Third Sunday of Advent

FOCUS: Make your hearts firm, because the coming of the Lord is at hand.

On Gaudete Sunday we rejoice with all the earth in anticipation and preparation for Jesus' birth and the coming of his kingdom. We, like John the Baptist, are blessed and included in the kingdom of heaven, not because of what we do but what Jesus does for us.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, Isaiah describes how the earth will rejoice when the Lord comes to save his people. In the second reading, James encourages patient hearts, for the return of the Lord is at hand. In the Gospel, Jesus praises John the Baptist as God's messenger and assures John's disciples that he is the one John has been seeking.

REFLECTION: We celebrate "Rejoice Sunday" today, because, as Isaiah points out, "Here is your God, who comes with vindication...." Our just God is going to set things right. That should give us hope and determination to continue (or begin!) our efforts to cooperate with God's just plans now in the world around us. Happily, we are not relying on our own efforts because we trust the prophet's assurance that God is close.

So we ask ourselves:

- ◆ In what concrete ways do I experience the closeness of God in my life now?
- ◆ Do I see that the good works I do enable others to experience God's reaching out to them?

RCIA

Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic faith? You may or may not have a relationship with God. We invite you to join us to encounter, discover, share, the love of the goodness of Jesus. For more info, please call the Parish Office at 215-725-1240.

Prayer for Advent

O Almighty God,
gracious provider and giver of life,
we anxiously await the celebration of your birth.
Like the people of long ago,
our ancestors in faith,
we, too, are in need of light,
in need of direction, in need of your Word,
to show us the way.
Our busy lives
and the consumerism that surrounds us make it difficult to recognize your kingdom and to hear your voice.
Help us Lord, to focus on you. Amen.

GOT SIN? GET MERCY

Prepare well for Christmas and let Jesus be your Lord and Redeemer!

Need help making your confession? Just let Fr. Lucas or Fr. Chris know and they will assist you. Unable to kneel, it is okay - remain standing in the confessional (Fr. Chris is trying to find a way to get a chair in at least one confessional).

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

I have been overwhelmed by your generous response to adoring our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament during the past two weeks. Each hour of the day we have had an average of twelve people or more in quiet prayer. Thank you for your beautiful witness of faith and love for Jesus. If you have not been able to make it yet, please treat yourself very soon to this precious time with Jesus!

You may have noticed a new bookshelf in the back of the Church near my confessional. This is a new resource for you. Please help yourself to the books that are there for your growth in knowledge and spiritual growth. I will be assisted by a few parishioners in keeping an eye on the books and removing anything that is not theologically sound. Please make use of the resource!

Please invite friends and family to join you for Mass on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day. I look forward to welcoming many who have not worshipped with us since I arrived. God desires to bless each person who comes...who can you bring to the Lord?

You have noticed some changes to our liturgical music. I have made these changes in consultation with our Music Director, Mr. Phil Roberts. Since arriving, I studied the results of the Disciple Make Index (taken last Lent) and listened to the concerns raised by many of you, and felt it was necessary to make some changes. I remain grateful to all who have served our Music Ministry for many years and hope they will remain involved. If you wish to discuss the changes, do not hesitate to contact me as I want to listen to your thoughts and seek to maintain harmony in our Parish.

Fr. Chris

GREETERS FOR CHRISTMAS MASSES

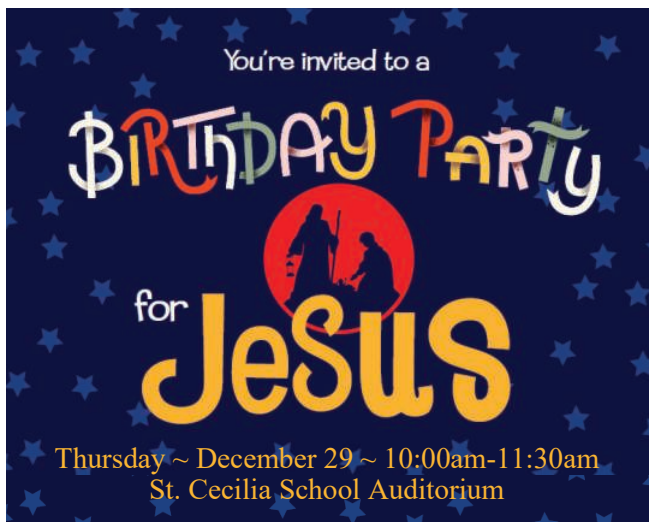

As we welcome people home to St. Cecilia for Mass on Christmas Eve (4pm and 7pm) and Christmas Day (regular Sunday schedule), Father Chris would like to have people at each day to say Welcome! Could you help us? Training provided. Please call Sherri at 215-399-6178.

HELPING OTHERS AT CHRISTMAS

The Christmas Season is upon us. As you shop for your loved ones, we are aware that there are families who are facing financial challenges and not able to provide the Christmas they desire for their children. St. Cecilia wants to be a Christian presence for those families. If you know of any family in need, please contact Ruth in the Parish Office by Tuesday, December 13.

Since we have received many requests to help families at Christmas, we are now looking for donations. If you would like to help, we are looking for Gift Cards (Target, Walmart, Walgreens) or you can purchase gifts for a family. Please contact Ruth in the Parish Office as soon as possible and we would like the donations by Thursday, December 15. May God reward your goodness!

Thank you to everyone who took an ornament and will be bringing your gift today. Please take them to the truck in the parking lot. Gifts will be delivered on Monday to Bethesda Project/Our Brother's Place, Birthright, The Cenacle, Guiding Star Ministries, Mercy Hospice, St. Francis Inn, St. John's Hospice and Women of Hope.

Saturday, December 10 (4:00pm - 5:30pm)
Sunday, December 11 (6:00am - 11:30am)

May God bless you this Christmas season for your generosity.
