FOCUS: Christ gives us all we need to feed those he calls us to serve.

Today's readings call us, like the disciples, to feed others—but only after having been nourished ourselves. We are invited to delight in rich fare, feasting on the love of God that is stronger than death. In responding to God's call, we can trust that Christ will give us all we need to carry out his commands.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: The Lord speaks through Isaiah, exhorting his people to come to the water and be renewed by the everlasting covenant. Paul tells the Romans that nothing can separate them from the love of Christ. In the Gospel, after hearing of the death of John the Baptist, Jesus heals the sick and feeds the 5,000 abundantly.

REFLECTION: Jesus saw the hungry crowd and with the loaves and fish his disciples offered, he fed them. While we might receive comfort knowing that our inner hungers are fed at our Eucharistic meal, let's not just "spiritualize" today's gospel. Let's remember that Jesus' pity extended to the crowd's physical needs that he saw when he disembarked from the boat. Matthew tells us, "He was moved with pity for them and he cured their sick," and, with the disciples' help, he fed their hunger.

So, we ask ourselves:

- ◆ What hunger do I bring to this Eucharist today that I turn to Jesus to feed?
- ◆ Who are the hungry I am hearing Jesus invite me to feed—with his help?

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Book of Prophet Isaiah

55:1-3

Thus says the LORD: All you who are thirsty, come to the water! You who have no money, come, receive grain and eat; Come, without paying and without cost, drink wine and milk! Why spend your money for what is not bread; your wages for what fails to satisfy? Heed me, and you shall eat well, you shall delight in rich fare. Come to me heedfully, listen, that you may have life. I will renew with you the everlasting covenant, the benefits assured to David.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

Second Reading Letter of St. Paul to the Romans 8:35, 37-39

Brothers and sisters: What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword? No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel The holy Gospel according to Matthew 14: 13-21

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot from their towns. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples approached him and said, "This is a deserted place and it is already late; dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said to them, "There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves." But they said to him, "Five loaves and two fish are all we have here." Then he said, "Bring them here to me," and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass.

Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over—twelve wicker baskets full. Those who ate were about five thousand men, not counting women and children.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Lectors

Lectors play a key role in the celebration of Mass. A lector is a Minister of the Word who proclaims God's Word to the assembled faith community. Liturgical proclamation of the Word is an awesome responsibility to which one is called and into which one is formed.

Being a lector is more than reading. This ministry involves studying, preparing and gaining an understanding of God's Word that can be transferred to the assembly in a clear and understandable manner. The vital role of the lector is to communicate the depth and importance of the scriptures.

Anyone interested in joining this ministry for Sunday Masses, please contact Dave Schein by stopping in the Sacristy on Saturday evening or Sunday morning or call Dave at 215-725-0903.

PREP Parish Religious Education Program

We are in need of volunteer PREP teachers for online instruction for the 2020-2021 school year. At this moment, classes will take place online and not in the classroom. Teachers will be instructed how to do virtual classes. If you are interested in volunteering your time for this very important ministry, please contact the rectory at 215-725-1240.

Pre-Cana

Attending a Pre-Cana session is required for all engaged couples preparing to celebrate the Sacrament of Matrimony. Maternity BVM Parish, located at 9220 Old Bustleton Avenue (19115) will be holding their Fall Pre-Cana Day on Saturday, September 26, 2020. Advance registration is necessary.

To register, please call the rectory at 215-673-8127.

Sponsor a Student (2020-2021)

This program helps our families who want to send their children to Saint Cecilia School and may have some financial difficulty along the way. With your help these families can keep their child in our school and receive a good Catholic education.

There are several gifting levels and payment options - You can make a one time payment or select any option you wish. We will identify those students with the greatest need and allocate the funds accordingly. For more information on this program or to give a tax deductible gift, please feel free to contact Lisa Hnat, Tuition Coordinator at lisa.hnat@stceciliafc.org.

Fatima Holy Hour ~ August 13

All are welcome to the annual Fatima Holy Hour for World Peace sponsored by The World Apostolate of Fatima on Thursday, August 13. It will be at Saint William Church (lower church) beginning 7:00pm. Please remember to wear a mask and observe social distancing. You are welcome to invite your friends and family too.

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

The Maritime World

During August, let us join Pope Francis and pray for all those who work and live from the sea, among them sailors, fishermen and their families.

Caring For Friends

We are still collecting food for Caring For Friends and we thank you for continuing to bring meals to our freezer. Just add an extra portion to your family meal, freeze it in the trays we provide, and bring it to the freezer located in the alcove between the church and rectory here at Saint Cecilia. Our freezer hours are now open every day from 8:30am to 4:00pm.

There are many ways you can volunteer to help this ministry. For more information please call our Coordinator, Bernadette O'Donnell at 215-379-3448 or Caring for Friends at 215-464-2224. Learn more at caringforfriends.org.

We could use 6 to 8 people to help clean the pews after the daily Masses (6:30 & 8:30am) and after each Mass on Saturday and Sunday. It will take about 20 minutes of your time. If you would like to help, please contact Michael O'Donnell at 267-616-1270.
