Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

While summer gatherings of friends and family parties can be a great gift, they can leave people like Martha in today's Gospel distracted and focused on the details. As a mother of five with many grandchildren, I understand the work involved in preparing for events at my home. While my spouse and adult children all contribute, I must admit there are times when I felt like Martha did.

It's all too easy to feel resentful when someone else may be getting off too easy while I manage "everything" - I would love to be sitting with my son, holding the newborn or drawing with the five year old. I recognize this in myself and am usually able to delegate. I can ask someone to cut veggies, find lawn chairs or clear dishes so I can also spend time talking with the in-laws or playing with a grandchild.

For any gathering, more than one thing is usually needed, since both food and fellowship are important, and there are many practical aspects to hosting. The words of Jesus remind us of the most important thing - presence - and the readings today include a list to help us grow in wisdom in our relationships with others and with God. Let us be grateful for the rich mystery of God's grace as we strive to find that balance.

KIMBERLY'S CORNER

When was the last time you Evangelized?

As Catholics, we are called not only to live our faith but to share it. Evangelization is a natural response to the love we have received from Christ. When we truly encounter His mercy and truth, we cannot help but invite others into that same relationship. Sharing the Gospel is not about imposing our beliefs, but offering hope, purpose, and the joy of salvation. Through our words, actions, and witness, we help others discover the beauty of the Church and the life-changing presence of God. Evangelization is an act of love, a way of building up the Body of Christ and fulfilling our baptismal mission.

St. Pope Paul VI – Evangelii Nuntiandi (1975)

"Evangelizing is in fact the grace and vocation proper to the Church, her deepest identity. She exists in order to evangelize."

St. John Paul II – Redemptoris Missio (1990)

"Faith is strengthened when it is given to others."

Pope Francis – Evangelii Gaudium (2013)

"Every Christian is a missionary to the extent that he or she has encountered the love of God in Christ Jesus."

A quote often attributed to St. Francis of Assisi:

"Preach the Gospel at all times. When necessary, use words."

St. Thérèse of Lisieux:

"I would like to travel over the whole earth to preach Thy name... I would be a missionary, not for a few years only, but from the beginning of creation until the consummation of the ages."

Vision Statement: To be doing the will of the one who sent us.

Mission Statement: Being a mission-oriented Church that forms disciples of Jesus.

In 2013, Bishop Fabbro reminded priests of a 1998 directive from Bishop Sherlock that bans all activities related to the BNP Movement (Banal Na Pag-aaral, or Holy Studies Group) within the Diocese of London. The movement, which originated in the Philippines, has been found to contain elements contrary to Catholic teaching. It has recently come to our attention that BNP is attempting to restart retreats in the Windsor-Essex deanery. As a reminder:

BNP activities are not permitted in any diocesan or affiliated facility (e.g., schools, hospitals, retreat centres).

Clergy may not participate in any BNP-sponsored events, including sacramental celebrations.

Your vigilance in upholding this directive is appreciated.

Liturgical Decorators Wanted

We are urgently seeking additional Liturgical Decorators to help prepare our church for the liturgical seasons and special celebrations. If you have a heart to serve we would love to hear from you. Please call the Parish Office if you are interested.
