WE CANNOT KEEP THE LORD TO OURSELVES

Once we experience the power of God's love, and recognize His fatherly presence in our personal and community life, we cannot help but proclaim and share what we have seen and heard… "Go therefore to the highways and byways, and invite everyone you find."

No one is excluded, no one need feel distant or removed from this compassionate love. As Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves: the Church's evangelizing mission finds outward fulfillment in the transformation of our world and in the care of creation.

The theme of this year's World Mission Sunday ~ "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" is a summons to each of us to own and to bring to others what we bear in our hearts.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 24, 2021

FOCUS: Jesus invites us to follow him and make God's way our own. As we respond in faith to God's call, our way becomes less our own and more of one united to his love. Jesus invites us to follow him, and when our spiritual blindness interferes with our ability to do so, Jesus heals and redeems us through his compassionate love. Jesus guides his disciples and they support one another.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, Jeremiah foretells the return of the remnant of Israel from exile, carefully gathered and guided back by the Lord. In the second reading, Christ is described as a high priest called by God to make an offering for our sins. In the Gospel, Jesus heals the blind beggar Bartimaeus, who then follows Jesus on the way.

REFLECTION: Jesus meets us where he found the blind Bartimaeus, by the roadside, also not seeing, or looking in the wrong direction for wisdom and insight. Today, for a moment, we have stopped to hear the Word of God and Jesus asking us, "What do you want me to do for you?" We answer from our present place, or life situation, "Master I want to see."

So, we ask ourselves:

- How would we respond to Jesus' question, "What do you want me to do for you?"
- Have we ever shared what He has done for us with another?

Second Collection

Today we celebrate the 110th anniversary of service to the Missions on this World Mission Sunday. With the prayers and support of the faithful in Philadelphia, you have helped provide for the needs of Missionaries world-wide for 110 years. This Mission has always been the hallmark of the Church, for 'she exists to evangelize.' And YOU have been perfect examples of this! Thank you for all that you do.

God bless our newly baptized

First Reading ~ Prophet Jeremiah 31:7-9

Thus says the LORD:
Shout with joy for Jacob, exult at the head of the nations; proclaim your praise and say: The LORD has delivered his people, the remnant of Israel.

Behold, I will bring them back from the land of the north; I will gather them from the ends of the world, with the blind and the lame in their midst, the mothers and those with child; they shall return as an immense throng.

They departed in tears, but I will console them and guide them; I will lead them to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble.

For I am a father to Israel, Ephraim is my first-born.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Second Reading ~ Hebrews 5:1-6

Brothers and sisters: Every high priest is taken from among men and made their representative before God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring, for he himself is beset by weakness and so, for this reason, must make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honor upon himself but only when called by God, just as Aaron was. In the same way, it was not Christ who glorified himself in becoming high priest, but rather the one who said to him:

You are my son: this day I have begotten you; just as he says in another place: You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

- When the LORD brought back the captives of Zion,
  we were like men dreaming.
  Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
  and our tongue with rejoicing.
- Then they said among the nations,
  "The LORD has done great things for them."
  The LORD has done great things for us;
  we are glad indeed.
- Restore our fortunes, O LORD,
  like the torrents in the southern desert.
  Those that sow in tears
  shall reap rejoicing.
- Although they go forth weeping,
  carrying the seed to be sown,
  They shall come back rejoicing,
  carrying their sheaves.

Gospel ~ Mark 10: 46-52

As Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a sizable crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind man, the son of Timaeus, sat by the roadside begging. On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me." Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

During this Year of St. Joseph, each of us can find in him an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble. Joseph shows us how to say 'yes' to life, despite our own fears, frailties, and weaknesses. For it is Joseph who was chosen by God to guide the beginnings of the history of redemption. He was the true 'miracle' by which God saves the child and his mother.

May we, too, be miracles in the lives of those who are most in need, especially at the beginning and end of life. Dear St. Joseph, you were able to turn a problem into a possibility by trusting always in divine providence, help us to imitate your faithful trust and courage.

Senior Citizens

ST. CECILIA PARKING LOT

"TRUNKERS"

Join us as a "trunker." Park your car, pop the trunk, decorate, and hand out candy while your little goblins seek treats from one trunk to the next!
Arrive for set-up at 12:15pm.
Vehicles need to be fully decorated by 1:00pm.
Cost is $80 per spot and there are 80 spots available.
All spots may already be taken, but you can go to https://scsfoxchase.org/trunk-or-treat to find out.

"TREATERS"

No vehicle, no problem! Families may join us without a decorated vehicle. Park on the street and travel on foot to the parking lot for trick-or-treat fun between 1:00 and 3:00pm. Put on your costume and stop by! The only cost is a donation of candy. Bring it with you or drop it off during the week at school.
PLEASE NOTE: All candy must be peanut/nut free and wrapped.

Our Sisters invite you to stop by at this time. They will have their IHM car decorated too!

WATCH WITH GOD IN RUSSIA

Well known for his heroic story of surviving 24 years in Russian prison camps, this film about the great Jesuit Fr. Walter Ciszek traces his incredible endurance and struggle for survival. It highlights his tremendous faith in God, and the remarkable impact his life has had on the resurgence of Catholicism in Russia, as seen with on location footage from around the world.

LISTEN
THE INNOCENCE OF FATHER BROWN AUDIO BOOK BY G.K. CHESTERTON

One of the most memorable sleuths in the canon of detective fiction has to be Father Brown, the small priest with "a face as round and dull as a Norfolk dumpling", but who nevertheless outwits the greatest criminal minds with his wisdom regarding human nature. Brought to life here by actor Kevin O'Brien in a series of dramatic readings.
