ONE YEAR » TO » ONE PARISH

JULY 1, 2022—JULY 1, 2023

Under the above banner, each week you will find information regarding our process of merging our two parishes into one canonical entity, a brand new parish. We are some of the very last parishes in the Diocese of Pittsburgh to undertake this process. Each week you will learn details of how this will take place and some of its implications. Please read it each week.

Organization, Fundraising and Solicitation of Donations in Our New Parish

On July 1, 2023, as a new parish, we will become a very large religious organization. To be effective in our mission, we need to be organized and have fine-tuned communication. Our efforts will involve the activities of one parish with two Catholic schools, two church buildings, and two parish offices. Some elements of our plan are:

The Diocese insists on a principal mailing address for the one parish. Diocesan mail and vendor bills will be sent to that address. We have considered several factors in selecting the mailing address. Some churches in our area have had their mailboxes vandalized and mailed checks were cashed. The security of the mail is very important. One of our current parishes has an external mailbox and the other has delivery to a building. In addition, we considered it important that our mailing zip code reflect the physical address of at least one of the buildings of our new parish. The address of one former parish has a “Butler” zip code. In view of these and other factors, the mailing address for the new parish will be 7076 Franklin Road, Cranberry Township, PA 16066. It is important to note that the two parish offices (Glade Mills and Cranberry) will of course accept mail, but Diocesan mail, bills and other business-related mail will come to the “business address.”

The Diocese advises a common phone number for the new parish. Our phone system has been completely integrated so that any caller will be prompted to the appropriate individual at any location, parish office or school.

The parish bulletin will continue as it is but with a new header indicating the name and contact information for the new parish. The bulletin will continue to contain complete information regarding liturgies, events, activities and much more. In addition, the parish web site will continue to be updated to include all important information in a user-friendly manner.

As one parish, our fundraising and solicitation of donations will be centralized. A fundraising and solicitation schedule will be established for each fiscal year (July 1 to June 30). While planning and scheduling usually begins in January, every organization, ministry or group that intends to raise funds or solicit donations within the parish or on parish property must submit a request to do so by March 31st for the fiscal year beginning on July 1st. These requests will be coordinated by parish staff and filtered through the parish development office to avoid duplication and “donation overload.” This process would not apply to routine solicitation for the food pantry or special collections (i.e.: natural disaster relief).

No ministry or organization may request funds or donations outside the parish without an authorization letter from the pastor. Business owners and others complain that they are repeatedly solicited by “people” from our parishes. As one parish, we need to be united in this area as well. If we hope to launch a major fund-raising effort to add to the facilities adjacent to Holy Sepulcher Church, this united effort is critical to our success.

Servant of God Marie-Rose Juliette Toussaint

Servant of God Marie-Rose Juliette Toussaint was born Marie-Rose Gaston in 1786 in Saint Domingue which is present day Haiti. She and her family were enslaved and moved with their enslavers, the Noels, to Baltimore during the Haitian Revolution. In her early 20's, she met Venerable Pierre Toussaint — also on his way toward sainthood right now — an affluent New York man who had been enslaved and also immigrated from Haiti. He purchased her freedom, and they were married on August 5, 1811.

Juliette and Pierre quickly established themselves as a charitable force to be reckoned with in New York City! The adopted Euphémie, the daughter of Pierre's late sister, who died of tuberculosis, and raised her as their own child. Throughout their life together, Juliette and Pierre also adopted numerous black children from the streets of New York, raised them as their own, and helped them establish their own prosperous lives. They would shelter travelers and homeless folk and they went to daily Mass and participated in many local ministries.

Although they were bringing frequent treats and baked goods to the local orphanage, helping Haitian refugees find jobs, fostering and adopting children, and donating significant amounts of their personal money to charitable organizations, the Toussaints wanted to do even more. They worked together to continue their daily jobs but also to establish careers of charity. During yellow fever outbreaks, the couple temporarily repurposed their home as an infirmary to care for the sick in their neighborhood. Together, they created an employment agency for immigrants and freed slaves, a refuge for retired priests, and they even organized a credit bureau!

Later in life, with a congregation of sisters — the Oblate Sisters of Providence — Juliette and her husband helped fund the establishment of the very first New York City Catholic School for Black Children. They also helped finance the building of a new Roman Catholic church which became The Basilica of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral in Lower Manhattan and is still in use today, as well as helped finance St. Vincent De Paul church on New York's Canal Street. Secular causes also got attention from Juliette. She is credited with gifting the New York African Society for Mutual Relief the property on which they built their meeting hall!

