Saints Peter and Paul

This year we have the opportunity to celebrate the feast of Saints Peter and Paul on a Sunday. These two very different men were pillars of the early Church and their message is still a vital resource today. Despite their imperfections, both were chosen by Jesus. To understand their passionate commitment to their calling, we need to reflect carefully on today's Gospel.

Jesus asks his disciples, and us, the critical questions: "Who do you say that I am?" This question focuses us on the kind of relationship we want with Jesus. Who is he for us?

At different points in our faith journey, our responses to the question can vary depending on our circumstances, maturity and stage of life. Perhaps sometimes we do not even hear the question. Our spiritual growth is rarely a straight path without any serious, doubts or even crises.

In the end, what is always important is to offer an honest response to Jesus.

All healthy relationships are based on integrity, truth and free choice.

The goal need not be perfection, but an openness to change and growth. We are called to trust that Jesus always loves and accepts us exactly as we are. He waits to invites us, as with Peter and Paul, to a deeper relationship with him and to a mission to serve others.

Share The Words with CWL VOICE

If you only knew... the Catholic Women's League has a 'voice' to create change! Backed by thousands of Canadian Catholic women - it meets with government and influences laws, stands up for social justice and speaks up for those who do not have a voice. Is there a cause or issue you would like to see brought to the attention of government? Your voice matters – we can help! Contact JoAnne Lortie at 519-969-3980 or Kenlyn Bryant at 519-965-0618 to join.

Vision Statement: To be doing the will of the one who sent us.

Mission Statement: Being a mission-oriented Church that forms disciples of Jesus.

KIMBERLY'S CORNER

Giving Thanks For Summer

Father, Creator of all, Thank You for summer!
Thank you for the warmth of the sun and the increased daylight.
Thank You for the beauty I see all around me, and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy Your creation.
Thank You for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family, and for the more casual pace of the summer season.

Draw me closer to You this summer.
Teach me how I can pray, no matter where I am or what I am doing.
Warm my soul with the awareness of Your presence, And light my path with Your Word and Counsel.
As I enjoy Your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for You.

How is God Calling You?

Please take some time this summer to pray about how God may be calling you to share your time, gifts and talents, with others. I am in need of volunteers for ministries that will be starting again in the fall, including sacramental prep, faith formation, and liturgical ministries. There are many ways to serve in each of these ministries, there is something for everyone!

One ministry that we are building over the summer is our RCIA team. We are looking for adults who can serve as sponsors, catechists, hospitality, and building community.

All necessary training will be provided. Please contact me for more information, and stay connected with the bulletin, website and social media for updates.

If you are interested in becoming Catholic, or completing your sacraments, please contact me. Blessings!

Sts. Peter & Paul

The lives of Peter and Paul show that God can use anyone, no matter their past, to do His work. Peter, once a simple fisherman, and Paul, a former opponent of God's people, both became key leaders in the Church. Peter's story teaches us about trust, forgiveness, and second chances after failure. Paul's life reveals the power of transformation through God's grace. Both men demonstrated great courage, even in the face of danger. Despite their differences, they worked together to spread the Gospel, reminding us of the importance of unity. Their examples inspire us to follow God faithfully, embrace change, and live with purpose.

Novena For Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Copies of the novena will be available at the Welcome Desk at both churches, from July 7th -15th. Please take one with you.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul Corpus Christi appreciates your food and financial donations. This week we are in particular need of: Canned pasta, pork and beans, ramen noodles, canned vegetables, jam, knorr sidekicks, small packages of coffee or tea and peanut butter. Thank you for your continued support. For further information or to assist, please contact Bruce at: 519-966-5362
