Second Collection

Next weekend (May 1-2), the second collection will be taken up for Catholic Home Missions. Home mission dioceses are those Catholic dioceses in the U.S., its territories, and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services without outside help, such as Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and laypeople. Thank you for your support.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

April 25, 2021

FOCUS: We are God's children; we are the flock of the Good Shepherd, who lays down his life for us.

God loves us so much that we are not simply called God's children, but in fact are God's children now. This love is that of a good shepherd, who knows and cherishes his sheep, and who, unlike others, will sacrifice his own life for the safety of his flock.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, Peter proclaims to the elders that the cripple who has been healed and saved was done so in the name of Jesus. This is the Jesus that they had crucified and whom God raised from the dead. The First Letter of John says that through the love of God we are now the children of God; what we shall become is not yet revealed. In the Gospel, Jesus says, I am the good shepherd... who lays down his life for the sheep.

Second Reading ~ First Letter of St. John 3:1-2

Beloved: See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

First Reading ~ Acts of the Apostles

4:8-12

Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said: "Leaders of the people and elders: If we are being examined today about a good deed done to a cripple, namely, by what means he was saved, then all of you and all the people of Israel should know that it was in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead; in his name this man stands before you healed. He is the stone rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

The stone rejected
by the builders has become the cornerstone

Gospel ~ John

10:11-18

Jesus said: "I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own, sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf catches and scatters them. This is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd. This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down on my own. I have power to lay it down, and power to take it up again. This command I have received from my Father."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

REFLECTION: There are a lot of voices out there that can only distract and scatter us. Perhaps we've paid too much attention to them at times in our lives. Through hard experience we have learned that they don't have our best interests at heart and if we listen to them, we are scattered. But the voice of the Shepherd, Jesus tells us, wants to gather us. His voice can help us keep our wits about us in an often-misguided world.

So we ask ourselves:

- Can I name the "false shepherds" I have listened to?
- How did they mislead me?
- Where and how do I listen to the voice of the Good Shepherd?

Saturday - June 26

8:00am to Noon

Start cleaning out your closets!

The Green Drop truck will be at St. Cecilia's parking lot to collect clothing, shoes, blankets, bedding, tools, collectibles, kitchenware, toys, small appliances electronics, musical instruments and sporting goods. Please place clothing in plastic bags or boxes.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul thanks you for your donations.

Please Pray for Priests

Dear Lord,

We pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry.

We pray that Mary will guide your priests to follow her own words,
"Do whatever He tells you."

May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph,
Mary's most chaste spouse.

May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross.

May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of your love seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen.

St. John Vianney, pray for us.

Year of St. Joseph

On December 8, 2020, Pope Francis declared a Year of St. Joseph "to perpetuate the entrustment of the whole Church to the powerful patronage of the Guardian of Jesus" and so that "the faithful may daily strengthen their life of faith through the example of [St. Joseph]." Celebrating the 150th anniversary of Pope Pius IX's declaration of St. Joseph as the Patron of the Universal Church, this Year of St. Joseph is an opportunity to entrust ourselves more completely to the foster-father of Jesus and spouse of Mary.

Feast Day of St. Joseph the Worker

May 1

Consecration to St. Joseph

To help men live out the joy of Christ, and to provide all members of the parish community with examples of virtue, prudence and fatherhood, the Knights of Columbus are encouraged to lead their communities in a consecration to St. Joseph during this year of St.

Joseph. By this act of consecration, we ask for the aid and intercession of the foster father of Jesus Christ, St. Joseph, who serves as a true model for every man. Preparing for the Consecration to St. Joseph is not a single event, it is choosing a way of life for oneself. Through this act, each participant consciously chooses to be a beacon of God's love, authentic masculinity, and to hold himself and his brothers to the standard established by St. Joseph, Chaste Protector of the Virgin, Defender of the Universal Church and Terror of Demons.

This consecration can be done by an individual, a family, or an entire parish community. It is important to make spiritual preparations leading up to the consecration by learning more about St. Joseph and praying for his intercession regularly.

Memorare to St. Joseph

Remember, O most chaste spouse of the Virgin Mary,
that never was it known

that anyone who implored your help
and sought your intercession was left unassisted.
Full of confidence in your power, I fly unto you
and beg your protection.

Despise not, O Guardian of the Redeemer,
my humble supplication, but in your bounty,
hear and answer me. Amen.

Act of Consecration to St. Joseph

O dearest St. Joseph, I consecrate myself to your honor and give myself to you, that you may always be my father,
my protector and my guide in the way of salvation.

Obtain for me a greater purity of heart
and fervent love of the interior life.

After your example may I do all my actions
for the greater glory of God,
in union with the Divine Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

O Blessed St. Joseph, pray for me, that I may share in the peace and joy of your holy death.
Amen.

Announcement of the Josephine C. Connelly Achievement Awards

It is with great pleasure that we announce the recipients of the Josephine C. Connelly Achievement Awards from St. Cecilia School. The Connelly Foundation has long recognized the value of Catholic education and provides different tuition grant opportunities. The value of the Josephine C. Connelly Award for each upcoming school year is 40% of the Archdiocesan high school tuition. We are extremely grateful to the Connelly Family and their Foundation for their generosity and ask the Lord to continue to bless their work.
