KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS®

Brother Knights,

First, thank you to all of our volunteers that made all of the fish fries a big success. As mentioned earlier, we've moved our meeting to this TUESDAY since our regular meeting falls on Holy Thursday. We will have a CUF/exemplification to welcome our newest member to our council, then a very, very short meeting to accept the slate of officers and approve the spending of up to $1,200 to print roughly 150 shirts for our volunteers. Finally, reminder that it's time to get the scholarship applications in the mail... we have a strict deadline and since we more than doubled the scholarship amount, it's likely we'll get more interest from the students. If you have a senior, get them to submit and enter in the mail this week at the latest.

The Council wants to thank all of our volunteers and supporters who made our Fish Fry Fridays a success!

The Knights were pleased to provide the busses for the confirmation retreat. Our prayers and support for all our young people as they take this important step in the faith.

Elijah Becerra was awarded 2nd place in the whole diocese for his Catholic Citizenship Essay. He's pictured here with his mom, our Grand Knight, District Deputy, and Diocesan Deputy. Great job, Elijah!

Congratulations to very own Cora Kuperus who got 3rd place in the essay contest across the entire diocese. Great job, Cora!

St Michael's Council KC's co-hosted the City's Big Trash Off. Top left is Needville's Mayor (and KC Member). We cleaned ditches to make Needville even more beautiful.
