Message from the Pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

I saw the message below on Facebook last weekend. I thought it was quite relevant to the Gospel this weekend as Jesus asks us, "who do you serve"? Please take a few minutes to read this and reflect. I am confident that you will choose Jesus once again!

Father Chris

The devil, who hates humanity and seeks its damnation and destruction doesn't care why you hate other human beings as long as you hate other human beings.

He doesn't care what fall or misfortune you rejoice in about your neighbor, as long as you do.

He doesn't care which capital sin you wish to nurture in your own soul, as long as you do.

He doesn't care if you go to church, as long as you don't take it seriously.

He doesn't care how you're selfish, as long as you are selfish.

He doesn't care who you seek vengeance against, as long as you seek vengeance.

He doesn't care who you place beyond the ability or necessity for mercy, forgiveness, and conversion, as long you do.

Where as God wants us to love as He loves, the devil wants us to hate as he hates. There are many who will own that. Whose agent will you be?

A question to ponder this week based on our Scripture Readings....

What "masters" are pulling your time and attention away from God? What is one concrete way that we can put God at the center of our attention this week?

Journeying with St. Ignatius from the Armchair of your Living Room (via ZOOM) on Thursday Evenings from 7:00pm to 8:00pm beginning Thursday, October 9th and concluding Thursday, November 20th. Thoughts on Stewardship

A 130-foot-tall statue dedicated to Christ the Redeemer overlooks Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. It is located on top of Corcovado Mountain, which the Portuguese had originally named "Pinnacle of Temptation." In the 1850s, a Vincentian priest arrived and, struck by the mountain's beauty, he suggested a religious monument be constructed there in honor of Princess Isabella of Spain...who dismissed the idea.

Even after the Brazilian government passed a law separating Church and state (making construction of such a monument illegal), Brazilian Catholics refused to give up the idea of erecting a statue in thanksgiving for all they received from God.

By 1921, the Archdiocese of Rio de Janeiro had received permission to build a statue of Christ, which would be visible to everyone throughout Rio. To finance the project, the archdiocese held "Monument Week," seeking donations. Although many of the people were poor, the Catholics of Rio gave generously to help cover all costs. Construction finally began in 1926, and on October 12, 1931 the statue was inaugurated. Its cost: $250,000. In 2007, the statue of Christ the Redeemer in Rio de Janeiro was named one of the new Seven Wonders of the World.

Building this amazing statue was a leap of faith. How is God calling you to make a leap of faith and be more trusting in the way you give to charity?

YEAR OF HOPE PILGRIMAGE TO WASHINGTON,DC.

Are you grieving the loss of a loved one? Are you looking for a safe, welcoming space to share your feelings with others who understand what you're going through? Saint Cecilia Parish offers Coffee Talk—a free and confidential gathering where you can share your thoughts, emotions, and fears with others walking a similar journey of grief, supported by faith and hope. There are no counselors, speakers, or formal themes—just a group of caring Christians offering a listening ear, encouragement, and companionship, along with a light breakfast. Coffee Talk meets one Saturday a month from 9:00am to 11:00 AM at St. Cecilia. Our next meeting is Saturday, September 27. To learn more or to let us know you'll be attending, please contact Paula at ripleynd@aol.com or 215-317-9802.

Baby Bottle Campaign Be a part of our baby bottle campaign and help Moms and babies! As a fundraising event for the Pro-Life Union of Greater Philadelphia's Guiding Star Maternity Home, our parish will distribute baby bottles after Masses throughout October. Please take home a bottle and fill it during the month with your change. We will collect them at the end of October. Thank you for your support in helping moms and babies by providing them a loving home, spiritual enrichment, education and unwavering support for pregnant women who would otherwise be homeless.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Almighty and eternal God, in your unfailing love, you provide ministers for your Church. We pray for those whom you call to serve the Church of Philadelphia as priests, deacons, and religious brothers and sisters. Inspire those called from Saint Cecilia to give a generous response. Grant them courage and vision to serve your people. May their lives of service call your people to respond to the presence of your Spirit among us, faithful to the Gospel and hope of Jesus Christ, so that we may announce glad tidings to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives, set prisoners free and renew the face of the earth!

Eucharistic Ministry at Jeanes Hospital

We need additional people to bring Holy Communion to Jeanes Hospital on Sunday Morning. One of the challenges is the robust clearances that the hospital requires. If you are an employee of Jeanes or Temple, you would not need to get these clearances. SO>>>>if you are a Jeanes/ Temple employee, would you consider helping with this vital ministry once a month or even every other month on a Sunday morning? Contact Deacon Bill for more information at deaconbill@stceciliafc.com

MANNA Food Collection—Please bring non-perishable food items to Church (place in the room off of Church lobby) THIS weekend, September 20th and 21st. The food will be shared with local food cupboards! Praise God for your goodness.

Updates on Parish Life

The City has issued a permit for the new LED sign. The sign is being fabricated and we hope for a successful installation before Christmas.

The Parish Finance Council met on Sept. 16th. The Finances for the Parish & School continue to be excellent thanks to the generosity of the parish and good stewardship of our staff. Our working committees continue with specific projects (a Volunteer Policy Manual, long-term upgrades to the parish campus, and continued fundraising for the School).

OCIA started on Sept. 15th. We have a wonderful group of adults starting the process of exploring life as Catholic. Pray for them. Interested in joining us? Call Mike Tate in the Parish Office!

We rejoice in the 60 candidates for the Sacrament of Confirmation who begin their formal preparation this weekend at Saint Cecilia. They will receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit on Saturday, March 28th at 11 am. Please pray for them and their families. May they have the grace to life as disciples of Jesus all through their life!

Please pray for the souls of James Zale, Lisa Kovacs-Breuer and Katie Link who passed away in recent days. May they be welcome into paradise and their loved ones given comfort.
