MISSION AND MEANS

“Mission and Means” is a section in the parish bulletin directed toward the mission of our parish and the means available to accomplish it. It functions to highlight important parish events and especially opportunities to participate in the ongoing mission we all share.

SUNDAY OF THE LORD’S RESURRECTION - EASTER

Easter is the culmination of the Church’s entire liturgical year. It is the day when new members enter our faith community through baptism and others already baptized, join us at the Lord’s banquet of Eucharist. Easter Sunday begins 50 days of rejoicing in the Lord’s victory over sin and death. We are blessed to experience Easter joy as the light that scatters darkness and fear.

NEW LIFE AND NEW MEMBERS

Spring reminds us of new beginnings. At the Easter Vigil, we celebrated 21 people formally enter the Catholic Church by Baptism or Profession of Faith. Seeing them join us for the first time at the Eucharist was such a sign of new life in our faith community. Welcome. Often enough people say: “I am new to this parish. I am so glad I joined here. I feel so welcome and at home here. There is such a sense of joy and activity. I have really found a faith home.” All of this reminds us of how important our good example is in growing our faith family. It takes every one of us to make our community a faith filled welcoming parish.

EASTER GRATITUDE

On behalf of the priests, deacons and the entire parish staff, we thank all parishioners who daily make our “jobs” so fulfilling. We are all grateful to be part of such a wonderful parish community and for all that you do to make it such a thriving parish. You will be in our prayers today and throughout the Easter season.

FROM POPE FRANCIS

“Christ is risen; He is truly risen! ' In this traditional proclamation of the Churches of the East: Christòs anastèsis! That word 'truly' reminds us that our hope is not an illusion, but the truth! And that, in the wake of Easter, humanity's journey, now marked by hope, advances all the more readily”

SAINT MARK THE EVANGELIST

April 25

Saint Mark, the Evangelist, was born in Cyrene (Libya) of Jewish parents several years after the birth of Jesus Christ. Saint Mark's parents migrated to Palestine shortly after his birth. They settled at Cana in Galilee. A few years later, St. Mark's father died and Simon Peter who was married to a relative of Saint Mark's father cared for him and considered him a son (1 Peter 5:13). The New Testament letter to the Colossians also indicates that Saint Barnabas and Saint Mark were cousins (Col. 4:10).

Saint Mark preached in Alexandria, Egypt and was martyred there around 70 AD by followers of the Egyptian gods who took offense at him for seeming to insult their gods. Western Christians celebrate his feast day on April 25th.

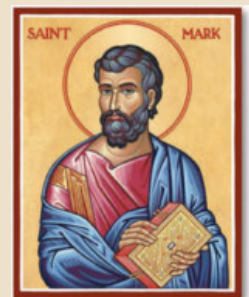

Chief among his accomplishments, is the New Testament work entitled The Gospel of Mark. Like Saint Luke, Saint Mark was not traditionally numbered among the 12 Apostles. Saint Peter is one of Saint Mark's sources for his Gospel. Other sources include members of the Christian communities of both Jerusalem and Antioch.

The Gospel of Mark was likely written for gentile converts in Rome after the death of Saints Peter and Paul sometime between 60 and 70 AD. This shortest of the New Testament gospels, The Gospel of Mark was likely written first. In it, the ministry of Jesus is described in more detail than in either of the accounts of Saint Matthew or Saint Luke. Saint Mark describes what Jesus did in a style, where one incident follows directly after another.

The Gospel of Mark begins with the appearance of John the Baptist, a messenger of God. But Saint Mark says John points to one mightier than he, Jesus, at whose baptism God speaks from heaven, declaring Jesus His Son, upon whom the Spirit descends.

A lion is Mark's symbol. The image of a lion arises from the opening words of the Gospel of Mark where John the Baptist is described as a "voice of one crying out in the desert" (Mark 1:3), which later artists compared to a roaring lion. Saint Mark's Gospel seems intended to enable Christians to stand faithful in the face of persecution, while proclaiming the gospel begun in Galilee.

We are proud to call Saint Mark the patron saint of our parish. As a disciple and evangelist, missionary, and martyr, he is an example for us of how we are to live our lives as missionary disciples and proclaimers of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH MINISTRIES

CARING QUILT MINISTRY

The Caring Quilt Ministry will have its next work day on Saturday, April 26 at 9:00 am in Fellowship Hall (Mars). Everyone is invited to stop by and check out what we do. No pressure to join but we do have fun, work hard and have time for fellowship at lunch.

The quilts are always available at the Parish/Education Center on Franklin Road. Any questions, please contact Linda Anderson at 814laa@gmail.com.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

We invite you to join us for the Feast of Divine Mercy will be celebrated with a prayer service (not a mass) on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 27, 2025 at 2:30pm at Holy Sepulcher Church.

Jesus promises that the soul that's been to Confession and receives Holy Communion will be completely wiped away of the two stains that are on our soul. Those stains are sin and the punishment due to sin. The special grace promised by our Lord for Divine Mercy Sunday is nothing less than the equivalent of a complete renewal of baptismal grace in the soul. To receive the extraordinary graces of this feast, the only condition is to receive Holy Communion worthily on Divine Mercy Sunday (or the vigil celebration), by making a good Confession beforehand and staying in the state of grace, and receive with great trust in Divine Mercy. It is a way to really start over in our spiritual life! (Father Chris Alar, Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception @ Divine Mercy Shrine)

If you are unable to join us for this prayer service but have met the above conditions, Father Chris recommends you offer up this prayer on Divine Mercy Sunday:

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, you promised St. Faustina that the soul who has been to confession [I have] and the soul that receives Holy Communion with trust in Divine Mercy [I am] will receive complete forgiveness of all sins and punishment. Lord, please give me this grace. Jesus, I Trust in You.

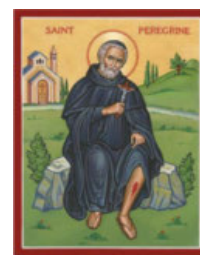

CANCER MINISTRY

The Ladies of Charity Cancer Ministry has an active prayer chain to pray for individuals living with cancer. The ministry also sends the St. Peregrine prayer card and medal to cancer patients, to let them know we are thinking of them and praying for them. If you know of an individual diagnosed with cancer, we would like to pray for them. Please contact us: cancerministry@saintkilian.org

We also make seat belt port cushions for chemo patients – do you know someone in need of one? Please feel free to pick up a port cushion at the back of each church:

HS – basket on the top shelf in the coat room

SK - basket on the top shelf of the food pantry drop-off area

SKY BYOBanana Party & Ice Cream Social

The SKY Ministry is sponsoring a BYOBanana Party and ice cream social on Friday, May 9, from 7-8:30 pm. The event will take place at the Saint Kilian School Field House. (In case of inclement weather, the party will be moved to the school cafeteria and gym.) There will be crazy banana games and the night will end with a 6 foot banana split.

All 6th-8th students are invited. Please register: <https://www.saintmark.org/sky-banana-night>

TAIZE PRAYER SERVICE

You are invited to Taizé Prayer Service, "a quiet reflective time of sung prayer" to be held on Tuesday, May 20 at 7:00 pm at Saint Kilian Church.

Join us for 60-minutes of ecumenical, peaceful, and meditative music, prayer, and Scripture readings. You are welcome to quiet the challenges of your day, the concerns of your heart, and center your thoughts on God.
