Dear Friends in Christ:

Quý Ông Bà và Anh Chị Em thân mến trong Chúa Kitô:

Estimados Amigos y Amigas en Cristo:

One observation that many have made about our society is that we focus on the negative or the shortcomings and not enough on the positive. That is true about the Church also. I am always amazed how people, Catholics and non-Catholics, are not aware of all the good, the outreach the Church does. This applies to the great missionary work of a local organization that is celebrating its 50th anniversary of its beginning. Archbishop Fiorenza will celebrate this Sunday's 11 am Mass, acknowledging the great outreach of Magnificat Houses, founded in 1968 by Rose Mary Badami. Tuesday, Nov. 13, is also the 95th birthday of Rose Mary, and pending her health, we are hoping that she will be in attendance.

Rose Mary pledged her lifetime to personally lifting every possible homeless person off the streets and into private homes, where they could thrive in a Catholic faith community and move toward independence. Taking to heart Dorothy Day's mission to house the poor and using the Corporal Works of Mercy (Matthew 25: 31-46) as her guide, Rose Mary founded Magnificat House with one neighborhood house in 1968. The houses have grown in number. It has proved to be an alternative to the streets by sheltering, clothing, feeding and providing mental health support and spiritual guidance to men and women—of all mental abilities, social backgrounds, religions and cultures—as they rebuild their lives in community. It is not an agency, but a ministry motivated by the belief that all are created with dignity and worth.

“Despite incredible, ongoing hardships, Rose Mary's vision never faltered,” according to John Boyles, executive director of the non-profit Magnificat Houses, Inc. “Whatever society and circumstance threw at her, she managed to incorporate into her mission—simply, to put the Corporal Works of Mercy into practice. Feed the hungry? Shelter the homeless and shunned? She was on it.”

Over the years, as conditions warranted, Badami added special services for societal outcasts such as ex-offenders, AIDS victims, the disabled and elderly, and women who chronically live on the streets. She personally interviewed and welcomed every new resident, guiding each toward finding purpose in community. Many street-bound men and women found themselves empowered and eventually moved out to full independence.

Over 50 years, Magnificat Houses have grown to encompass 15 neighborhood residential homes, St. Joseph Clubhouse offering mental health support, an emergency shelter for women—Myriam's Hostel, a 6 acre rehabilitation farm and Houston's longest running soup kitchen, Loaves & Fishes, opened in 1973 (2009 Congress at the corner of Chartres). Most of the above are in Midtown and downtown. All residents are enrolled in an employment program, trying to improve their skills and self-confidence to seek meaningful work. Msgr. James Golasinski, Fr. Frank Wittouck, SCJ, some deacons and several religious sisters from Guatemala, India and the Philippines are all available for spiritual guidance. Plus Mass and catechism classes are also available.

More than 20,000 men and women have passed through these neighborhood homes of Magnificat Houses, some 10 million meals served through the soup kitchen, Loaves & Fishes, and many with mental health diagnoses spend their days productively at St. Joseph Clubhouse.

Magnificat Houses also operates 2 thrift stores. The Mustard Seed, a Midtown resale shop, features 2,300 square feet of bargains and finds, modern and antique, from furniture to clothing to household and decorative items and everything in between — plus a sizable courtyard offering garden items and quick sale bargains. It is located at 1410 Elgin at LaBranch, Houston 77004 (Open Tuesdays through Saturdays, 10 am-3 pm, 713-524-7333). The Anawim Thrift Store features a 3700 square foot showroom and serves a Northeast Houston community with a welcoming atmosphere and affordable goods in every possible category. It is located at 2102 Common Street, Houston 77009 (Open Tuesdays through Saturdays, 10 am-4 pm, 832-831-4196).

Pray for continual blessings upon the Magnificat Houses.

Praised be the Sacred Heart of Jesus! Now and forever, amen!

Hãy chúc tụng Thánh Tâm Chúa Giêsu đến muôn đời, amen!

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. ## SIGNIFICANCE of BOWING

A bow signifies reverence and honor shown to the names or event being mentioned. We are to do the following:

- 1) A bow of the head is made when the three Divine Persons (the Trinity) are named together and at the names of Jesus, of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and of the Saint in whose honor Mass is being celebrated.
- 2) A bow of the body (a profound bow) is made during the Creed with the words (and by the Holy Spirit...and became man—highlighted in red words in the Creed).

Music Notes for Today's Liturgy

This Sunday, November 11, is Veteran's Day. In Europe, the first Armistice Day was celebrated 100 years ago, on November 11, 1918. At the Eucharist, the choirs offer the Agnus Dei from Maurice Duruflé's Requiem. Duruflé was a French organist and composer serving St. Etienne-du-Mont in Paris. From the time when he began as a boy chorister, he was fascinated with plainchant. The entire Requiem is based on the plainchant requiem mass; you may recognize the melodic line at the beginning of the Agnus Dei.

