Twenty Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

This year was my third year of going to clergy days. Some people have asked me why priests and deacons go to clergy days. What is the purpose? One practical reason it is a time for us clergy to have fraternal time together. The same reason families have reunions. A time to reunite, share stories, update each other on what has been going on in their lives and so forth. We too as clergy need that time to reunite with one another and catch up with one another on what has been happening in our lives. It is important as priests and deacons to have a fraternal brotherhood and to continue to build our relationships with one another. This is not the only reason but a rather important one I would say. The other reason is to be formed. Every year we have a speaker who comes and gives a series of talks on a topic, most of the time it deals with theology. This year we had Dr Sehorn from the Augustine Institute giving a talk on the importance of the Church as a relationship of persons, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The other aspect of our meeting is to discuss things as a diocese. Bishop DeGrood usually has a topic he wants to talk about with his clergy and to help form us so we can better serve the faithful in our parishes. This year the majority of our discussion was talking about the Set Ablaze initiative which is looking at the current reality of our diocese and looking ahead at a ten year projection of where we will be. I just want to say thank you for your support and sacrifice. We know it can be difficult when all the priests leave the parish for 4 days. I reassure you that it is a necessity for us clergy to live out our priestly vocation and really does help form us to be better pastors. God Bless. Fr. Jeff

PASTORAL/HOMEBOUND CORNER

Happy Sunday! I hope you will have a chance to participate in our Fall Bazaar! Please remember our elderly and homebound this week. I found a prayer from the Little Sisters of the Poor that might be useful to you: Lord, You taught that whatever we do for the least of our brothers and sisters, we do for You. Your servant St. Jeanne Jugan took it seriously. Moved by the Holy Spirit she opened her home to the elderly poor. Inspired by her example, I too, want to be a friend of the elderly. Help me to respect older persons, to walk at their pace, to listen attentively to their stories, to learn from their wisdom and to generously offer help in time of need. Help us together to envision a world of full of hope. Through the intercession of Saint Jeanne Jugan, give me a heart for the elderly, a heart that will love them in your own merciful heart. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen. Thanks, Chiara

All are invited to join in a Public Square Rosary Rally on Saturday, October 15, 2022 at 12:00 noon at Anderson Park (Aberdeen Senior Center). This Public Square Rosary, sponsored by America Needs Fatima, will be one of over 20,000 rallies that will take place all across the United States on that day. Please join us in offering reparation for the sins and offenses committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary and to fervently pray for the conversion of the United States. Will you be able to join us and other Catholics on that very important day?

Fall has fallen, now is the time to prepare for winter, please remove any artificial flowers and decorations placed over the spring and summer, and invert any of the vases that can be inverted. This will ensure their safety over the winter months. The more cleanup that is done in the fall, the less cleanup in the spring.
