- Thank you to both Fr. Greg Adolf and Msgr. Al Schifano for their wonderful Advent retreats. We are so blessed to have so many talented speakers to enhance our spiritual journeys.
- I get asked often "when is the special needs Mass for Christmas?". The short answer is that there is no special needs Mass for Christmas. The reason why there is the special needs Mass for Easter is because the morning Masses all fill up and may be harder to access for some of our parishioners who also can not attend the late vigil. Christmas is reversed: the evening Masses are full but the morning Masses allow for easy attendance.

• Please consider supporting Catholic education. Many of you have been supporters of the Catholic Tuition Support Organization (CTSO). This enables so many to participate in a Catholic Education. The amount of the tax credit this year is $1089 (single)/$2177(couple). Info can be found at the CTSO website (www.ctso-tucson.org). If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me (sta5150@aol.com or 577-8780, ext. 115).

Blessings, Fr. John

A man named John was sent from God.
He came for testimony, to testify to the light,
so that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to testify to the light. Jn 1:6-8

We would like to thank everyone that participated in making the stockings for the giving tree's families. To everyone that gave items, sewed, decorated and sorted, we could not do it without all of you.

Merry Christmas.

Flowers:

Shortly the Poinsettia plants and flowers for Christmas will be in the Narthex and on the Altar. Our Altar Guild is responsible for the task of watering all the plants based on our florist's advice. Since we have individuals responsible for maintaining the plants we ask everyone to refrain from giving this assistance. Thank you.

Mass and Dinner with the Bishop—January 14, 2018

This year the Knights will honor retired priest Msgr. Al Schifano who is also continuing to serve as the Seminary Formator for the Diocese of Tucson. Arizona's Catholic Tuition Support Organization of the Diocese of Tucson (CTSO) is a qualified tuition support organization that is proud to provide tuition assistance for students in 28 Catholic Schools throughout the Diocese of Tucson. If you link to one or all of the schools, it will become apparent that these fine schools help students become faith-filled individuals, provide them with strong academics, and emphasize the importance of service to one another and to their communities.

The State of Arizona has provided taxpayers an education tax credit since 1998. This means that for the 2017 tax year when you send a contribution of up to $2,177 if filing jointly or up to $1,089 if filing singly, the State will provide you a dollar-for-dollar-tax credit. This is a wonderful way for individuals to provide tuition assistance for students in Catholic schools at no additional cost. If you choose not to participate in the CTSO, the State will control those same tax dollars instead of you directing the dollars to a Catholic education.

Academically, students in Catholic schools have responded with scores that rank above the national average on achievement tests and greater than 95 percent of students graduate and go on to higher education. More importantly, students obtain an education centered on moral, academic and faith-filled values.

INNOCENT VOICES

"A DEEPLY MOVING AND POWERFUL FILM"

CLAUDIA PLUG, USA TODAY

Based on the true story of screenwriter Oscar Torres's embattled childhood in 1980's El Salvador, "Innocent Voices" is the poignant tale of Chava, an eleven-year-old boy who suddenly becomes the "man of the house" in a time when the government's army is forcibly recruiting twelve year olds to battle against the peasant rebels of the FMLN

As the movie begins, Chava has just one year of innocence left before he will be conscripted to fight the government's battle against the peasant rebels of the FMLN. His life becomes a game of survival, not only from the bullets of the escalating war, but also from the dispiriting effects of daily violence. As he hustles to find work to help his single mother pay the bills and experiences the pangs of first love for a beautiful classmate, Chava's tiny home village becomes both playground and battlefield.

This is a story of life, love, the hope of peace and the ennobling power of the human spirit.