In the organ music heard today, we heard also an homage, or conceptual Requiem that Duruflé wrote to honor his friend and fellow Parisian composer Jehan Alain (1911 – 1940). Alain's best known work is Litanies, meant to evoke the sound of Gregorian prayers uttered repetitively and incessantly year after year; this work was heard last week as a prelude before Mass. Alain was senselessly killed at age 29 in the Second World War while serving as a bicycle messenger behind enemy lines. In the music of Maurice Duruflé, Alain is eulogized by making a melody of the notes of his name (A-L-A-I-N), the rhythm of the turning wheels, and the quotation of Litanies. In the first, quiet half of the piece, we can hear the sadness of death, but in the second half we build toward new life, in an evocation of the resurrection.

Dr. Crista Miller will repeat this entire sequence of pieces together (Litanies by Jehan Alain; Prelude and Fugue on the Name of Alain by Maurice Duruflé; and a third commentary, BossAlaina (2003), dedicated to Crista by Jonathan Ortloff) in a free Third Thursday Recital at 12:45 PM on November 15.

Today at the 9am Preparation, Schola Cantorum offers Sir Edward Bairstow's setting of "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," an elaborate arrangement of the same tune that it appears in our hymnal, St. Columbia. Bairstow was born in Yorkshire, and he served in that area during his entire career, teaching lessons, composing, accompanying, conducting, and most notably, serving as music minister. He was notoriously terse and direct, critical often to a point that it was interpreted as rudeness. He was a perfectionist and a staunch believer in economy; this was evident in his playing (he was known to rarely miss a note) and his compositions, which are elegant and restrained, without an unnecessary note.

The text "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" is a metrical setting of Psalm 23, which Cor Jesu offers at the 11am Preparation today in a setting by Harrison Oxley titled "My Shepherd Is Lord." Oxley was another British organist and choirmaster, who at the time of his appointment at age 24 was the youngest cathedral organist in Britain. Interestingly, he was also the first English choirmaster to use girls' voices in addition to the boys in the cathedral choir, a controversial move, saying he couldn't find a reason to "bar half of humanity from the benefits and opportunities of cathedral choir membership."

Co-Cathedral Music: Outreach

This past week I was invited to speak at an international conference held at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, NY. Researchers, organists and, church musicians representing Sweden, Japan, Germany, Italy, France, and the US attended. I had the pleasure to tell about you, Co-Cathedral parishioners, and your reaction liturgically and culturally to our "new" Pasi pipe organ installed in 2010. There is great interest around the country of how our parish has grown since moving to the new cathedral, especially in terms of increased congregational singing (that is a direct result of our clergy and you - way to go on that!), use of Gregorian chant, liturgical use of adult choral music, and how we educate our children about our Catholic musical heritage. In a panel discussion, one of the Eastman professors pointed out, in a surprise to me, that the disposition of our organ itself has begun a move toward a new eclecticism in church music, reflected by five organs constructed after ours; two were installed in Catholic Cathedrals, and one at Notre Dame University. We share many things with our fellows - I also learned from that the 2008 organ shown here in Sacred Heart Cathedral in Rochester New York, was constructed from the same Austrian oak shipment as our Pasi organ. Our organ builder, Martin Pasi, shared this beautiful wood for the Rochester organ builder, Paul Fritts. Even though these connections may not be obvious, I thought it might be moving during this week of All Saints and All Souls, to think about how we are connected not just to saints of the past, but to other people now. We are connected in ways of worship, and in educational and building tools and good-will that we share with national and international colleagues, and that is good news! - Dr. Crista Miller.

Pope's Prayer Intention: Universal – In Service of Peace

That the language of love and dialogue may always prevail over the language of conflict.

PRAYER AFTER AN ELECTION

God of all nations,
Father of the human family,
we give you thanks for the freedom we exercise and the many blessings of democracy we enjoy in these United States of America.

We ask for your protection and guidance for all who devote themselves to the common good, working for justice and peace at home and around the world.

We lift up all our duly elected leaders and public servants, those who will serve us as our leaders, as legislators and judges,
those in the military and law enforcement.

Heal us from our differences and unite us, O Lord, with a common purpose, dedication, and commitment to achieve liberty and justice in the years ahead for all people, and especially those who are most vulnerable in our midst.
Amen.

A Prayer on Veteran's Day Remembering and Honoring All Who Served

Lord God, Almighty Father,
Creator of mankind and author of peace,
As we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty
we possess,

We ask you to bless all our Veterans, living and faithfully departed.

