VENI, SANCTE SPIRITUS: SEQUENCE FOR PENTECOST

Come, Holy Spirit, come!
And from your Heavenly home
Shed a ray of light divine!
Come, Father of the poor!
Come, source of all we have!
Come, within our hearts to shine.
You, who comfort us and
Are the soul's most welcome guest;
You who give us refreshment here below;
And rest from labors of the day;
Grateful coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of sorrow.
O most blessed Light divine,
Shine within these hearts of yours,
And our inmost being fill!
Where you are not, we have nothing,
Nothing good in deed or thought,
Nothing free from taint of sin.
Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
sequences are chants before
On our dryness pour your dew;
The gospel used at feasts of the
Wash the stains of guilt away:
Church: Easter, Pentecost,
Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Corpus Christi
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.
On the faithful, who adore
And confess you, evermore
Let your sevenfold gifts descend:
Give us wisdom, knowledge,
Understanding, counsel, courage,
Holiness, and wonder and awe
in your presence.
Give us virtue's sure reward;
Give us your salvation, Lord;
Give us joys that never end. Amen.
Alleluia.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

There is a spirit of enthusiasm and joy in today's readings. Filled with the Holy Spirit, the disciples were unable to remain silent about the mighty acts of God. Each one was given a different gift, but each gift was given by the same Holy Spirit for the building up of the body of Christ. At our Baptism and Confirmation, the Holy Spirit poured out on each one of us the gifts we need to faithfully follow Christ. This Pentecost, may we too, experience the enthusiasm and joy that the Holy Spirit has given us. Call on the Spirit today with the words, "Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and rekindle in them [me] the fire of your love!"

PENTECOST SUNDAY

I hope you will acknowledge with me a simple fact: it is not normal to have tongues of fire “part and come to rest” on people. It is actually pretty strange. Yet that is precisely what we celebrate in this feast of Pentecost. How can this mean something to us in our daily lives?

Jews had a tradition that heaven is a temple made of bricks of fire. So, through the apostles, the heavenly temple is coming to earth. But this fire looks like tongues, not bricks. That means that heavenly speech will be crucial to building a dwelling place for God on earth among men and women. So, it is no surprise when the apostles begin to speak in a miraculous way that is understood by all language groups. They are speaking of what God has done in and through Jesus: bringing heaven to earth and uniting all peoples to God and to each other.

How often our speech divides: gossip, slander, insults, and so on. How strange and rare it is when people speak in ways that truly unite instead of divide. Imagine how powerful it would be if you and I began to speak at home, at work, and in our community in a way that made people hear heavenly speech. Imagine if you spoke of the mighty deeds of God in a way that everyone could understand. That is precisely what the Holy Spirit descends upon us to do. Ask Him to come as a tongue of fire to you once again, and He will. Then speak!

SAINT JOAN OF ARC - FEAST DAY MAY 30

St. Joan of Arc (1412 – 1431) has had her story told throughout history through many books, movies and plays. She was born in the village of Domrémy, near the province of Lorraine, to a French peasant family. At a young age, she began to experience visions and voices, which were later identified to be of St. Michael, St. Catherine of Alexandria, and St. Margaret of Antioch. At the age of 13, all three saints told her that she was to drive the English from French territory, and that she must bring the Dauphin to Reims for his coronation. Trusting in God, she did as she was told.

During the Hundred Years War, St. Joan of Arc led French troops against the English and recaptured the cities of Orléans and Troyes. Captured near Compiègne the following year, she was sold to the English and placed on trial for heresy and witchcraft, eventually being found guilty and burned at the stake in Rouen.

St. Joan of Arc was canonized by Pope Benedict XV on May 16, 1920, and is the patron saint of military members. © LPi
