Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to Fr. Robert Healy celebrating the Extraordinary Form (Latin)
Mass this Sunday at 10:30 a.m. at Holy Cross.
Fr. Healy will be celebrating a Latin Mass at Holy Cross two Sundays per month.

Let us turn with confidence to St. Joseph – the most watchful guardian of the Holy Family - and earnestly beseech him to guide, protect, and defend our efforts in adding this new Mass. Prayers and resources for the Year of St. Joseph are available on the Alcuin Institute Website <https://alcuininstitute.org/year-of-st-joseph>
A link is also on both the Diocese of Tulsa & Holy Cross Websites

Please pray for the repose of the souls of Phyllis Hosey, longtime Holy Cross parishioner and Don Cummings, brother of Joe Cummings
A Funeral Mass will be held for Phyllis on Tuesday, July 13, at 10 a.m.
May God pour upon the Hosey and Cummings families His sweet amazing grace and overflow their hearts with peace as they live in His embrace.

Our Road to Good Works

In today's Gospel we experience Jesus giving authority to carry out His work to the Apostles, and how their faith in Him leads to good works.
A living faith produces many great and good works. However, we see that strong and healthy persons must often be stirred up to put their strength and skill to proper use. The hand must lead them to their work. While a soul that is heavily burdened has the power to believe and hope in God's love, it does not have the strength to see clearly if it does. Its distress has such a hold on it. Yet, our Savior never lets us go out on the road alone. The Spirit of Jesus is always with us, urging us on and appealing to our hearts and driving them forward so as to use well the holy love He places in us.
A tender mother leads along her little child, helps him and holds him up as long as she sees a need for it. Now she lets him take a few steps by himself in places that are very level and not too difficult. Then she takes him by the hand and holds him steady. At times she takes him up in her arms and carries him. It is also the way that our Savior takes constant care to lead forward His children. He enables them to walk before Him. He holds their hand in difficulties. Therefore, when all things fail us, when our distress is at its height, our abandonment into the hands of our Savior cannot fail us. He will carry us along in hardships that He sees as being unbearable to us, if we let Him.
In many ways, God's care preserves those who have faith in the teachings of Jesus. Our entire good consists not only in accepting the truth of God's word, but also in persevering in it. Hence, we ought to have great courage and trust that God will assist us in all that we do for God's glory. Let us rouse our faith. Give it life in believing fully in God's love and care for us. Then all our works will bear fruit like those of the Apostles.