Juliette died of natural causes on May 14, 1851, at the age of 65 and is buried along with her husband and their child at the church they helped build, Old St. Patrick's. She is recognized as a Servant of God for her incredible virtue and holiness.

Looking to the Sky

In the past, I have been guilty of being a little depressed by the Ascension. Looking at it from a certain angle, it has the feel of a party that’s coming to an end. The important guests have gone home and now it’s time to turn the lights back on, switch off the music and start cleaning up.

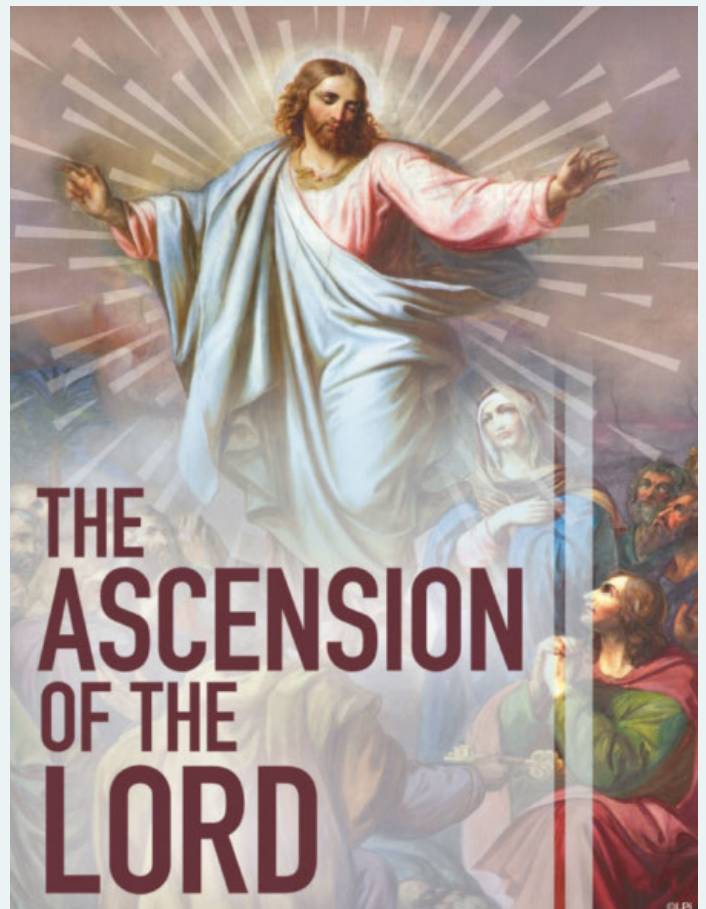

Of course, if I view the Ascension in this light, I’m not really paying attention. I’m lingering on the mountain, staring at the sky, wondering where God went and when He’s coming back.

Christ, of course, is very much the “main event” of the Gospels, and so when he is no longer a physical, visible presence on earth — teaching, preaching, curing, dying, rising — we can be forgiven for feeling a little deflated. But the life of Christ is not a season of our favorite show. It’s not a chapter in a book. It doesn’t exist for consumption and entertainment, and it certainly doesn’t come to an end.

It’s easy to think of Christ at Mass when He is there before me in the Eucharist. It’s easy to be about the work of God during Lent or Easter. But what about the dreaded “Ordinary Time”? As full as the sky is of clouds, so the world is full of distractions: work, finances, health, politics. I struggle to see where God has gone in the midst of it all.

In reality, He is still here. He is here in the person I choose to love or to abandon. He is here in the truth I choose to embrace or to reject. He is here, waiting for me in the sacraments I all too often take for granted.

“Behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.” — Matthew 28:20

Giving at Holy Sepulcher and Saint Kilian Parishes

This is the time of year that we tend to reevaluate our situation in life and start good habits and get rid of bad habits. We have been evaluating our parishes and our needs. Our parishes are in constant need of updating our facilities so we can maintain the standard of excellence expected from our parishioners. Our parking lots, HVAC, roofs etc. are in constant need of repair or updating. We are asking parishioners to evaluate the amount you give to the parish as you look at the new year and its resolutions. Each year parish costs go up just like at home. The parish is our spiritual home, and it might be a good time to prayerfully consider increasing your weekly or monthly offertory. There are many ways to consider giving to our parishes. Listed below are some options.

