MAY 15 FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Last week, I sent out an extra Flocknote email that I tested positive for COVID. Thanks to everyone who offered prayers or sent me get well wishes. And thank you, Father Callistus and Fr. Ken for picking up the extra confessions, Masses, and wedding that I could not do. Plus, our parish staff skillfully managed around my absence.

The illness started with a sore throat late Monday night, May 2. So, I began isolating. Although a fever and aches began on Tuesday, my first antigen test was negative. As directed, I retested Wednesday, and COVID was detected. My doctor prescribed an anti-viral. By Sunday I was feeling better.

I am writing this on Monday, May 9, in order to meet the bulletin publishing deadline. At today's telephone consultation, my doctor released me back into society on Wednesday. So, I should be seeing you, this weekend.

Once again, I am grateful for your prayers. During these days, I renewed my prayer for people who suffer because of COVID and other illnesses. When it is severe, both they and their loved ones are hit hard. My case seems to have been light. I feel blessed for my medical doctor, his vaccines, medication, and guidance.

God bless you with good health and holiness.

Yours truly in the Sacred Heart,
Father Pat

SAVE THE DATE VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL - Rocky Railway - Jesus' Power Pulls Us Through. June 27-July 1, 8:45-noon.

A successful VBS requires a committed core of adult volunteers to serve as catechists, assistant catechists and actual class leaders.

Also needed are those who are blessed with skills in set design, music, snacks, arts and crafts, games, Bible stories and much more.

Contact Rob (577-8780, x 124) for more info.

We will be asking our parishioners for things for VBS as we come up with our needs but right now we want everyone to save those big appliance boxes. If you are getting a new appliance in the next several weeks, please keep the box it comes in so that we can build an economical train.

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN! We still need Volunteers - please contact Rob (577-8780, x 124) if you are interested.

LOST & FOUND

Our lost and found is overflowing. If you are missing something, please look at the table in the hallway off the narthex and see if it is there.

If you accidentally found something in the lost and found that turned out not to be yours, please feel free to turn it back in.

When do I ask for Anointing?

When a Catholic is very sick, the Church anoints the person with oil in a special ritual of healing called Anointing of the Sick. Prior to Vatican II, the Sacrament of the sick was called the "Last Rites." Because of its name, it was assumed that it was the Sacrament of the dying. When someone was dying, the priest was called at the last possible minute to administer the Sacrament. If the person caring for the sick waited too long, the sick person sometime died without having his confession heard or the special ritual of healing applied.

The church now encourages anyone who is seriously sick to call upon the priest in order to receive the Sacrament. So if you or someone you know is seriously sick, call upon the priest to administer the Sacrament of the Sick or attend the First Friday Anointing mass here at St. Thomas. It is not necessary for you or that person to be dying at that exact moment. The Sacrament of the Sick is to obtain God's healing grace. The illness need not be terminal and old age itself is sufficient. If you are seriously sick, about to have serious surgery or enter hospice, consider asking for the sacrament to aid in your spiritual or physical healing.
