculum for the good of the students and teachers. Our band and music programs are other ways Sister Jane supports the curriculum and the arts. Through the years Sister Jane has always supported the students involved in Reading Olympics. With Sister's support and interest, our students have excelled to first place six times.

We are so grateful for her faith, leadership, warmth, and hospitality through the years! You will always be part of the life and history of St. Cecilia! "The challenge of leadership is to be strong, but not rude; be kind, but not weak; be bold, but not bully; be thoughtful, but not lazy; be humble, but not timid; be proud, but not arrogant; have humor, but without folly." — Jim Rohn, entrepreneur and motivational speaker

These words summarize the leadership of our principal, Sister Jane Mary Carr, IHM. She is all these virtues and she has worked so hard for these past eleven years for the good of every student, parent, and teacher of St. Cecilia School. We have been enriched by her presence and her leadership. Thank you, Sister Jane Mary for your devotion and hard work for St. Cecilia School.
God bless you, Sister Jane! We will miss you!

Farewell

One of our very special teachers has decided to take some much needed rest and relaxation as she prepares to take a permanent vacation from her life's work. Lorriane Sonneborn has been teaching 43 years and 37 of those years have been at St. Cecilia School. She has prepared countless children in the second grade for the reception of First Penance and First Holy Communion during those years.

Mrs. Sonneborn's deep faith and strong desire to provide the best for her children have enabled her to teach her students what is most needed in life ~ to love God by receiving the sacraments and to love others by reaching out and sharing your gifts. Throughout her career, Mrs. Sonneborn has provided her students with a safe and caring learning environment. Her warm and loving manner brought out the best in her students as she fostered an enthusiasm and love for learning.

When walking by her classroom one could often hear Mrs. Sonneborn telling her students, "If you do your best, God will take care of the rest." I'm sure many of her students remembered that piece of good advice as they met challenges along the way.

We take this opportunity to sincerely thank Mrs. Sonneborn for her years of service to God's children and we wish her well as she moves into retirement and enjoys leisure hours with her family and friends. She will always have a special place in our hearts.

We are also saying "Farewell" to Sister Mary Praskac who has been a gift to our school community.

When Sister Mary Praskac arrived at Saint Cecilia School eleven years ago she was filled with much joy and enthusiasm at the opportunity she had before her of sharing her love for Jesus with the youngest members of our school community. In weekly religious enrichment classes she met the children in kindergarten through fourth grade. During these weekly sessions, Sister Mary touched the minds and hearts of the students as she prayed with them and shared religious stories about Jesus, his mother Mary, and the saints. All of the students looked forward to sharing this special time with Sister Mary.

As the years progressed, we came to know that Sister Mary was a very loyal fan of the Philadelphia sports teams. From down in the cafeteria, or even, at the end of her classes, strains of "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" and "Fly, Eagles, Fly" could be heard by all in the junior high building. When we were in the playoffs, Sister would manage to go over to the main building and use the intercom to rally the school community with her favorite songs. One never knew when this might happen! But we all loved it when it did!

This year Sister Mary celebrated fifty years as a Sister, Servant of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Throughout those fifty years of dedication and commitment to Catholic education, countless children have been brought closer to the Lord through Sister's teaching and example. What a gift Sister Mary has given to the Lord!

We thank Sister Mary for the many gifts she has shared with all of us in the parish and school and wish her well as she begins a new phase of her journey. No doubt Sister Mary will continue to pray for all of us.

We are also saying 'Goodbye' to Sister Joan Felicia O'Reilly. It didn't take us long to discover Sister Joan's many talents when she arrived at Saint Cecilia School last August to serve as Assistant Principal. In one short year, Sister has endeared herself to us as she greeted our children each morning at the door, fostered an enthusiasm for learning within our students, encouraged and supported our faculty and staff, and shared her professional expertise with our administration. Indeed, her love for the Lord Jesus and His people shown in the way she ministered to all of us.

We are sorry to see Sister leave Saint Cecilia School so soon and we will miss her twinkling eyes and bright smile. However, God's plan is asking us to share Sister Joan Felicia with another school community next year. Her "yes" that brought her to Saint Cecilia School is the same "yes" that is sending her down South.

Our prayers and best wishes accompany Sister as she returns to the state of Georgia to minister as the Principal of Saint James School in Savannah. We have no doubt that she will continue to make the lives of those around her a little better and a little brighter as she has made our lives at Saint Cecilia School.

Best Wishes

God be with you
