MT 25: 31-46 CHRIST THE KING

“WHATEVER YOU DID FOR THE LEAST BROTHERS OF MINE, YOU DID FOR ME”

There is a choice before us: to love in order to gain things on earth, or to give things away in order to gain Heaven. How you respond to the choice is the question set before us in Matthew 25.

Pope Francis challenges us that our “living” will indeed be judged by our charity, our giving away of what we hold onto as dear to us. We are only able to do this because God’s love precedes our charity, He loved us first so that we can love others. With this gracious gift, we are now ready to make a free and concrete response to love our brothers and sisters, especially the weakest, neediest and sickest among us. We call on our faith to be the compass to direct our actions on the right course.

When we examine how to meet the challenge before us, omission is the stunning sin that can trap us where the most vulnerable are concerned. We may think, they do not need us, it is not my business, someone else in the family will handle it, society will take over. When we enter eternal life the Lord will not ask us how we felt about helping out, He will ask whether we helped, how and when we helped. The Lord is not looking for excuses, he is looking for workers. He is not looking for people who stand around expressing righteous indignation about society’s ills, he is looking for people who will lend a hand, right where it is needed.

On the face of the needy, the marginalized, we can imagine the face of Christ. If you saw Christ, would you do your best to help him, to find out what he needed, to give him your finest help? Well, we are asked to look at our friends in need in the same way, to give them our warmest greeting, the best clothes we can give, the most delicious meal and the greatest generosity we can muster. We are currently having a coat drive at Catholic Weymouth to help clothe those who might be cold this winter. Let us clean those closets and think about we how we can assist our precious neighbors.

When we make sharing the hallmark of our lives, we open ourselves to the ones who open to us the way to Heaven. In the words of Pope Francis, they are our “Passport to Paradise”. Those in any kind of need show us our real duty, which is to care for them, allowing them to become the riches we will take to Heaven. When we love whoever is poor, we combat all forms of poverty, material and spiritual.

How is your “living” going? Is it worthy of Christ the King who loved us first and asks us to reach out in love to all we meet, without reservation and condition? I invite you to make this Advent a time of increased awareness of those in need of your support, in your family, in your parish, in your community, in the world.

In God’s peace,
Mary Ellen Cassani, Director of Pastoral Ministries

NEW TO CATHOLIC WEYMOUTH??

Please be sure to register on our website www.CatholicWeymouth.org call 781-337-0380 or stop by the parish office.

We look forward to meeting you!

Christ the King

During Advent and Lent, Pope John Paul II would put on a simple black cassock and sneak into a confessional at St. Peter's Basilica to help hear the confessions of the thousands of tourists who came there. Although he was the Pope, JP II never forgot that he was a servant-leader, and the needs of the people came first. He was a priest first, and his actions reflected his belief.

Jesus reminds us that those who wish to be great in the Kingdom of God must serve the needs of others. There is no room for greed or selfishness, or for oppression or indifference. If we are all members of the same Body of Christ, then the suffering of one member becomes the suffering of all members, the needs of one become the needs of all. Want and suffering demand a response so that each person lives with human dignity intact and human destiny in mind.

We honor Christ as King, the servant-leader whose throne is a cross and whose crown is made of thorns. Follow His example of sacrifice and love. Practice the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy in the Gospel today. Meet the needs of others and you will meet the King.

THE SOLUTION FOR YOUR CHRONIC PAIN!

"Ever since I was a teen, I've had debilitating migraines."

"My knee injury is why I gave up sports."

"I've had arthritis for as long as I can remember."

"I get a shooting pain from my lower back that prevents me from walking."

What do all of these people have in common?

They suffer from chronic pain. In the US, it's estimated that more than 20% of adults experience chronic pain – that's roughly 50 million people! Although more common among older adults, young individuals fall victim to this as well.

Chronic pain is any kind of significant pain that's stuck around for weeks, months, or even years after the initial injury or condition that caused it has healed. For patient Rebecca C. of Marshfield, age 38, after being injured in a car accident, this meant the inability to walk for nearly 2 years! "My back and hip pain were so debilitating that I found myself bedridden for the majority of my days until I finally tried acupuncture. With each treatment, I feel like I gain at least a sliver of my life back," she remarks.

At New England Wellness Solutions, Acupuncturists, and brothers, Bryan and Jimmy Duong believe they hold a large piece to the chronic pain puzzle. "Having helped a multitude of chronic ailments, we have seen time and time again how healing acupuncture can be for people. We pride ourselves in working with our patients to come up with the best solution specifically for them. To supplement our sessions, we discuss appropriate lifestyle tips and tricks to benefit them beyond our clinic's walls," Bryan explains.

Managing chronic pain can be challenging. Treatment often requires a personalized multidisciplinary approach. This may include lifestyle modifications, physical therapy, psychological counseling, medications or supplements. Since complete relief may not always be possible for every individual, the ultimate goal is to improve overall quality of life and functionality.

"I may still be unable to dance, but at least now I am able to comfortably stand on two feet! Before I started here, I never anticipated being able to walk again as acupuncture was honestly my last resort in a long line of attempted treatments, but look at me now!" Rebecca shares.

Almost all of our patients come to us with stories similar to Rebecca's. They've been everywhere else. They've been told there's no hope. They've heard, "It comes with aging," shares Lynne, a Patient Care Liaison at NEWS. "It just breaks my heart but I know how much we can help people like Rebecca so I'm always so happy when they come through our door."

Western medicine is often quick to distribute medication as a bandaid or look toward more traditional, costly therapies, like PT, until they end up deeming the chronic pain "untreatable," as they did for Rebecca. This is the point that most people reach right before visiting us, which is why our patients, along with our Practitioners Bryan and Jimmy, embrace NEWS as "the last resort with the best results."

Oftentimes, chronic pain is caused (and exacerbated) by underlying medical conditions, injuries or surgeries, nerve damage, musculoskeletal issues, autoimmune diseases, and psychological factors. Because of this, our patients are generally seeking a hail mary attempt at pain management without the surplus of pills – or as we like to say, they're "choosing points over pills." At NEWS, Jimmy and Bryan help steer you in the direction of the most natural healing methodology to promote the best, and least toxic, results.

You may be thinking: what exactly is this magical solution that Dr. Bryan and Dr. Jimmy offer that can reduce, or even eliminate, chronic pain?

To maximize your results, we take the holistic approach. We'll sit with you to better understand your health background and underlying issue(s). From there, we'll determine the appropriate outlook for your sessions.

The process of Acupuncture Therapy is known to generate the following pain relieving effects:

- (1) Endorphin release, as it stimulates the body's natural pain-relieving chemicals.
- (2) Modulation of pain signals, altering the messages of the central nervous system.
- (3) Anti-inflammatory effects, alleviating pain that stems from inflammatory conditions.
- (4) Improve blood flow, promoting healing while reducing muscle tension.
- (5) Nerve stimulation, releasing neurotransmitters which can block pain signals and promote relaxation.
- (6) Balance Qi (energy) through the body's meridians since blocked or imbalanced Qi is believed to contribute to pain and illness.

When it comes to treating chronic pain, regardless of its origin, early treatment greatly improves the swiftness of your recovery. If you or someone you love are suffering from chronic pain that "just won't go away," it's important to know that there are options. There is hope!

Rebecca started out skeptical, but lives to tell the tale of her remarkable chronic pain recovery through the means of Acupuncture here at New England Wellness Solutions. Read various other success stories like hers on our website:
