Forming in Faith...

READINGS: FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

First Reading: Is 43:16-21

Thus says the LORD, who opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters, who leads out chariots and horsemen, a powerful army, till they lie prostrate together, never to rise, snuffed out and quenched like a wick. Remember not the events of the past, the things of long ago consider not; see, I am doing something new! Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? In the desert I make a way, in the wasteland, rivers. Wild beasts honor me, jackals and ostriches, for I put water in the desert and rivers in the wasteland for my chosen people to drink, the people whom I formed for myself, that they might announce my praise.

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Second Reading: Phil 3:8-14

Brothers and sisters: I consider everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having any righteousness of my own based on the law but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God, depending on faith to know him and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by being conformed to his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. It is not that I have already taken hold of it or have already attained perfect maturity, but I continue my pursuit in hope that I may possess it, since I have indeed been taken possession of by Christ Jesus. Brothers and sisters, I for my part do not consider myself to have taken possession. Just one thing: forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus.

Gospel: Jn 8:1-11

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. But early in the morning he arrived again in the temple area, and all the people started coming to him, and he sat down and taught them. Then the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle. They said to him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?" They said this to test him, so that they could have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." Again he bent down and wrote on the ground. And in response, they went away one by one, beginning with the elders. So he was left alone with the woman before him. Then Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She replied, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more."

EASTER EGG HUNT!!

Catholic Weymouth will be hosting an Easter Egg Hunt for all of our children—infants and older! Bring your basket and hunt for Easter eggs filled with treats!

This event will be held on Saturday, April 9 after the 4pm Mass at Immaculate Conception....the Easter Egg Hunt will take place in and around the Hackett Center.

All are welcome!

PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH MISSION

God our Father, grant that our parish Mission be a time of grace for all: a time of growth for our young, a time of refreshment for those retired, a time of renewal for our families, a time of healing for the broken, a time of joy for the sorrowing, a time of challenge for the complacent, a time of hope for the sinner, and a time of homecoming for those who have been away. May the Mission bring down your richest blessings on us, the parishioners of Immaculate Conception and Saint Jerome. We ask this through the intercession of Mary and all the saints, in the name of Jesus Christ who is Lord. Amen.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Hunger impacts millions of women, men and children around the world. Throughout Lent we have encountered communities in Guatemala, Bangladesh and Rwanda that are overcoming this problem so their members can have brighter futures. How is your community working to address hunger or other injustices locally and globally? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

EASTER FLOWERS

Easter Flower Offering Envelopes are available in your monthly packet or at the entrance to our Churches for flower donations in Memory/Honor of your loved ones. Your intentions will be placed on our Altars and remembered at all of the Masses at Easter. Thank you for helping to add to the beauty of our Churches at Easter!
