3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

APRIL 14, 2024

RECTOR'S CORNER

April 14, 2024
Dignitas infinita

Dear Friends in Christ:

Anh chị em thân mến trong Chúa Kitô:
Estimados Amigos y Amigas en Cristo:

After five years of preparations, on Monday the Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith released a long-awaited document, Dignitas infinita, on issues of human dignity in the modern world, which includes treatment of fundamental Christian anthropology and particular topics such as poverty, violence, human trafficking, abortion, surrogacy, gender theory, and social media. Since it is hot off the presses, I have not yet read it, but here are some excerpts from the document's introduction:

“In its initial three sections, the Declaration recalls fundamental principles and theoretical premises, with the goal of offering important clarifications that can help avoid frequent confusion that surrounds the use of the term “dignity.” The fourth section presents some current and problematic situations in which the immense and inalienable dignity due to every human being is not sufficiently recognized. The Church sees the condemnation of these grave and current violations of human dignity as a necessary measure, for she sustains the deep conviction that we cannot separate faith from the defense of human dignity, evangelization from the promotion of a dignified life, and spirituality from a commitment to the dignity of every human being.

This dignity of every human being can be understood as “infinite” (dignitas infinita), as Pope St. John Paul II affirmed in a meeting for people living with various limitations or disabilities. He said this to show how human dignity transcends all outward appearances and specific aspects of people's lives.

In Fratelli Tutti, Pope Francis wanted to underscore that this dignity exists “beyond all circumstances.” With this, he summoned all people to defend human dignity in every cultural context and every moment of human existence, regardless of physical, psychological, social, or even moral deficiencies. The Declaration strives to show that this is a universal truth that we are all called to recognize as a fundamental condition for our societies to be truly just, peaceful, healthy, and authentically human.

Although not comprehensive, the topics discussed in this Declaration are selected to illuminate different facets of human dignity that might be obscured in many people's consciousness. Some topics may resonate more with some sectors of society than others. Nevertheless, all of them strike us as being necessary because, taken together, they help us recognize the harmony and richness of the thought about human dignity that flows from the Gospel.

This Declaration does not set out to exhaust such a rich and crucial subject. Instead, its aim is to offer some points for reflection that can help us maintain an awareness of human dignity amid the complex historical moment in which we are living. This is so that we may not lose our way and open ourselves up to more wounds and profound sufferings amid the numerous concerns and anxieties of our time.”

WORSHIP

WORSHIP is the beginning and end of all things for a Catholic—our Catholic life begins in baptism. It is the source and summit of Catholic life, including that of a parish. We receive from God, and we make offering to God, with our joint participation with Christ in the ultimate offering to God the Father in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. For many, this is all that there is to Catholic life—go to Mass—but it is merely the beginning. By our WORSHIP and by our baptism, we BELONG to the Body of Christ, are called to GROW, to GIVE back, and GO forth in authentic discipleship. Of course, all of this leads back to WORSHIP.

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

ALL ARE CORDIALLY INVITED

By the grace of baptism, we BELONG to the Body of Christ, the Church. We are adopted sons and daughters of God who are built up as a family through the Body and Blood of Christ. This is true in a mystical sense and also in a very human, institutional sense as we belong to the Church and to our parish family.

The more we grow in our Catholic faith, the more we realize how blessed we are and how in turn we are called to GIVE. We come to realize that all that we are and all that we have is a gift from God. We are called to give back to God and our neighbor in practical charity and true stewardship of time, talent, and treasure.

PARISH LIFE

Incorporated into the Life of Christ and His Church by the grace of baptism and the sacraments, we are called to GROW in virtue, prayer, and knowledge. God continues to sow the seed and asks us to nurture what has been sown so that we can grow into Christian maturity and bear fruit more abundantly.

The authentic Catholic life leads us not to membership and disjointed action, but to discipleship and to mission. The act of divine worship ends with the dismissal to GO forth. We are sent, as another dismissal formulary says, to go and glorify the Lord with the entirety of our lives and to make disciples of others.

"Moreover, man and his life appear to us not only as one of the greatest marvels of creation: for God has granted to man a dignity which is near to divine (Ps 8:5-6). In every child which is born and in every person who lives or dies we see the image of God's glory. We celebrate this glory in every human being, a sign of the living God, an icon of Jesus Christ."

Un mensaje del Diacono Galvan

REFLEXION:

Vemos en nuestras casas, iglesias y toda clase de edificios, imágenes de Cristo, a veces muy hermosas y a veces ridículas. Tenemos que aprender a distinguir al verdadero Cristo de todos esos credos "fantasmas" con los que se manipula a veces la fe sencilla de nuestro pueblo. El verdadero Cristo, Cristo Resucitado, es el mismo Jesucristo que aparece en las Sagradas Escrituras, que anuncia (con sus hechos y palabras) el Reino de Dios y que quiere seguidores de su misión, que continúen sirviendo hasta dar la vida como El. ¿Somos nosotros seguidores del verdadero Cristo, o nos hemos hecho a nuestra medida y gusto un Cristo "fantasma" que ya no tiene nada que ver con el Cristo que aparece en la Sagrada Escritura?

REFLEXION PERSONAL:

- ¿Qué diría Jesús si nos viera imaginarlo como lo imaginamos?
- ¿El Cristo en el que creo, me da paz o me provoca miedo?

CHÚA NHẬT III PHỤC SINH - NĂM B

Hoàn cảnh của các môn đệ thật là bi đát. Các ông là những người theo Chúa ngay từ đầu, những mong sẽ được tả hữu vinh quang, ai ngờ Thầy mình lại bị giết, bị chôn vùi trong huyết đá và nay là ngôi mộ hoàn toàn trống rỗng. Các ông chán nản trở lại nghề cũ, trở lại quê quán... Nhưng chính lúc ấy, Đấng Phục Sinh có mặt. Bằng lời Thánh Kinh sống động và khai sáng, Người thanh luyện các ông khỏi thất vọng, sợ sệt và đặt các ông vào một đời sống mới. Hai môn đệ đi làng Emmaus đã thấy âm lòng khi nghe Lời Chúa. Các môn đệ ở Giêrusalem cũng đầy phấn khởi khi được Chúa soi sáng, củng cố và đặt chứng nhân của hi vọng, của lòng tin. Xin cho chúng ta cũng được Chúa biến đổi đời sống, để chúng ta cũng có thể trở thành những chứng nhân cho Chúa Kitô Phục Sinh.

Chào mừng Anh Trí Phan, ca trưởng mới của Ca Đoàn Dũng Lạc. Cộng Đoàn xin chân thành cảm ơn anh và gia đình vì đã can đảm lắng nghe tiếng Chúa mời gọi để hy sinh phục vụ.
