

Immaculate Conception Parish Saint Stanislaus Parish

Jesus again in reply spoke to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables, saying "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come. A second time he sent other servants, saying, 'Tell those invited: "Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast."' Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business. The rest laid hold of his servants, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged and sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, 'The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come. Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.' The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to meet the guests, he saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment. The king said to him, 'My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?' But he was reduced to silence. Then the king said to his attendants, 'Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the darkness outside, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.' Many are invited, but few are chosen."

Church Bulletin Deadline

Please have bulletin items to the IC Office by noon, Wednesday. Thank you.

WE'RE READY IF YOU ARE READY:

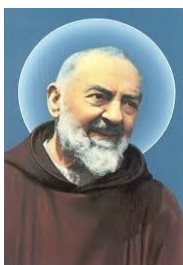

It is extremely important to me that if you or a loved one is unable to make it to church to receive the Sacraments for whatever reason (age, mobility, health, COVID-19 concerns), we would be more than happy and willing to come to you so that you can receive Holy Communion as well as the Sacraments of Confession and the Anointing of the sick (which by the way, is not just for those who are dying, but is a great grace for anyone who is dealing with a serious illness or the effects of advanced age). We have several parishioners who have been generous in the past in helping bring Holy Communion to those who are homebound and they are ready to resume these home visits if you are. Please call the office or email me or a staff member to make this happen! No one should have to go without the Sacraments and we are willing to accommodate anyone as best we can. This includes praying with you and offering the Sacraments at your door (versus coming in), wearing a mask, or any other way we can care for you.

Dear Family,

Pastor's Corner

First of all, I want you to know how thrilled I was by the turnout for our joint parish picnic! It warmed my heart to see our parishioners at both parishes coming together to celebrate and enjoy life just because we can! Thanks to all who came and especially those who helped make it a success!

As you are probably aware, October is Respect Life Month, a time where we call to mind the great dignity of the human person, a dignity which is rooted in the fact that we are made in God's image and likeness and created to share in the very life of God. Let's reflect on the truth that each and every human person is a "manifestation of God in the world, a sign of his presence, a trace of his glory" (Evangelium Vitae).

There are so many attacks on this innate dignity of the human person, from poverty to malnutrition to human trafficking. I would like to briefly draw attention to two of these attacks, which I feel are particularly relevant:

Domestic violence— which is when a spouse seeks to maintain power and control over the other, often through physical or sexual violence as well as through emotional abuses such as financial control and isolation. Violence is never justified in any form, whether physical, sexual, psychological or verbal and is always sinful. The Bible and Church teachings must never be used to justify this behavior (although it often is) and indeed the Church has always taught that spouses are equals in dignity. Recognizing the sacredness of Marriage, it is necessary still to say that it is never the requirement of the Catholic Church that any spouse remain in an abusive and dangerous living situation.

Abortion—Foremost among all of these threats is attacks on the weakest and most vulnerable people; children in their mother's wombs and those approaching the end of their lives. The Catholic bishops emphasize that the threat of abortion continues to be our preeminent priority because it directly attacks life, it takes place within the sanctuary of the family, and because of the sheer numbers of lives it destroys. This preeminent priority should hold the greatest weight when deciding who to vote for.

This October let's ask ourselves: Do I support and advocate for laws and policies that protect and defend human life? Do I help pregnant and parenting mothers in need? Am I ready to support a loved one nearing death?

October Respect Life Month Resources ~

Each October the Church celebrates Respect Life Month, when we pray, reflect and become engaged in building a culture that cherishes every human life. This year's theme, "Live the Gospel of Life", was chosen to celebrate the 25th anniversary of Pope St. John Paul II's prophetic pro-life encyclical, Evangelium vitae (The Gospel of Life). As Catholics we always strive to "see in every human face of Christ" (EV91) and treat each person as we would treat Christ Himself.

Mask Information

Both IC and SS Parishes are happy to make masks available for every Mass. We ask that you provide your own mask whenever possible as we strive to conserve our resources and expenses on keeping them available in the future. Thank you for being thoughtful in keeping your usage on a need-basis.
Your understanding is greatly appreciated.

(GLORIA)

Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth peace to people of good will.

we praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen

(NICENE CREED)

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven (At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man," all bow.)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
And became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his Kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.
Amen
