Fr. Chris

Today we take up a special collection for Catholic Home Missions. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal helps meet the faith needs of Catholics in the missions. It supports the education of priests, deacons, religious sisters and lay people, so the Eucharist and the word of God can nourish Catholics. Thank you for supporting the missions.

A Quick STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE to How a Pope Is Elected

Upon the death of a pope, the world turns its attention to the Vatican. The Church enters a period of mourning before the process of choosing a successor begins (no sooner than 15 days and no later than 20 days after the pope's passing). Cardinals from around the world gather in Rome to prayerfully discern and elect the next leader of the Catholic Church—a process that is rich in history, tradition, and faith. But how does this election take place? Who is involved in the decision, and what are the key steps in selecting the next pope?

Step 1: The Cardinals Gather

It all starts when the pope's seat becomes vacant. The cardinals from all over the world meet in the Vatican for what's called 'General Congregations.' This is the time to pray, discuss, and prepare for the election, which is known as the conclave.

Step 2: The Cardinals Celebrate Mass & Pray for the Holy Spirit's Guidance

Before the process begins, the cardinals celebrate Mass together in St. Peter's Basilica, asking the Holy Spirit to guide them.

Step 3: The Cardinals Enter the Conclave & Secrecy Begins

The voting cardinals—those under 80 years of age—now process into the Sistine Chapel while chanting Veni Creator Spiritus, calling the Holy Spirit. They take an oath of secrecy, and then comes a dramatic moment: the Master of Papal Liturgical Celebrations announces 'Extra omnes!'—which means 'All out!' Only the voting cardinals remain.

Step 4: The Cardinal Electors Discuss Potential Candidates

Technically, any baptized male Catholic is eligible to be elected as pope. You don't have to be a Cardinal! However, the pope is almost always chosen from among the College of Cardinals. The cardinals weigh all the important qualities carefully, keeping in mind the Church's needs. This process involves both prayerful discernment and practical considerations to select a leader who will guide the Church effectively in the years to come.

Step 5: The Voting Begins

When it is time to vote, each cardinal writes the name of his choice on a ballot, folds it, and places it in a large chalice. Then, they count the votes. A pope must receive two thirds of the votes from the electors present to be chosen.

Step 6: Black Smoke Means No Pope

If no candidate reaches the required two-thirds majority, the votes—and any notes the cardinals took during that round—are burned. If no pope is elected, a special mixture is added to make the smoke black.

Step 7: A Cardinal Receives Two-Thirds Majority

Rounds of voting continue (four rounds each day) until a candidate finally reaches a two-thirds majority. When this happens, he is asked if he accepts. He can say no. If this were to happen, the voting would resume—but if he were to accept, he chooses a papal name and dresses in white for the first time.

Step 8: White Smoke Means We Have a New Pope

Now the world gets the big news. We have a new pope! They add a special mixture to the papers and ballots used during that round of voting to produce white smoke. As the smoke rises from the chimney, bells can be heard ringing across Rome.

Step 9: Habemus Papam!—"We Have a Pope!"

The senior cardinal deacon—called the cardinal Protodeacon—steps out onto the balcony of St. Peter's Basilica and announces, "Habemus Papam!" ("We have a new pope!"). The newly elected pope is presented to the world for the first time from the balcony.

Step 10: The Urbi et Orbi Blessing

What is the first thing the new pope does? He blesses the city of Rome and the whole world with the Urbi et Orbi blessing.

Join us in praying
for our new pope:

Message from the Pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

The Conclave to elect a new Holy Father, will begin this Wednesday, May 7th. Please join us in prayer on Tuesday nights from 7 pm to 8 pm to beg the Lord Jesus' help. We will likely have a pope when we gather for Mass next weekend. In an interview with a German reporter in 1997, Pope Benedict (then a Cardinal) stated the following: I would not say so, in the sense that the Holy Spirit picks out the pope. . . I would say that the Spirit does not exactly take control of the affair, but rather, like a good educator, as it were, leaves us much space, much freedom, without entirely abandoning us. Thus, the Spirit's role should be understood in a much more elastic sense, not that he dictates the candidate for whom one must vote. Probably the only assurance he offers is that the thing cannot be totally ruined. There are too many contrary instances of popes that the Holy Spirit obviously would not have picked!

Like many, I have watched the movie Conclave. I believe that each Cardinal enters the Sistine Chapel with his gifts and challenges, beliefs, and experiences. Add to this a generous portion of the Holy Spirit, and choices are made. Jesus promised that He would never abandon His Church. He has kept that promise, and I believe will continue to keep it.

I remain hopeful for the Catholic Church, especially in our Parish. I am hopeful that the new Pope will guide us in remaining committed to following Jesus Christ and sharing the joy of living in a relationship with Jesus with others. If we all make that choice, great things will happen for us and our world!

Father Chris

PS – If by some strange turn of events I am elected Pope, it has been a beautiful three years serving as your Pastor. Thank you for your goodness, and please visit me in Rome!

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia will ordain six priests on May 17th! Please pray for these men as they begin service to our local Church. Please hold in prayer our priests as they celebrate their anniversaries of priestly service in these weeks as well: Fr. Callahan (52 years); Fr. Phong (2 years); Fr. Chris (26 years). Father Bonner celebrates SIXTY YEARS AS A PRIEST. Please consider sending him a card: Villa Saint Joseph, 1436 Lansdowne Avenue. Darby, PA 19023-1218

A question to ponder this week based on our Scripture Readings....

When Jesus asked Peter three times if he loved Him, Peter said to Jesus, "You know everything; you know that I love you." How can we "feed my sheep" and fill others with HOPE? Who are you being called to help in your life right now?

Year of Hope Reflections

Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen. (Hebrews 11,1)

How does this quote inspire you towards greater HOPE?

Year of Hope Pilgrimages—Save the dates!

Pilgrimages are being planned for the following:

- ◆ Shrine of St. John Neumann and St. Rita on September 13
- ◆ National Shrine of the Blessed Mother in Washington, DC on Tuesday, October 28. Parishes from the Archdiocese of Philadelphia will gather to celebrate the Year of Hope!

More information will be forthcoming. Please mark your calendars and plan to join us!

Have you received the Sacrament of Confirmation? Many adults have "missed" the Sacrament for some reason. It is not too late! Contact Mike Tate, and we will prepare you to receive the Sacrament when the Bishop visits St. Cecilia next year!

mike@stceciliafc.com

¿Has recibido el sacramento de la Confirmación? Muchos adultos se han perdido el sacramento por alguna razón. ¡Aún estás a tiempo! Contacta a Mike Tate y te prepararemos para recibirlo cuando el obispo visite Santa Cecilia el próximo año.

The Shepherd is looking for some sheep! Since COVID many people who once worshipped at St. Cecilia have stopped coming. Some fell out of the habit. Some felt hurt by the Churches being closed. Some have become homebound.

Some...something else. If you know one of these people, can you help us help Jesus connect to them? Please fill out this simple form and put it in the collection basket next week. Thank you!

 of every person so that peace
 may be firmly established. Amen.
