MARCH 13, 2022
2nd Sunday in Lent

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Most Sundays, my note has a local or liturgical topic. Once in a while, it will address something in the diocese or of national importance. Today, I want to share a few thoughts about the war against Ukraine and the threat to peace in the world. It is heartbreaking. When we hear of natural disasters, we are saddened for the suffering victims. When people lose their homes and their lives in a manmade disaster, it is even more tragic. We cannot imagine the evil that moves Mr. Putin.

Thank you for your prayers and support for Ukraine. Your response is beautiful to the special collection for Ukraine war relief. With short notice, we were asked to take up a collection on Ash Wednesday. Many people contributed, and others asked about keeping the baskets available on Sunday. We did, and the combined collection is $11, 137.05 so far.

We are sending your support through the Aid to the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, a U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops subcommittee. The USCCB is already helping victims of this war with food and water, hygiene supplies, and other humanitarian services. Your gifts will make more war relief possible. If you would like to make another donation, please mark the envelope or your check to St. Thomas "Ukrainian War Relief." We will forward the funds.

Let's stay united in prayer for a rapid end to this conflict. May God guide people of good will to keep the war from spreading and to restore Ukrainian freedom. Amen.

Yours truly in the Sacred Heart,
Fr. Pat

*Bulletin Deadline for March 27 is March 14  Please note change ***
