

Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Sunday, November 9, 2025

Website: sw.dol.ca

There are times when we are tired and frustrated and we do not act as we normally would. Is this what is happening in today's Gospel passage, where Jesus clears the temple of the money changers? This reading follows upon a wedding at Cana. Surely Jesus just had a brilliant time with his family and friends. So why does John the Evangelist situate this passage here? John's focus is very different from the other Gospels. John's Jesus is the Christ, God in charge.

When I was growing up, it was frowned upon to show anger. Since that time I have learned that when my head judges that an injustice is taking place, anger is often the response of my heart. So maybe this is the reason Jesus displays such a deep anger when he senses that the temple is being used for a purpose it was never intended to have.

Why these readings on this memorial day of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica? The act of dedicating a place to God is a ritual found in most religious traditions. The Lateran Basilica is considered the mother Church of all churches. It is the home church of the Pope. So it is today that we see Jesus acting in a way to purify and confirm the purpose of the temple a place of worship dedicated to God.

KIMBERLY'S CORNER

ALPHA: On our fifth night of Alpha we explored the topic of prayer. We enjoyed a bountiful and delicious potluck dinner and great fellowship. In the session we learned Prayer is about our relationship with God. Nicky Gumbel shared that prayer can be compared to a traffic light. Sometimes you ask for something and you get a green light and you receive exactly what you asked for, sometimes immediately. Sometimes it is a red light, and that means no. We may never know the reason why, but we don't stop trusting God and we don't stop praying. Other times prayer is like a yellow light and you don't get an answer immediately and that means wait and trust. God's timing is perfect "When a train goes through a tunnel, and it gets dark, you don't throw away the ticket, and get toff. You sit still, and trust the driver." (Corrie Ten Boom). Next week we will explore the topic "Why and How Should I read the Bible?" Please continue to pray for us! Come Holy Spirit!

At our RCIA session this week, we learned about how we can know God's love personally through Jesus. It is not too late to join us! If you or a love done are interested in becoming Catholic, I encourage you to take the first step and contact me. Simply fill out the form on our website, and I will be in touch. Please pray for our candidates and our awesome team.
