Matthew 16:13-20

Who do you say that I am?

We are all asked this question by Jesus everyday, in subtle ways, that catch us unaware. When we rise in the morning, He asks, do you care enough to offer your day to me in prayer? As you go about your work, do you dialogue with me about what makes you happy, angry, sad or discouraged, so that I may assist you in all matters. As evening falls, do you share with me your ups and downs of the day and acknowledge me as Lord of your life, asking forgiveness, expressing gratitude and looking forward in faith and hope to tomorrow?

The more we spend time with Jesus during our day the more He reveals about himself to us. It is a lot like being married for a while and realizing one day that you understand something about your spouse that you never saw before. For me, my husband Rick saw me through a very difficult personal health crisis and professional upheaval that was awful. I realized during this time how kind and empathetic he was, how thoroughly understanding of what I was going through. It was a period of the “dark night of the soul” for me too when all looked bleak, yet I perceived the Lord ever present. I recall this time and know the Lord showed himself to me as a caring and loving God through His ever present hope and through the kindness and love of my husband. Truly, Jesus you showed me, you are the Son of God.

St. Peter shared his life with Our Lord, receiving his generosity and love, but not quite acknowledging what he knew in his heart to be true about Jesus, until this day! When Simon Peter was asked who Jesus was, he spoke from his mind and his heart. “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God”. This was an act of faith coming in part from St. Peter’s knowledge and experience of Jesus and from the gift of faith bestowed on him by the Father. Peter is not only acknowledging Jesus’ mission as the Messiah but also recognizing his inner life as the Son of God. Jesus expresses to Peter the faith from the Father that allows for this declaration, and Jesus himself goes even further with Peter, by gifting him a new name, Peter the rock. When Jesus made Peter the “Rock” he gave him primacy over the Apostles as head of His church and conferred on him power to bind and loose, as part of his authority. Later, Jesus bestowed on Peter, and his other apostles, the gift of priesthood and the virtue of unity that it provides for the entire church.

On this day, St. Peter’s rock became joined to the unbreakable cornerstone, the cornerstone that brings all people together, the foundation of all things, the one without whom nothing can be built. To this day we are joined to our rock through Christ and his Vicar on earth, the Holy Father. We join in prayer and the sacraments to our cornerstone Jesus Christ through the way in which we live our daily lives answering the question, “Who do you say that I am?” always knowing that He shows himself through the love and grace that surrounds us at every moment.

THE PASSION OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST - FEAST DAY AUGUST 29

St. John the Baptist died approximately A.D.30. He was the cousin of Jesus, the son of St. Elizabeth and the nephew of our Lady.

According to the Gospels, Herod was the one who had arrested and imprisoned John because he spoke out about Herod divorcing his wife, and unlawfully marrying the wife of his brother. Herod feared John, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man, and kept him in custody. When he heard him speak he was very much perplexed, yet he liked to listen to him.

On Herod's birthday, his new wife's daughter danced before the king and his guests. Her dancing pleased Herod so much that he promised to give her anything she desired. When the daughter asked her mother what she should ask for, she was told to ask for the head of John the Baptist on a platter. Herod was appalled by the request but because of his oath and the guests, he agreed and had John the Baptist executed in prison. St. John the Baptist was beheaded and his head was placed on a platter and given to Herod's daughter. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

St John the Baptist spoke the truth with great courage in calling others to a true change of heart and to embrace the ways of God. He did this not only by preaching but also by example. He fasted in the desert and prepared the way for Jesus. He had such a great courage that he was not fearful of speaking out about the immoral activities of his day.

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Many people claim to be spiritual, but not religious. They acknowledge a spiritual reality, but it is often non-personal and non-specific. It does not involve church or community and resembles a 'feel good' pep talk rather than anything with the power to transform, change and bless. Being spiritual is noncommittal and easy; being religious requires something more personal and committed.

