HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR APRIL

We pray for those who risk their lives while fighting for fundamental rights under dictatorships, authoritarian regimes and even in democracies in crisis.

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

May your people exult for ever, O God, in renewed youthfulness of spirit, so that, rejoicing now in the restored glory of our adoption, we may look forward in confident hope to the rejoicing of the day of resurrection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

GOSPEL: LUKE 24:35-48

Our Lord's glorious resurrection is the crowning miracle of his sojourn on earth among men. It is the foundation and cornerstone of our Christian religion. His death on Calvary proved that he was really human; his resurrection proved he was also divine. During his public life he had claimed to be God. Had that claim been untrue, God the Father could not have raised him from the dead. By his death he made atonement for the sins of the world — "he nailed them to the tree of the cross"; by his resurrection he opened the gates of death for all men and made them heirs to eternal life.

A PENTECOST FOR ALL PEOPLE

Bishop McElroy invites all faithful to come together for this special Pentecost celebration as we re-energize our mission to love and serve all of mankind in God's name.

Bishop McElroy with Auxiliary Bishops John Dolan and Ramón Bejarano and clergy will concelebrate this annual Mass with the diverse communities and cultures of the diocese, invoking the Holy Spirit to renew us by building unity, justice and mercy in the Body of Christ. Everyone is welcome to this extraordinary celebration of our universal Catholic family.

This event will be held at Good Shepherd Church on Saturday, May 22, beginning with a Call to Worship at 10 a.m. and Mass at 11 a.m. It will be an outdoor event - physical distancing and masks are required. The event will be live-streamed at www.sdcatholic.org/pentecost2021.

EMBRACING OUR VULNERABLE CHILDREN: SUPPORTING FOSTER FAMILIES IN OUR PARISHES

Being a foster parent is an admirable yet challenging ministry, especially for first-time foster families. How can our parishes support this pro-life call to help vulnerable children in our churches and communities? Pastors, parish ministry leaders and interested parishioners are invited to join the Office for Family Life & Spirituality on May 12 at 7 pm for their next Healing Pathways workshop on the topic of supporting foster families in our parishes. A panel presentation of foster parents and representatives from organizations supporting foster families will discuss what faith communities can do to help. THE CHURCH COMPASS

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

The Church accompanies us on our journey through life, through the seasons of the year and within the changing circumstances of our daily lives. The following themes can serve as a guide along this path. They can be used individually, as a family or in groups.

REMEMBER: Was there a time you saw something that really frightened you but also unsettled your mind? Have you ever talked to someone you have not seen in a long time who you did not recognize at first, or seen someone with a familiar face but could not put a name to it?

READ: Luke 25:35-48

REFLECT: It often seems more logical to attribute Christ's appearances after his resurrection as visions or that he appeared as some sort of angelic being. Not so. Christ goes to great lengths to demonstrate that he is no ghost or some sort of creature from the dead that he is as real as he was before his death, even more real.

REVIEW: From the perspective of the apostles, what was their weakest point? 1. Their eyesight was poor? 2. They were too emotional? 3. They were not experts on the Scriptures? 4. They failed to believe the truth of Christ's past promises? 5. They needed hard evidence first to work with? 6. They were wracked with guilt and fear?

RESPOND: From your own perspective, how would you respond to Christ standing before you? 1. I would bow down and worship? 2. I would run away? 3. I would think it was a prank. 4. It wouldn't be him if he didn't have long hair and a beard? 5. I would ask him to prove his identity? 6. I would ask for forgiveness of my sins? 7. "It's the end of the world."
