A Citizen's Examination of Conscience

Dear Friends in Christ:

Anh chị em thân mến trong Chúa Kitô:

Estimados Amigos y Amigas en Cristo:

Last week, I wrote about how our duty to vote is part of giving unto Caesar what is Caesar's while giving to God what belongs to Him. As citizens of heaven, we owe God everything, but we are nonetheless called to be good citizens while passing through this world, working for the common good.

Among the resources on Faithful Citizenship that the USCCB puts out every two years, I particularly like the below Examination of Conscience that has been provided by the Committee on Justice and Peace. This is a guided reflection not on issues themselves but on the manner in which we engage with them with (or without) charity. I would encourage everyone to pray with this not just regarding your voting choices but your day to day involvement in political discourse, whether in person or on the internet.

1. What stories from my community have left an impression on me and led me to ask, "What can I do to change this?" Where have I been called to action? What issues or injustices have I felt drawn to work on in my community?
2. In the past, how have I engaged or disengaged in efforts to address issues I care about, including through engagement in the political process as a faithful citizen? What has drawn me towards or away from engagement?
3. What perspectives on issues impacting our local and global communities elicit strong negative reactions in me? What is at the root of that feeling or why do I feel the way I do?
4. When have I allowed that strong feeling to cause me to say or think something unkind about another person? Specifically:
 - On social media: When has my engagement with (or about) those with whom I disagree failed to recognize their dignity as persons created in the image of God?
 - In conversations: When was I so focused on winning an argument that I failed to genuinely listen? When was my choice of words uncharitable? When did I paint others in disrespectful ways or engage in personal attacks?
 - In my day-to-day perceptions and attitudes: When have I made assumptions about or failed to give the benefit of the doubt to those with whom I disagree? When have I presumed others' intentions or experiences before even hearing their stories or experiences? When have I valued my political affiliation or party more than my identity as a disciple of Christ who is called to model love and mercy, even in civil discourse?
5. How is Christ calling me to strive to recognize the human dignity of someone with whom I disagree—even passionately?

The full examination as well as complementary prayer resources can be found here: <https://www.usccb.org/resources/examination-conscience-loving-our-neighbors-public-square>

WORSHIP

WORSHIP is the beginning and end of all things for a Catholic—our Catholic life begins in baptism. It is the source and summit of Catholic life, including that of a parish. We receive from God, and we make offering to God, with our joint participation with Christ in the ultimate offering to God the Father in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. For many, this is all that there is to Catholic life—go to Mass—but it is merely the beginning. By our WORSHIP and by our baptism, we BELONG to the Body of Christ, are called to GROW, to GIVE back, and GO forth in authentic discipleship. Of course, all of this leads back to WORSHIP.

PARISH LIFE

Our parish is on a journey to know, love, and serve Christ as a parish community. Together we must embrace Christ's vision for missionary discipleship so our parish can thrive and be a place for others to grow together in faith.

The first step in helping the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart assess our greatest strengths and opportunities is to complete the Disciple Maker

Index (DMI) survey today! Share your perspective now to help strengthen our parish and better prepare us for the future – as we seek to grow in missionary discipleship!

By the grace of baptism, we BELONG to the Body of Christ, the Church. We are adopted sons and daughters of God who are built up as a family through the Body and Blood of Christ. This is true in a mystical sense and also in a very human, institutional sense as we belong to the Church and to our parish family.

The more we grow in our Catholic faith, the more we realize how blessed we are and how in turn we are called to GIVE. We come to realize that all that we are and all that we have is a gift from God. We are called to give back to God and our neighbor in practical charity and true stewardship of time, talent, and treasure.

WWW.SACREDHEARTHOUSTON.ORG

PARISH LIFE

Incorporated into the Life of Christ and His Church by the grace of baptism and the sacraments, we are called to GROW in virtue, prayer, and knowledge. God continues to sow the seed and asks us to nurture what has been sown so that we can grow into Christian maturity and bear fruit more abundantly.

GROW

GO

The authentic Catholic life leads us not to membership and disjointed action, but to discipleship and to mission. The act of divine worship ends with the dismissal to GO forth. We are sent, as another dismissal formulary says, to go and glorify the Lord with the entirety of our lives and to make disciples of others.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Un mensaje del Diacono Galvan

REFLEXION: ¿Por qué nos lastimamos tan cruelmente unos a otros si todos estamos necesitados de cariño, afecto y estima? Cuando una persona solo piensa en disfrutar egoístamente la amistad y el amor, no consigue nada y se malogra todo. El amor, por naturaleza, si no esta abierto a los demás terminara por convertirse en egoísmo, y esto lo destruye todo. Los esposos, si por comodidad o intereses mezquinos no se abren a la vida, terminan fastidiados y aburriéndose de su propio egoísmo. En cambio, si se abren a la vida, cada hijo que Dios les da se convierte en fuente de alegría y motivo suficiente para luchar por sacarlo adelante. La reciprocidad en el amor es algo de lo más hermoso en este mundo.

