15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Book of the Prophet Isaiah 55:10-11

Thus says the LORD: Just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the one who sows and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; my word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

Second Reading Letter of St. Paul to the Romans 8:18-23

Brothers and sisters: I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us. For creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God; for creation was made subject to futility, not of its own accord but because of the one who subjected it, in hope that creation itself would be set free from slavery to corruption and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God. We know that all creation is groaning in labor pains even until now; and not only that, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, we also groan within ourselves as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel The holy Gospel according to Matthew 13:1-9

On that day, Jesus went out of the house and sat down by the sea. Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd stood along the shore.

And he spoke to them at length in parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and birds came and ate it up. Some fell on rocky ground, where it had little soil. It sprang up at once because the soil was not deep, and when the sun rose it was scorched, and it withered for lack of roots. Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it. But some seed fell on rich soil and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold. Whoever has ears ought to hear."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

FOCUS: The word of God is fruitful, powerful, and meant to bring us to full union with God in heaven.

The first reading and Gospel show the potency of the word of God. In fertile hearts, the Word can multiply exponentially, and it can bring about God's will in our lives. The Word comes from God to us, in order that we might be brought to God. Can there be any greater gift?

LITURGY OF THE WORD: Isaiah describes the word of God as fruitful, not returning to the Lord until his will is accomplished. Paul writes to the Romans, addressing human suffering and looking beyond it to the promise of heaven. In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the sower and explains its meaning.

REFLECTION: We might imitate the parable and at least try a little sowing. We will keep eyes and ears open for a chance, in some overt or subtle way, to speak a word of faith to the curious, weary, despairing, doubting and searching. Who knows what the results of such seed-sowing might be? But the results are not under our control, are they? We are those who sow, wait and look for surprising results.

So, we ask ourselves:

- ◆ How am I now the seed that God is planting in the world?
- ◆ Where and when am I called to speak the Word of God in my daily life?

SAFETY GUIDELINES

- ◆ Please wear a facemask in church
- ◆ Practice social distancing (6 ft. apart)
- ◆ Crying room is currently closed
- ◆ Restroom is currently closed
- ◆ Please do not congregate after Mass

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Lectors

Anyone interested in joining this ministry for Sunday Masses, please contact Dave Schein by stopping in the Sacristy on Sunday morning or call 215-725-0903.

PREP Parish Religious Education Program

We are in need of volunteer PREP teachers for online instruction for the 2020-2021 school year. At this moment, classes will take place online and not in the classroom and teachers will be instructed how to do virtual classes. If you are interested in volunteering, please call the rectory at 215-725-1240.

Sponsor a Student (2020-2021)

This program helps our families who want to send their children to Saint Cecilia School and may have some financial difficulty along the way. With your help these families can keep their child in our school and receive a good Catholic education.

There are several gifting levels and payment options - You can make a one time payment or select any option you wish. We will identify those students with the greatest need and allocate the funds accordingly. For more information on this program or to give a tax deductible gift, please feel free to contact Lisa Hnat, Tuition Coordinator at lhnat@stceciliafc.com.

Caring For Friends

We are still collecting food for Caring For Friends and we thank you for continuing to bring meals to our freezer. Just add an extra portion to your family meal, freeze it in the trays we provide, and bring it to the freezer here at St. Cecilia. Our freezer hours are now open every day from 8:30am to 4:00pm.

There are many ways you can volunteer to help this ministry. For information please call our Coordinator, Bernadette O'Donnell at 215-379-3448 or Caring for Friends at 215-464-2224. Learn more at caringforfriends.org.

Retrouvaille: Rediscover the love in your marriage

Tens of thousands of couples have healed their marriages through Retrouvaille. Couples learn to build communication skills and to increase intimacy. It provides help for marriage problems, difficulties or crises. The next program will be August 14-16 at the Family Life Center in Malvern, PA. To register or for more information, visit www.HelpOurMarriage.org or call 215-766-3944.
