

The Baptism of the Lord

John 1.29-34

Sunday, January 11, 2026

Website: sw.dol.ca

As we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, we stand at a beautiful threshold in the liturgical year. The Christmas season has drawn to a close, yet its central truth continues to echo: God has come to meet us. In Jesus Christ, the Father steps into our world, not from afar, but up close—entering our humanity so that we might share in His divine life.

Jesus steps into the waters of the Jordan—not because He needs cleansing, but because we do. In allowing Himself to be Baptized, He identifies with us completely. The heavens open, the Spirit descends, and the Father declares, “This is my beloved Son.” In that moment, Jesus reveals not only who He is, but who we are called to become.

Through our own Baptism, God has claimed us as His beloved sons and daughters. We receive the inheritance of sanctifying grace, a share in God’s own life. This divine adoption is not symbolic or sentimental—it is real. It shapes our identity, our mission, and our relationships.

Today’s feast invites us to remember: • We belong to God... He has spoken our name and called us His own. • We share in Christ’s mission... Anointed by the same Spirit, we are sent to bring light, healing, and hope to others. • We are part of a family... Divine adoption draws us not only closer to God, but closer to one another.

May this feast renew our gratitude for the gift of baptism and strengthen our commitment to live as God’s beloved children—meeting others with the same mercy, gentleness, and courage that Christ shows us. +Fr. Matthew
