SUMMERFEST AND OUR PARISH COMMUNITY

A big “thank you” to all who volunteered and/or attended Summerfest last Sunday on Holy Sepulcher church grounds. Not only was I impressed by the quality of the whole event, but I also learned how special this event, formerly called and still referred to as “the bazaar” by some parishioners, is in the life of our parish. It was the first time in my priesthood that I’ve ever had my name on a Chuck-a-Luck wheel. There were four “Fr. Bob” spaces that, when the wheel landed on them, the money went to the house — a cute tradition going way back. There were catchy names on some of the 350 baskets at the basket raffle, which made me smile, such as the Christmas tree called the Magic Tree that came with the warning: May cause excessive joy! There was the really good food with more recent additions such as the exquisite breakfast sandwiches and the thirst-quenching lemonade, to the longtime halluski and the chicken BBQ with recipes that go way back.

Even besides the money that a good festival brings in, the most important thing is its ability to bring people together — both parishioners and non-parishioners, longtime parishioners and newbies to the community like me, young and old alike. A festival reminds us that a Catholic parish is a community, with the altar and the sacraments at its center, which the Holy Spirit brings together as the one Body of Christ. When we receive the Eucharist, for example, it’s not just me and God, but that each of us receiving the Eucharist becomes a part of a larger community of the Body of Christ. When we look at Jesus’ own ministry, we see that it wasn’t just Jesus and His Father, but that Jesus was out in the community, particularly among the sick, the outcasts, the sinners, reaching out to people whom others shunned. Jesus brought people together.

I’m thrilled to get to know all the various groups of people which make up Saint Mark the Evangelist Parish. It’s worth reminding ourselves that whatever part of the parish I’m a part of, whichever church building I might worship at, whether I’m a school family or part of the faith formation program, whether I’m young or old, a longtime parishioner or a newbie, we’re part of the larger community of Saint Mark the Evangelist. As such, each of us plays a role in reaching out to one another, caring for one another, and helping one another get to heaven. It seems that people right now in American society are looking for unique experiences. We have them right here in our parish community.

See page 4 for upcoming dates for “Mix and Meet with Fr. Bob”.

FOUNDATIONS OF FAITH

A Journey Through the Catechism

Foundations of Faith Session 16

"The Moral Law and the First Three Commandments"

The Ten Commandments are not restrictions — they are a roadmap to freedom and flourishing. In Session 16, Dr. Edward Sri introduces the natural moral law, the Old Law, and the New Law of the Gospel before guiding us through the first three commandments: worshipping God alone, revering his holy name, and keeping the Lord's Day. These commandments shape our relationship with God and anchor every other moral decision we make. Come discover how these ancient commands speak powerfully to our modern lives.

Meeting times:

- Holy Sepulcher Church Meeting Room
Tuesday, August 11, 12:30 pm to 2:00 pm
- Saint Kilian Church Hall
Wednesday, August 12, 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm

Bring your Catechism and your curiosity.
Handouts are provided for all.

Interested in becoming Catholic?

For adults, the usual way to become a member of the Catholic Church is through the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA). The OCIA is a gradual process of education and formation for those unbaptized, baptized in another Christian denomination, or baptized Catholic but who have not received any other sacraments or formation in the faith. The OCIA program helps adults to grow in their relationship with God. Sessions will be held on Monday evenings, 6:30pm-7:45pm in Meeting Room D in the lower level of Saint Kilian Church. Our first session is September 21st at 6:30pm in Meeting Room D.

It's never too soon to volunteer for our Faith Formation programs at both church locations! Although a few spots remain for either catechists or aides, we have a very urgent need for SUBSTITUTES. If you haven't volunteered because you aren't available each week - maybe this is the perfect fit for you! Volunteer as a sub which allows you to pick and choose when, where, and how you help throughout the year. Have questions? Contact a member of our team today!

ST. JANE FRANCES DE CHANTAL

Feastday: August 12

St. Jane Frances de Chantal was born in Dijon, France, in 1572. After marriage, motherhood, widowhood, and charitable service, she met St. Francis de Sales, who became her spiritual director.

Under the direction of St. Francis de Sales and with his partnership, she established the Congregation of the Visitation at Annecy in 1610. This was a unique order, without the extreme ascetical practices typical in other religious orders, accepting women and girls and those rejected by other orders because of poor health or age. The new order was also unusual in its public ministry, rather than a strictly cloistered life. St. Jane Frances transformed her convent at Annecy into a hospital during the plague of 1628.

The saint died at the Visitation Convent in Moulins on December 13, 1641. At the time of her death, there were 86 convents of Visitation nuns. She was canonized in 1767 by Pope Clement XIII.

St. Jane Frances de Chantal, pray for us!

INSPIRATION OF THE WEEK

In the midst of life's greatest storms, Jesus comes to us, but we may not recognize Him. We may test Him. In doing so, He will test us - and likely, we will fail. But when we falter, His saving hand is there.

PRAY FOR THOSE WHO SERVE

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. We ask this in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Savior. Amen. We give our sincere thanks and appreciation to all veterans who have served their country. We continue to pray for our loved ones who are currently serving in the armed forces, whether they are stationed overseas or in the United States.
