Dear Lord,

We thank you for the brave men and women who have fought, and continue to fight, so courageously for our nation. We ask for your covering and blessing over them and their families. We pray that you would be gracious and encircle them with your peace. Amen.

First Reading ~ Acts of the Apostles 7:55-60

Stephen, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked up intently to heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God, and Stephen said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God." But they cried out in a loud voice, covered their ears, and rushed upon him together. They threw him out of the city, and began to stone him. The witnesses laid down their cloaks at the feet of a young man named Saul. As they were stoning Stephen, he called out, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." Then he fell to his knees and cried out in a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them;" and when he said this, he fell asleep.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth.

- The LORD is king; let the earth rejoice;
let the many islands be glad.
Justice and judgment are the foundation of his throne.
- The heavens proclaim his justice,
and all peoples see his glory.
All gods are prostrate before him.
- You, O LORD, are the Most High over all the earth, exalted far above all gods.

FOCUS: Belief in Jesus transforms and unites us as beloved sons and daughters of the Father.

Jesus prays for believers, asking the Father that we may be brought to perfection as one. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we will be transformed. We can turn to Stephen, the first martyr, and the saints for courage as we turn our lives over to God.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

In the first reading, Stephen is stoned to death after relaying a vision of Jesus at the right hand of God. In the second reading, John writes of the vision he had, that Jesus, the Alpha and the Omega, will judge each according to their deeds. In the Gospel, Jesus prays that believers will be one, united to him and the Father.

REFLECTION: We are a people waiting. While we wait, we want to be Christ's servants to help bring about the completion of the kingdom of love, unity and justice he proclaimed. We both work for that goal and also keep a vigil for the coming of the Spirit anew into our lives on Pentecost. In our vigil we pray the prayer of the Book of Revelation, the last words of the New Testament, "Come, Lord Jesus."

Second Reading ~ Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20

I, John, heard a voice saying to me: "Behold, I am coming soon. I bring with me the recompense I will give to each according to his deeds. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

Blessed are they who wash their robes so as to have the right to the tree of life and enter the city through its gates.

"I, Jesus, sent my angel to give you this testimony for the churches. I am the root and offspring of David, the bright morning star."

The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." Let the hearer say, "Come." Let the one who thirsts come forward, and the one who wants it receive the gift of life-giving water.

The one who gives this testimony says, "Yes, I am coming soon." Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel ~ John 17:20-26

Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying: "Holy Father, I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, that the world may believe that you sent me. And I have given them the glory you gave me, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may be brought to perfection as one, that the world may know that you sent me, and that you loved them even as you loved me. Father, they are your gift to me. I wish that where I am they also may be with me, that they may see my glory that you gave me, because you loved me before the foundation of the world. Righteous Father, the world also does not know you, but I know you, and they know that you sent me. I made known to them your name and I will make it known, that the love with which you loved me may be in them and I in them."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
