Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Are you envious because I am generous?" Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the story of the workers in the vineyard. The landowner pays them all the same, no matter when they began. It may seem unfair, but Jesus shows that God's love does not follow human rules. On the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A, we are reminded that God's ways are greater than our ways. He welcomes all who turn to Him and gives mercy freely.

Let go of envy and comparison. Trust God's goodness and rejoice when others receive His grace. Encourage someone who feels left out. Remind that person that God's love is always near.

Theme: God's generous mercy.

The readings for the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A remind us that God's mercy and generosity go far beyond what we expect. He invites everyone to turn to Him, no matter how late they come. His ways are not like ours. Where people see limits, God offers grace without measure.

Isaiah calls us to seek the Lord while He is near. God is patient and ready to forgive. The psalm praises Him as kind and slow to anger. Paul teaches us to live in a way that honors Christ, whether in life or death. Each passage shows faith as a response to God's goodness.

Adoration Adorers Needed

Have you ever longed for a quiet place to rest your heart, listen to God's voice, and simply be in His presence? Eucharistic Adoration is that sacred time--a peaceful encounter with Jesus, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament.

St. Michael's Adoration has resumed on Tuesdays, and we are currently in need of a committed adorer for the following Tuesday hour:

St. Michael's

1 Adorer for the 2 to 3 pm hour

Your "yes" to one of these hours is more than just filling a schedule -- it is a gift of love to Jesus and a blessing to our parish. Even one hour a week can transform your spiritual life and bring peace to your soul.

If you feel God's gentle nudge, please prayerfully consider joining our Adoration family. If you can only be a substitute, let us know.

To sign up at St. Michael's for an hour on Tuesdays, please call the St. Michael's Parish Office at 979-793-4477 and for Wednesdays at Sts. Cyril & Methodius call either Eileen Medwedeff at 281-750-9092 or Kathleen Lindemann at 979-533-9190.

Our 11th Grade Confirmation Mass will be on Sunday, October 4, 2026
at the 10:00 am Mass with Archbishop Joe S. Vasquez officiating

Sacristans serve quietly but powerfully behind the scenes, ensuring that everything needed for the celebration of the Mass is prepared with care and reverence. Sacristans prepare the way for the celebration of the Mass, they help create an environment where God's people can worship with beauty, order, and devotion. Some of the Sacristans responsibilities are preparing the altar, ensuring that the bread, wine and other necessary elements are ready. Making sure all other liturgical ministers are present and ready to serve. Assisting the priest and deacons and properly cleaning and storing items after Mass.

If you are interested in joining the Sacristan or Rosary Leader Ministry, please contact the St. Michael's parish office for more information and training opportunities.
