

15th and 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday, July 12 & July 19, 2026 (this is a 2 week bulletin)

Website: sw.dol.ca

Reflection – Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah reminds us that God's word is never wasted: it always accomplishes something, even when we cannot yet see its fruit. Paul deepens that hope by teaching that all creation is groaning toward glory, and our present struggles are not worth comparing with what God is bringing to birth. Jesus' parable of the sower invites us to be honest about the soil of our hearts—where the Word is welcomed, where it is crowded, and where it is ignored. Summer's slower pace can be a grace-filled time to let the seed of the Gospel sink in more deeply, trusting that God is quietly at work.

Reflection – Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wisdom praises God's strength shown not in force but in patience, giving space for repentance and growth. Paul echoes that gentleness by reminding us that the Spirit helps us in our weakness, praying within us when our own words fail. Jesus' parables of the weeds, the mustard seed, and the yeast reveal a God who works steadily and often invisibly, allowing good and evil to grow side by side until the right moment. In a world that demands quick results, these readings call us to practice God's own patience—with ourselves, with others, and with the slow but certain coming of the Kingdom.

+Fr. Matthew