- ¿Cuál es tu concepto y experiencia sobre el amor?
- ¿Qué podemos hacer para que el amor reine en nuestro mundo?

Altar a los Fieles Difuntos

Una tradición de oración y recuerdo por las almas de nuestros queridos difuntos.

Viernes, 30 de Octubre

Miércoles, 25 de Noviembre

¿Por qué celebran los católicos el Día de Todos los Fieles Difuntos?

La Iglesia se compone de los fieles que viven en la tierra y de los que nos han precedido. Estos últimos incluyen a los Santos en el Cielo y a las Almas fieles que se purifican en el Purgatorio. Así como el 1 de noviembre honramos a los que están con Dios, el 2 de noviembre los católicos celebramos la Commemoración de Todos los Fieles Difuntos. En este día les honramos por su fidelidad en vida, así como rezamos por ellos, ya que están siendo purificados antes de entrar en la Santísima Presencia de Dios. Como dice Apocalipsis 21:27 de la Jerusalén Celestial, «... nada impuro entrará».

La devoción a la memoria de los difuntos es una de las expresiones más bellas del espíritu católico. Papa Juan XXIII

Nuestra parroquia está emprendiendo un camino para conocer, amar y servir a Cristo como comunidad parroquial. Juntos debemos hacer nuestra la visión de Cristo sobre el discipulado misionero para que nuestra parroquia pueda prosperar y ser un lugar donde los demás puedan crecer juntos en la fe.

¡El primer paso para ayudar a la Co-Catedral del Sagrado Corazón a evaluar nuestras mayores fortalezas y oportunidades es completar hoy mismo la encuesta del Índice de Formadores de Discípulos (DMI)! BÀN THỜ CẦU NGUYỆN CHO CÁC LINH HỒN

Truyền thống cầu nguyện và tưởng nhớ những người thân yêu đã qua đời.

Thứ Sáu, 30 tháng 10 - Thứ Tư, 25 tháng 11

Vì sao người Công Giáo cử hành Lễ Các Đẳng Linh Hồn?

Giáo Hội gồm những tín hữu đang sống trên trần gian và những người đã ra đi trước chúng ta, bao gồm các Thánh trên Thiên Đàng và các linh hồn đang được thanh luyện nơi Luyện Ngục. Cũng như ngày 1 tháng 11, chúng ta kính nhớ các Thánh đang hưởng vinh quang với Thiên Chúa; ngày 2 tháng 11, người Công Giáo cử hành Lễ Cầu Cho Các Tín Hữu Đã Qua Đời. Ngày này còn được gọi là Lễ Các Đẳng Linh Hồn, là dịp chúng ta tưởng nhớ những người đã trung thành trong đời sống và cầu nguyện cho họ, khi họ đang được thanh luyện trước khi bước vào sự hiện diện thánh thiện của Thiên Chúa. Khải Huyền 21:27 nói về Giê-ru-sa-lem trên trời: "... không gì ô uế được vào đó."

Việc tưởng nhớ những người đã qua đời là một trong những cử chỉ đẹp nhất của tình thân Công giáo. - Đức Giáo Hoàng Gioan XXIII

"Người phải yêu mến Đức Chúa, Thiên Chúa của người, hết lòng, hết linh hồn và hết trí khôn người." (Mt 22,34-40)

Suy niệm: Yêu mến một Thiên Chúa duy nhất hết lòng hết dạ, hết sức lực, là lời kinh rất quen thuộc người Do Thái vẫn đọc sáng tối hằng ngày. Lời kinh này được dân Chúa lặp lại mỗi ngày không chỉ để cầu nguyện, hay chỉ để nhắc nhở nhau phải ghi tạc vào lòng, thực thi giới răn Thiên Chúa, nhưng còn giúp định hướng ngày sống, toàn bộ đời mình vào Thiên Chúa. Chỉ có một Thiên Chúa duy nhất, là Đấng con người phải đặt để trên tất cả mọi sự, và lòng yêu mến Thiên Chúa ấy sẽ giúp người ta nhận ra việc phải làm để sống đẹp lòng Ngài. Nói khác đi, khi yêu mến Thiên Chúa trên tất cả mọi sự thì con người sẽ lắng nghe, thi hành mọi điều Thiên Chúa truyền dạy để tôn vinh Ngài.

Sống Lời Chúa: Mỗi ngày bạn làm ít nhất một việc bác ái cho người thân cận để tỏ lòng yêu mến Chúa, chứ không vì một động lực nào khác.

Cầu nguyện: Lạy Chúa, cảm tạ Chúa đã yêu thương chúng con đến cùng. Xin giúp chúng con ngày càng cảm nghiệm sâu hơn về tình yêu ấy. Nhờ đó, chúng con nỗ lực gắn kết với Chúa mỗi ngày, biết sống yêu thương, quảng đại với mọi người để làm vinh danh Chúa. Amen.
