We, the faith community of St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church, commit ourselves to leading others to Christ by the lives we live each day. As intentional Roman Catholic Christians, our lives are centered and grounded in Christ in word, sacrament and action. We further commit ourselves to fulfill our personal call to holiness and discipleship thus reflecting the life and love of Christ in the world.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:
Be my protector, O God, a mighty stronghold to save me. For you are my rock, my stronghold! Lead me, guide me, for the sake of your name.
Psalm 92 (90):15-16

- As of publication, we are not quite at our goal for the ACA. Thanks for your generosity for all that have contributed. Remember that the diocese does depend on us to cover the many parishes that simply can't make their goal. I very well understand that many of our parishioners are not in the position to give to the appeal this year; however, if you have not yet made your donation and can, please do. My birthday is the 23rd so we still have time….
- Don't forget you can still contribute to CTSO right up until the tax deadlines.
- Even if you have received your vaccinations, please do continue to good safety measures for everyone's good.

Blessings and stay safe!
Msgr. John

Prayer to St. Corona in a Time of Epidemic

Lord Jesus Christ, You came into this world for our salvation. Look kindly on us now, we pray, that we, and all those who serve You, might be kept safe from this epidemic. Heal those who are sick, comfort the suffering, bring back those who have gone astray, and above all, increase our faith, O Lord. Give us the grace to follow You and, like the martyr St. Corona, who gave her life for love of You, to take up our crosses daily without fear or hesitation. Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, have mercy on us and on the whole world.
St. Corona, patroness of epidemic victims, pray for us.

Gloria:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive dour prayer; your are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

Profession of Faith (Apostles' Creed)

I Believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Reading 1 A reading from the book of Genesis (Genesis 9:8-15)

God said to Noah and to his sons with him:
"See, I am now establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you and with every living creature that was with you: all the birds, and the various tame and wild animals that were with you and came out of the ark. I will establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all bodily creatures be destroyed by the waters of a flood; there shall not be another flood to devastate the earth."
God added:
"This is the sign that I am giving for all ages to come, of the covenant between me and you and every living creature with you: I set my bow in the clouds to serve as a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth, and the bow appears in the clouds, I will recall the covenant I have made between me and you and all living beings, so that the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all mortal beings."
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R. Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth to those who keep your covenant.
Your ways, O LORD, make known to me; teach me your paths, guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my savior.
R. Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth to those who keep your covenant.
Remember that your compassion, O LORD, and your love are from of old.
In your kindness remember me, because of your goodness, O LORD.
R. Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth to those who keep your covenant.
Good and upright is the LORD, thus he shows sinners the way.
He guides the humble to justice, and he teaches the humble his way.
R. Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth to those who keep your covenant.

Reading 2 From the first letter of Saint Peter (1 Peter 3:18-22)

Beloved: Christ suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to God. Put to death in the flesh, he was brought to life in the Spirit. In it he also went to preach to the spirits in prison, who had once been disobedient while God patiently waited in the days of Noah during the building of the ark, in which a few persons, eight in all, were saved through water. This prefigured baptism, which saves you now. It is not a removal of dirt from the body but an appeal to God for a clear conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers subject to him.
Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:
R. Alleluia, alleluia.
One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.
R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel A reading from the Gospel according to Mark (Mk 1:12-15)
The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert, and he remained in the desert for forty days, tempted by Satan. He was among wild beasts, and the angels ministered to him.
After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God:
"This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

R: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

ALERT: Mass Intentions:
Many of our winter parishioners have just returned and are encountering our new Mass schedule for the first time. Obviously, many changes have happened in the last several months. One of the effects of our extended Sunday Mass schedule is that we lost two of the Masses that were on Sunday. With very few exceptions, we were able to accommodate all the Mass intentions for a given weekend; HOWEVER, the times of the intention (even for the 7:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Saturday Masses which did not change) may have been changed. The next week's intentions are always printed in the bulletin to verify the time, if you are wish to attend that particular Mass. If you have any questions about your own Mass intentions, please call Erin at the office (520 -577-8780, M-F, 8-12)

Are you attending daily Mass?
To follow along with the readings please take a Missalette and put your name in it and bring it with you for each Mass.

