Sunday, August 10th & 17th, 2025

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today our Gospel begins with a needed assurance from Jesus: God's promises will be kept. He wants us to inherit the kingdom of heaven. The task is simple: have faith and be prepared. Then, Jesus prompts us to go deeper and recognize that faith requires action. Like the slave who continues to watch over the house while they wait for their master's arrival, we must also continue to be vigilant and strive to create a world that is ready to receive Jesus when he comes again.

This faith is not blind. Scripture shows us those who have faith receive favour with God. Abraham journeyed to a new land despite not knowing where he was going or whether God's promises would be kept. Throughout history, Abraham and his descendants kept their hearts focused on the heavenly inheritance of God's kingdom.

Today there are many distractions that can pull our focus from heaven. Jesus reminds us of our duty to tend the earth and his people while we wait for his return. Each of us has been given gifts from God to do his work. In our family, my husband has a green thumb and cares for things that grow. I teach catechesis of the Good Shepherd to our children. How might you use your gifts and God's love to tend for his kingdom?

KIMBERLY'S CORNER

Thinking about becoming Catholic? We'd love to talk with you.

There are many reasons for considering becoming Catholic.

Are you seeking greater meaning and purpose in your life?

Do you feel a desire to seek answers to your questions about God, about Jesus Christ, and about the Church?

Do you have a desire for your family to be united in faith?

Do you want to be part of a community of people worshipping God together?

You have been Baptized, but would like to be Confirmed and to receive Holy Communion.

For these reasons, and others that are unique to you, this may be the perfect time for you to consider RCIA (The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). RCIA is the way that adults come to learn about the Catholic faith, and become initiated into the Church through the celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation, which are Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist.

Our sessions will be on Thursday evenings, and begin on October 2.

We would love to accompany you on this dynamic journey of faith!

If you or someone you know is interested, please contact me and I would be happy to talk to you. You can also scan the QR code below and fill out the simple form and I will be in touch with you.
