

21st and 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday, August 23 - September 6, 2026 (this is a 2 week bulletin) Website: sw.dol.ca

Reflection – Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, Jesus turns to His disciples and asks the question that defines every Christian life: "Who do you say that I am?" It is not a question about public opinion or theological theory—it is personal. Our answer shapes how we live, what we value, and where we place our hope. Peter responds not with an abstract definition but with a relationship: "You are the Christ." Faith is never simply knowing about Jesus; it is knowing Him, trusting Him, and allowing that relationship to anchor our identity.

This confession also reveals how authority works in the Church. Jesus entrusts real responsibility to Peter—not because Peter is flawless, but because Christ is faithful. The Church is built on confession, not perfection. Every vocation in the Church—parent, priest, catechist, volunteer, or quiet disciple—shares in this same pattern: authority exercised through service, rooted in relationship with Christ, and sustained by His fidelity. Our failures do not cancel our calling; they simply remind us that the strength of the Church rests on Christ, not on us.

Reflection – Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jeremiah reminds us that God's call is not always comfortable, but it is always true. He feels overwhelmed, even burned by the mission entrusted to him, yet the Word of God becomes a fire in his heart that he cannot ignore. Many of us know this same quiet persistence: the parent who keeps loving through heartbreak, the caregiver who shows up again and again, the priest who preaches hope even when tired, the Christian who chooses mercy in a world that rewards anger. Real vocation presses on the heart and asks for fidelity even when enthusiasm fades.

Jesus takes that same truth and brings it directly into discipleship: "If anyone wants to become my disciple, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." This is not a call to misery but a call to purpose. The Cross is the doorway into a life that is larger and more honest than anything the world offers. Taking up our cross means choosing forgiveness when resentment feels easier, choosing integrity when compromise feels safer, choosing compassion when indifference feels simpler, and choosing faithfulness when the world says it's naïve. It means letting Christ shape our decisions, not merely decorate them—trusting that the fire He places in our hearts will lead us into real life. + Fr. Matthew

KIMBERLY'S COLUMN

With so many of our ministries starting up again in September, we are in great need of volunteers.

At this time, I am particularly in need of individuals to join my RCIA team,

Perhaps you feel a gentle nudge to step out that God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called! I know this has been true in my own call to ministry.

I include a prayer below that you can pray to help you in your discernment to hear and answer God's call. If you are ready to take that step and explore the many opportunities to share the love of God with others, please contact me or a member of our pastoral team: kbornais@dol.ca

God bless you!

A Prayer to Hear and Answer God's Call:

Open my ears: Help me hear your gentle invitation.

Calm my fears: Remove any doubt that I am not enough.

Ignite my heart: Give me a desire to love through service.

Send your Holy Spirit: Inspire me to answer the call.

Bless my work: May my efforts bring glory to Your name.

OPEN INVITATION TO OPEN CONVERSATIONS
