Priests Honored at Holy Name Function

WEST FERRIS—A farewell gathering honoring Rev. J. F. Daly who was recently transferred to Sturgeon Falls, and welcoming his successor, Rev. F. P. Lawless, took place Sunday afternoon in the parish hall of Holy Name Church on Memorial Drive. The hall was crowded throughout the afternoon with parishioners representing all age groups. A tribute of affection and esteem was bestowed upon Father Daly when, on behalf of the parish, Sam Rota made the presentation of a blue and gold illuminated scroll trimmed with matching ribbon. Also on behalf of parishioners, Father Daly was presented with a black leather, hand-tooled pocket secretary containing a sum of money. In addition he received a spiritual bouquet from the Legion of Mary, with Theresa Leach making the presentation on behalf of that organization.

In accepting the gifts, Father Daly referred to his transfer as a "change of houses." He recalled the organization of the parish some 12 years ago and remarked upon its growth from 135 families to 400 today.

He concluded his remarks by invoking God's blessing upon the parish.

Rev. Lawless said he was proud and grateful to the group of parishioners who planned the farewell gift presented to Father Daly, and expressed his thanks for the afternoon's entertainment and for the large attendance of parishioners.

During the afternoon tea and refreshments were served at small tables from a large central serving table covered with Madiera linen. Glowing candelabra stood at either end of the table near the silver tea services and the table was centred with a lovely floral bouquet.

Pouring tea were Mrs. W. R. Kennedy and Mrs. A. P. Charron; Mrs. R. Vezina and Mrs. S. Cassidy; and Mrs. T. Comerford and Mrs. Paul Vezina. Replenishing refreshments at the table throughout the afternoon was Mrs. E. Cotie.

Young ladies of the parish served the tables during the reception, which was held to 5 p.m. They were Misses Gertrude Knevell, Lorraine Drouin, Denise Paquette, Mary Vezina, Theresa Leach, Gail Dedman, McBurney, Claire Armstrong, McKee, Paulette Kau, and Diane Piscitelli. The evening served under convenship of Jack George.

Mrs. J. Linsdell was, vener in the kitchen, assisted by Mrs. George Simpson, Mrs. Thier, Mrs. Leo Roy, Mrs. Linsdell, Mrs. Leo Roy, and Mrs. Linsdell.

Rev. J. F. Daly, parish priest of Holy Name Church, which serves Roman Catholics of West Ferris and the eastern portion of North Bay, since April, 1947, was honored recently by his parishioners. Father Daly is being transferred to Sturgeon Falls, where he will be parish priest at Our Lady of Sorrows Church. He is being replaced at Holy Name Church by Rev. F. P. Lawless of Sturgeon Falls.