To those living: Give them courage, hope and strength.
May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing. Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light.

For those departed: Look kindly on our departed Veterans especially those who gave their lives in the service of their country. Grant that through the passion, death, and resurrection of your Son they may share in the joy of your heavenly kingdom and rejoice in you with your saints forever.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Second Collections

Nov. 10/11- Parish Debt Collection

Nov. 17/18- Missions Appeal

Each year we are asked to become more conscious of and more involved in the Mission Activity of the Catholic Church throughout the world by participating in the Mission Co-op Program of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. This year, on the weekend of November 17th and 18th, Sister Lisa Marie Valentini, MSC, a Missionary Sister of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, from Pennsylvania, will speak at all the Masses here to share with us about the Missions. Sister Lisa is a teacher and has been an active missionary for 35 years. She is very much looking forward to sharing with us about her own mission experiences in Perú, Mexico, Haiti and the Dominican Republic. Since our parish has been especially chosen this year by the Archdiocesan Mission Office, our Mission Collection will not be for Sister Lisa and her Sisters, but rather it will support the wonderful work of the Pontifical Mission Societies around the world.

Stewardship Reflection: Nov. 11 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time:

That when we give our financial support to our parish, we give from our "first fruits" and not what from what is "left over".

"I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living." (Mark 12:43- 44)

Jesus gets right to the point – we are all called to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance. No gift is too small or insignificant!
Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your "first fruits" or from what is "left over"?

Children's Catechesis & Evangelization (CCE)

Faith Formation for Children and Youth

Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston

The goal of Children and Youth Faith Formation here at the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart is to provide a comprehensive process of the highest possible quality of Catholic Christian Education and Spiritual Formation for the Children and Youth of our Parish. We do this in a safe, welcoming, caring, and hospitable environment while enabling their parents and guardians to successfully accept and perform their role as the primary teachers and role models of their children.

Faith Formation Sunday: November 11

Focus: The Poor Widow's Contribution : Christians share without thought of reward.

All sessions will begin promptly at 9 am with morning prayer.

The widow in this Sunday's Gospel, Mark 12:38-44, gives to the Temple two small coins she could use to live on. Jesus contrasts her gift with the showy gifts of some teachers of the Law. The widow with her small but wholehearted gift is the exemplary believer, rather than the scribes.

The Gospel calls us to be generous in the giving of ourselves to others.

Connecting Scripture and Doctrine

In all of his life, Jesus presents himself as our model. In praising a widow for her wholeheartedness, Jesus lifts up someone who models his way of loving and being. "The whole of Christ's life was a continual teaching: his silences, his miracles, his gestures, his prayer, his love for people, his special affection for the little and the poor, his acceptance of total sacrifice on the Cross for the redemption of the world, and his Resurrection are the actualization of his word and the fulfillment of Revelation" (CCC, 561). See CCC, 2443-2449.

Palabras del Papa Francisco

La Viuda Tenía Su Esperanza Sólo en el Señor

El Evangelio del día se refiere a la pobre viuda que echa en el tesoro del templo dos moneditas, mientras los ricos ostentan sus grandes donaciones. Jesús afirma que “esta viuda tan pobre ha dado más que todos”, porque los demás han dado de lo superfluo, mientras ella, en su miseria, ha dado “todo lo que tenía para vivir.” La viuda es la mujer sola, que no tiene marido que la cuide; la mujer que debe arreglárselas como pueda, que vive de la caridad pública. La viuda de este pasaje del Evangelio era una viuda que tenía su esperanza sólo en el Señor. A mí me gusta ver en las viudas del Evangelio la imagen de la ‘viudez’ de la Iglesia que espera el regreso de Jesús: La Iglesia es esposa de Jesús, pero su Señor se ha ido y su único tesoro es su Señor. Y la Iglesia, cuando es fiel, deja todo en espera de su Señor. En cambio, cuando la Iglesia no es fiel o no es tan fiel o no tiene tanta fe en el amor de su Señor trata de arreglarse también con otras cosas, con otras seguridades, más del mundo que de Dios. Una Iglesia que llora y lucha por sus hijos. Es la Iglesia viuda que reza, intercede por sus hijos. Pero el corazón de la Iglesia está siempre con su Esposo, con Jesús. Está allá arriba. También nuestra alma —según los padres del desierto— se asemeja mucho a la Iglesia. Y cuando nuestra alma, nuestra vida, está más cerca de Jesús se aleja de tantas cosas mundanas, cosas que no sirven, que no ayudan y que alejan de Jesús. Así es nuestra Iglesia que busca a su Esposo, espera a su Esposo, espera aquel encuentro, que llora por sus hijos, lucha por sus hijos, da todo lo que tiene porque su interés es sólo su Esposo.
