"Gender Ideology:

The Catholic response to gender issues"

Speaker: Dr. Theresa Farnan

Wednesday, May 8th at 7 pm

St. Louise De Marillac – LeGras Hall

Author, teacher, wife, and mother of ten, Dr. Theresa Farnan, will be discussing the Catholic response to the escalating challenges surrounding gender ideology. How do we respond with clarity, charity and courage as the traditional language of pronouns evolves and parental rights are challenged? How does our Christian Catholic anthropology of the unitive nature of body and soul form our response to the culture and questions from our children/grandchildren? There will be an opportunity for questions and light refreshments will be served. All are welcome, but parental discretion is advised.

Theresa Farnan is the author of Get Out Now: Why You Should Pull Your Child From Public School Before It's Too Late (co-authored with Mary Rice Hasson), and Where did I come from? Where am I going? How do I get there? (co-authored with Dr. Charles Rice. She currently teaches at St Paul Seminary in Pittsburgh and previously taught philosophy at Franciscan University of Steubenville, the pre-theology program at Mount St. Mary's Seminary and the diaconate program for the Diocese of Harrisburg. She served as a consultant to the USCCB Committee on Laity, Marriage, Family Life and Youth, is a master catechist for the diocese of Pittsburgh and has served as a member of several committees on education for the Diocese of Harrisburg. She has given lectures on Christian anthropology and gender ideology, the theology of the body, the personalism of Pope John Paul II, the philosophy of St. Thomas Aquinas, fatherhood and priestly vocations, the vocation and dignity of women and the virtues. She hosted a television program on EWTN entitled St. Thomas Aquinas in Today's World and appeared as a guest on EWTN Live. Dr Farnan received her master's degree and her doctorate in Medieval studies from the University of Notre Dame.

Magnificat Prayer Breakfast: Ladies are invited to the Magnificat Pittsburgh prayer breakfast on May 18, from 9:00 am - 12:00 pm at the Crowne Plaza in Green Tree. The event will include: breakfast, fellowship, praise and worship, a personal testimony, and intercessory prayer. Ann Vucic, pilgrimage guide and interpreter, will speak about her spiritual journey towards trusting God and His plans. When Vucic was 15 years, she received a miraculous healing during a visit to Medjugorje that deepened her love for God and her desire to help others encounter His love. The breakfast costs $23. To register, call Kay at 724-772-6749 or Pam at 412-461-8906 or visit www.magnificatpittsburgh.org by May 10.

Weekend Retreat for Post Abortion Healing: Rachel's Vineyard, a weekend designed to heal the emotional and spiritual wounds of abortion, will be held May 17-19, 2019 at The Ark and The Dove. In a confidential and supportive atmosphere Rachel's Vineyard demonstrates God's love, compassion, and forgiveness to women and men struggling in abortion's aftermath. To register or for more information, contact Toni Jester at 412-352-5348 or toniafj1@comcast.net.

Do You Love Me? – Three times Jesus poses this question to Peter: “Do you love me?” When Peter responds, “Yes,” the Lord’s command is to tend or feed his sheep. Ultimately, at the conclusion of this exchange, Jesus invites Peter to follow him. As we continue to celebrate the joy of the resurrection of Jesus and as we anticipate his Ascension into heaven, we reflect on the many ways the Lord reveals his love for us and how he stirs in our hearts to respond with words and deeds of love for him. As we profess our love for Jesus, our call is to be his hands and hearts in the world. We are to treat others as if THEY are Christ and as if WE are Christ. In this we follow him as his faithful disciples and invite others to do so, as well. As we continue to journey On Mission for The Church Alive! we are presented with opportunities to love Christ and others in new ways. May we take advantage of these opportunities as we follow Jesus and build up the Church. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.
