The Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, Apostles

While Fr. Pat is on vacation, a reflection on today's readings:

"What do you call brothers who are born on the same day? Twins, of course. That is what we celebrate today in the inestimable saints, Peter and Paul. Wait: twins? Yes. The early Church believed that Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome on the same day. Since the day of martyrdom is celebrated as a saints' birth into eternal life, the result is striking: Peter and Paul are twins in God's family, the Church.

Who should care about this? Well, anyone who longs to live in a world marked by love and peace. Remember, the Romans believed that twins, Romulus and Remus, founded their city through an act of fratricide, the former murdering the latter. Sadly, the structures of this fallen world emerge through violence between those who should love each other. But in the Church, a new city has been founded upon this new set of twins, embodying the non-violent power of Jesus' cross and resurrection.

That's why traditional icons represent Peter and Paul in a fraternal and warm embrace. Contrasted with the violence of Rome's founders, it challenges us with a bold claim: do we believe that structures of merciful love are more powerful and lasting than those based on power, violence, and domination? Am I willing to see others in my life as my "twin," with whom I am called to give my life for Christ, or as my rival? Am I committed to living what is embodied in Romulus and Remus, or in Peter and Paul?"

(Re) Imagining Catholic Vocation

One of Dorothy Day's gifts was her example of lay leadership and lay apostolate in the Church. She pioneered a new understanding of the call to lay people to reflect on, live out and witness to gospel values in their day-to-day personal, social, and public lives. She did not ask for any consent or permission from the hierarchy but simply invented her own way of simply going out and living the radical implications of her Faith.

The list of canonized saints is perhaps a bit 'short' in presenting models of holiness among the laity. While continuing to undergo the process for canonization, many believe mid-twentieth century Dorothy Day to be one.

Following your vocation is the best adventure of your life!

“You will know your vocation
by the joy that it brings you.
You will know.
You will know when it’s right.”
— Dorothy Day

Reintroduction - Walking with Moms in Need Ministry

In mid-2022 our parish established and introduced its WWMIN ministry. Tremendous foundational work was accomplished; state and local resources vetted, organized and presented on the parish website (8 dedicated pages). View them here -

<https://www.statucson.org/walking-with-moms-in-need>.

A one-year long communications strategy was unleashed weekly through bulletins and Flocknotes to keep the brand new ministry top of mind. To this day, our weekend Mass intentions include a prayer for pregnant and parenting mothers in need.

With new energized active leadership, the ministry is being reintroduced. All questions and interest may be directed to Sharon Blair at sfblair@me.com.

Every parishioner is invited to promote the Catholic 'culture of life'. Every parishioner is invited to accompany women who face unexpected pregnancies or are encountering difficulties.

We created a brand new Flocknote group for parishioners whose passion this is and who wish to remain informed AND take an active role in this revitalized ministry. You may sign up for the new group in any June Wednesday Weekly Parish Update.

(Ps. The prior WWMIN Flocknote sub-groups have been deleted; we're starting over!)

Who will YOU walk with?

There is a story* about when Caleb met Natalie, he was at a low point in his life. Her relationship with Jesus inspired him to do his own research on the faith. After discovering that the Eucharist really is Jesus, Caleb decided to become Catholic, paving the way for Natalie to do the same. All it takes is one example, one encounter, one conversation to point someone to Jesus.
