Thanksgiving Reflection from Fr. Matthew, Pastor

As we gather with loved ones this Thanksgiving, we pause to reflect on the blessings that fill our lives—family, Faith, and the gift of community. Though Thanksgiving is not a liturgical feast, its spirit resonates deeply with our Christian call to gratitude. In every Mass, we give thanks; in every act of kindness, we mirror the generosity of Christ. This season invites us to recognize the abundance we have received and to consider how we might share that abundance with others.

Each year, the Diocese of London invites us to participate in the Thanksgiving Appeal—a vital initiative that supports ministries across our parishes and diocese. From hospital chaplaincy and youth programs to refugee outreach and care for the deaf and hard-of-hearing, these ministries embody the Gospel call to serve the poor, feed the hungry, and clothe the naked. Your gift helps sustain the everyday work of our family of parishes, including heating, maintenance, and pastoral care. Remember, this particular collection is not assessed by the diocese. 100% of all funds collected specifically for the appeal stays in your particular parish. It is a tangible way to ensure our churches remain places of welcome, healing, and hope. Envelopes are available at the Welcome Desk at Corpus Christi and Our Lady of Mount Carmel for your convenience.

I encourage each family in our parish community to prayerfully consider a contribution to this year's Thanksgiving Appeal. Whether through your parish envelope or online giving, your generosity makes a real difference. Together, we are one Body, united in mission and love. May this Thanksgiving be a time of joy, reflection, and renewed commitment to living out our Faith in service to others.