2021 Annual Catholic Appeal

LIVING OUR FAITH THROUGH ACTS OF CHARITY

ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE

St. Thomas the Apostle Church has an enviable reputation for generosity to the Annual Catholic Appeal. Among Msgr. Todd's many gifts was the fact that he did not harass when asking for your assistance. As your pastor, I have tried to follow that example. I ask that you consider many of the worthy ministries that are in need of our support and help where you can.

Once a year, the Bishop appeals to the entire Catholic community to donate the funds needed to run the Diocese. This appeal reminds us that we are part of the larger Church and that, by working together, we accomplish more than we can do alone. Our goal last year was $230,500. We did make our goal last year, as we have every year, but only with the help of some generous "angels" and one large bequest.

Our goal this year is the same as last year and every parish in the Diocese has been asked to increase the number of parishioners participating. Without a greater number of "angels" helping this year, we simply will not succeed. I know how much the bishop depends on St. Thomas to help him with the poorer parishes. We have also seen the fruits of our generosity in the education of our seminarians. These seminarians include our own Fr. George Holley, now serving as pastor in Yuma, Fr. Callistus Iyorember and Fr. John Gonzales, who are both such blessings to our church. All I ask is that you do the best you can. Every offering, however small, is important. It is also very much appreciated.

This year you still have the ability to give via your mobile. You need only text ACA to 41444 and follow the prompts. Be sure to pick St.Thomas the Apostle as your parish!

You may get an appeal directly from the diocese, you can return either this form or the diocese form directly to the parish office or drop them in the basket on the weekend. It would be wonderful if we could make my LAST goal by my birthday, February 23!

Blessings,

Msgr. John

Toddler Program

Toddler classes are available for children 2 to 3 years of age. We are a great place for your child to develop social skills and reach their early childhood milestones. Your curious toddler will enjoy a variety of structured but playful activities that focus on community building and sharing. In addition, children will be working on building a robust vocabulary and recognizing their budding self-help skills

Preschool Program

Preschool classes are available for children 3 to 4 years of age. Whether your child has been with us already or is just joining us for their first preschool experience, we will bridge that gap between your stay at home days and school days. Your fast changing 3 year old will try to show off their independence. While they do this, we will help them hone appropriate social and emotional communication skills, practice more complex problem solving skills, and acquire basic cognitive principles such as name, letter, and number recognition.

PreKindergarten Program

Pre-Kindergarten classes are available for children 4 to 5 years of age. We are a great place for your child to prepare for Kindergarten without giving up that essential play time. The Pre-Kindergarten program is designed to reinforce all those amazing social, emotional, and cognitive skills they've acquired over the last couple years. In addition, centers and circle time will incorporate critical thinking so that basic math, science, and language arts become a part of their everyday life prior to Kindergarten.

TOGETHER WE ARE SAVING CATHOLIC EDUCATION!

Arizona's Catholic Tuition Support Organization (CTSO) wants to "thank" all the parishioners that have supported Catholic education and ask you to renew your support to the students in our Catholic Schools through CTSO. Brochures are in the vestibule or visit www.ctso-tucson.org to make an online contribution. Together we are saving Catholic education…and it does not cost you a dime!

Catholic Community Services of Southern Arizona still serving the most vulnerable during COVID-19

During this time, we need your support. Individuals and families we serve need CCS more than ever. With shortages in funds and a lack of basic supplies for so many, our response needs to be immediate.

Donations to the Relief Fund will go toward the immediate needs of our clients such as food, diapers, personal care supplies, and rental assistance fund. Many of our clients are out of work during this crisis. The COVID-19 outbreak is especially difficult for veterans, families experiencing homelessness, those in low-income housing, victims of domestic violence, and more. You can be a part of helping us to continue our life-saving work. Donate https://www.ccs-soaz.org/donate