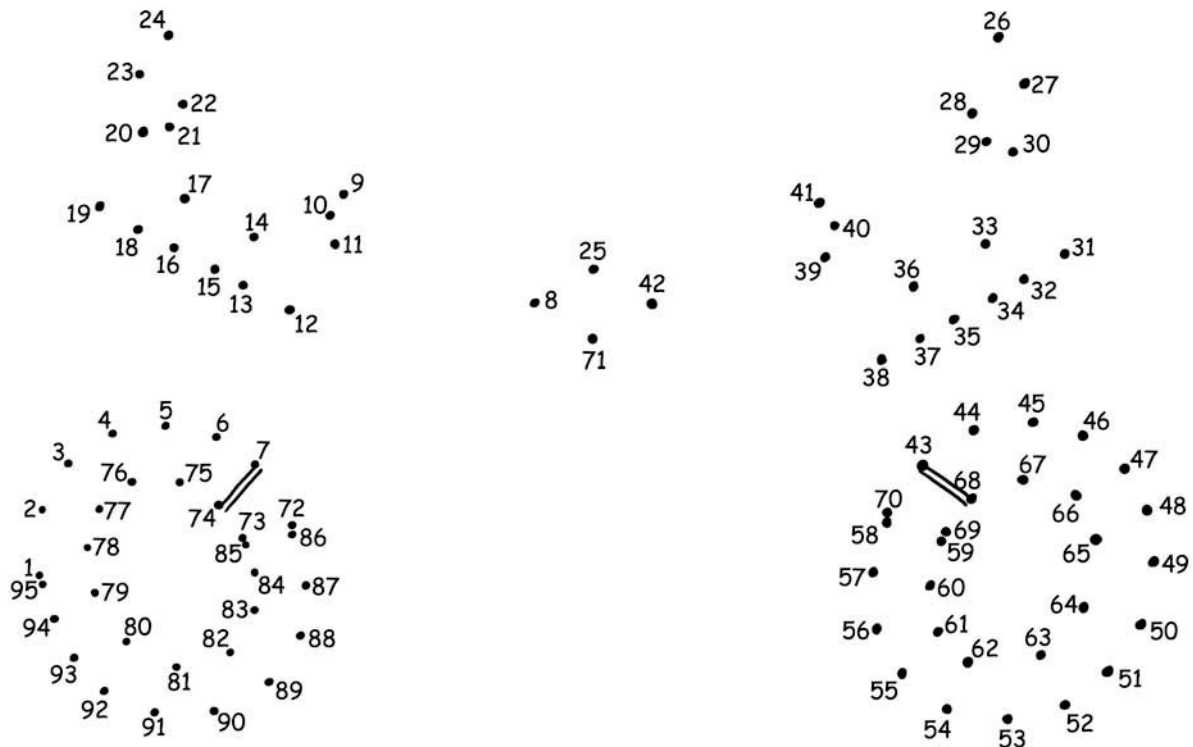

Jesus is not one to tiptoe around the question of faith and commitment. He does not suggest that discipleship is about feeling good or being happy. To follow Him, you pick up a cross. You sacrifice yourself for the sake of others. You follow Him wherever He goes. All this is done with hope in His promise of life and grace.

The quick way to decide if you are spiritual or religious is to answer the question that Jesus asks: Who do you say that I am? If you say He is a nice guy who preached about love, you are spiritual. If you say he is the Son of God who died for our sakes and rose from the dead and sits at the right hand of the Father, and He guides and directs my life through the Holy Spirit and through the Church, then you are religious. Look at the cross, and decide what your answer will be.

"HIS TREATMENTS ARE LIFE CHANGING"

"Finally! A local Doctor is helping patients live free from the constant pain and suffering associated with Peripheral Neuropathy!"

Maureen S. of Hingham MA survived breast cancer only to be living a life in constant pain. She felt as though she were walking on pins and needles, becoming weaker and weaker every day. "I was beginning to be worried that one day I would be wheelchair-bound."

Nearly half of the patients who undergo chemotherapy will develop Chemotherapy-Induced Peripheral
Neuropathy or CIPN.

Chemo meds travel throughout the body and attack cancer cells; sadly they can also cause severe damage to healthy nerves. When asked how CIPN was affecting her quality of life, she responded, "It was difficult to even walk up and down stairs and do other things we usually take for granted."

The most common symptoms include:

- Pain, tingling, burning, weakness, or numbness in arms, hands, legs, or feet
- Sudden, sharp, stabbing, or shocking pain sensations
- Loss of touch sensation
- Clumsiness and trouble using hands

• Loss of balance and falling

Fortunately for Maureen, Acupuncturists Bryan and Jimmy Duong of New England Wellness Solutions are using the time-tested science of Acupuncture combined with modern technology to increase circulation and expedite healing to treat this debilitating disease. After a series of treatments, Maureen was taking stairs with a stride!

"We have a beach house and it's upstairs.
This morning I walked right down the stairs and got in the car," Maureen shared.

"I remember thinking 'that's become mighty easy for me', I didn't have to hold on to the handrail or anything! It's life-changing to have this mobility back!"

For years, brothers Bryan and Jimmy have been reversing the effects of CIPN and other varieties of Peripheral Neuropathy, including that caused by diabetes, without invasive surgeries and medications that come with uncomfortable side effects.

If you've recently beat cancer only to find that you're living a life in constant pain and discomfort or you're struggling with the same symptoms as a result of either Idiopathic Neuropathy or Diabetic Peripheral Neuropathy, Acupuncturists Bryan and Jimmy and the incredible team at NEWS can help!

NEWS's success stories have been repeatedly spreading around all of Massachusetts. Bryan and Jimmy are now accepting new patients, but only for a limited time. To determine whether or not you are a good candidate for the personalized and comprehensive treatments, an initial consultation is required. Call (781) 829 - 9355 today to schedule!
