TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME OCTOBER 2, 2022

RECTOR'S LETTER

October 2, 2022

Change in Confessions Logistics

Dear Friends in Christ:

Anh chị em thân mến trong Chúa Kitô:
Estimados Amigos y Amigas en Cristo:

The Co-Cathedral has long been committed to offering times for confessions before almost every scheduled Mass, with the exception of the 7 AM Mass on Sundays. Likewise, I am glad that so many avail themselves of the opportunity, not just from our parish but also our visitors. Considering this is one of the most important things I do as a priest, I cannot complain about having too many penitents!

Moving forward beginning during this week, we will go back to using the front confessionals (one in each transept) as our primary confessionals. The Sacred Heart confessional will be my primary confessional, and the Marian confessional will primarily be for Fr. Steven Tran. When a visiting priest is here, they will be in the back confessional. By frequent use of the front confessionals, this allows visibility from one to the other to allow penitents to see which ones are in use and which one has a shorter line. We will also redouble our efforts to try to have two confessors available as often as possible.

In return, I ask that penitents be as courteous as possible. Do not show up ten minutes before Mass planning to go to confession—that is when confession times end so that preparations for Mass can be taking place. Come early and examine your conscience in advance so that you can confess your sins in an expedient way that does not slow down the line—the confessional is to the place for the Sacrament of Penance, not for general counseling. Appointments can be made with priests if more deliberate time is needed in a non-rush setting. We want to make sure no one has to be turned away from the sacrament of God's mercy!

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, we place all our trust in You. Amen.

Yours in Christ,

Very Reverend Jeffrey L. Bame