Faith Direct Online Giving

Our online giving through Faith Direct is the best and most convenient ways to give to the parish. It is a great way to be consistent with your giving and helps the parish with budgeting efforts. Signing up for Faith Direct is very easy. You may go to our website and click on "Online Giving" icon and it will direct to the option of giving to either Saint Killian or Holy Sepulcher. Again, you would click on the appropriate icon to give to that parish, then click the Faith Direct Icon and that will take you to the sign up page for online giving.

Traditional Giving

As many are aware you can give by putting money/envelopes in baskets at the entrances to each church. It has been the traditional way of giving to put money in the collection basket at the time of offertory during mass. Due to COVID that tradition has changed to putting your money or envelope in the baskets as you leave church.

Giving through GAFs and QCDs

Additional ways you may choose to give are through Donor-Advised Fund (DAF) or Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD). If you have a Donor-Advised Fund you know that it is a simple, efficient and tax-smart solution for charitable giving. Qualified Charitable Distributions is a direct transfer of funds from you IRA to the parish and can be applied to your required minimum distributions and is excluded from taxable income. If you would like to know more about giving through DAFs or QCDs you may contact our business manager Gregory Callaghan or your financial advisor.

Estate Planning

There is also an opportunity to remember our parish through Estate Planning. Remember your parish and the ministry it has provided you and your family throughout the years by including the parish in your estate.

Any way you give to our parishes, your generosity is greatly appreciated. May God bless you and your families throughout the 2023 year.

Sessions are June 22, 29, July 6, 13, 27 and August 3rd. The videos were filmed in the Holy Land and feature captivating stories together with breathtaking scenery, illuminating sacred art, and inspiring music. The Sorrowful Mysteries are the focus of this series. Join us and be inspired with an explosion of faith that can move mountains!

GRILLED CHICKEN COMMITTEE

The Summerfest committee would like to accommodate the popular request to bring grilled chicken, that was such a favorite offering for many years, back to the Summerfest in 2023. In order to do so we will need a crew of committed volunteers to unload, set-up, man the pits, and then clean-up and re-pack the equipment. The work requires handling heavy items and working in proximity to smoke and heat.

If you are willing to commit to this volunteer opportunity, please contact Dave McNally at judydavem@gmail.com or at (724) 650-2212. Without a core group of 6-8 volunteers it will not be possible.

Consider volunteering at Summerfest! Please scan the QR code or visit our website for more information.

BASKETS AND MORE COMMITTEE

The Donation Board and lists are set up in the Narthex at Holy Sepulcher Church. A donation wishlist is also setup on Amazon. Please scan the QR code. Each year with your support and donations, the Basket and More Auction, has been very successful. Our Team is working hard to make it a success again. Your donations are very much appreciated.

We will be having our next Basket and More meeting on Monday, June 5 at 6:30 in the YYAC Holy Sepulcher. All who are interested in helping and joining our team are invited to come. We have snacks! PLEASE NOTE: you must have your clearances in order to work the day of the Summerfest or help out the week before, setting up. It is simple to do, if you have not gotten a clearance to volunteer, please contact Jo Scheller at jscheller@holysepulcher.org.

We need:

- Volunteers to make follow up calls to businesses that letters were mailed to for donations.
- Large Baskets or Containers Please drop them off in the Coat Room at Holy Sepulcher.

Please bring all donations to the office or the coat room at Holy Sepulcher Church or at Saint. Killian Church. Make sure you put Attn: baskets and more auction All checks should be made out to Holy Sepulcher Church, in the memo make sure you put baskets and more. All gift cards, put in envelopes and drop off at offices or in church collection basket marked baskets and more.

More info to follow. Any questions, please call Linda Armstrong at 724-444-6452 or email at lclowns@consolidated.net.

Let Us Pray For Those Who Serve... Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. We ask this in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

We give our sincere thanks and appreciation to all veterans who have served their country. We continue to pray for our loved ones who are currently serving in the armed forces, whether they are stationed overseas or in the United States.

To submit a name to add to a prayer list that is published occasionally in our parish bulletin, please submit the request at https://saintkilian.formstack.com/forms/military_prayer_request

We would ask that in order to avoid any errors, please be sure to type the information clearly. Please inform us when a loved one has been discharged in order for us to keep our list up-to-date.

In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments... Whoever loves me will be loved by my Father and I will love him and reveal myself to him."

When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and through us into the hearts of those who are poor.

Is there a family who needs assistance? Please contact SVDPS by calling the parish office at (724) 625-1665 X2108. God Bless you for your help.
