Reconciliation: Jesus is Waiting for You

Dear friends in Christ,

For many of us Catholics, both those brought up in the Church since childhood and those formerly of Protestant or non-Christian faiths, the Sacrament of Reconciliation can seem a bit frightening. Perhaps it has been a long time since we have made a confession. Perhaps we struggle with disbelief, with despair, with human weakness, with addictions, or with lingering resentment or grief. And yet, how wonderful it would be to be freed from these chains!

What does sin do to the sinner? Sin is a choice, the result of which is the experience of alienation from God, our neighbor, creation, or ourselves. In Scripture, this experience is often described in terms of living as if dead (the ultimate alienation). Now for the ancient Hebrews, the worst thing about death is that the dead cannot praise God. Thus, the Miserere, the great Psalm of Repentance, proclaims, "Restore me from death, God, my saving God, that my tongue may praise your healing power. Lord, open my lips; my mouth will proclaim your praise" (Ps 51:16-17). Thus, when we sin, we wound or even destroy our life's purpose: namely, making our lives a song of love and praise to the One who IS Love. And yet when God, in his mercy, heals and rescues us from our sins, the gift of praise is restored.

Do you remember the story of John the Baptist's father, Zechariah? He doubted God's Word (sent through the angel) that his wife, Elizabeth, would bear a son in their old age; because of his sin, he became mute. But when God forgave Zechariah after he acknowledged his sin through a corresponding act of faith, "immediately, his mouth was opened, his tongue freed, and he spoke blessing to God" (Lk 1:64). Again, the gift of praise was restored.

What, then, is the heart of confession? Yes, without a doubt, there is the confession of sins, after which one receives pardon, absolution, and a penance of healing. But there is something deeper, something much more profound. What brings me to confession, to what the Fathers of the Church called "second Baptism?" It should be the same thing that brought me to my first Baptism: faith. When I approach a priest for the healing sacrament, I confess - really, I profess - my faith, my trust in the God who forgives and heals me, the God of eternal mercy and love.

Finally, what results from a good confession, that is, a confession of sins following a genuine confession of faith and trust? None other than the confession (or profession) of praise. God, as it were, brings us back to life—heals our hearts, wounded in their ability to "speak," to express love—so that we might be free to glorify him anew. Thus, what begins as a frightening experience for many ends in joy—the gift of praise restored. "At the name of Jesus every knee should bend ... and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father" (Phil 2:10-11). "The glory of God is a human being fully alive" (St. Irenaeus).

So, if you come regularly to confession, know that Our Lord and I are grateful - please continue with this practice. If you haven't been to the sacrament in a while, please come back. Invite others to come as well - after all, this is the time for a New Evangelization, for proclaiming Glad Tidings anew. Jesus tells us, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest" (Mt 11:28). Isn't his message the very essence of the Good News? Friends, please hear Jesus' call, and come to have your burdens lifted in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Come, be healed and restored. Jesus, our most merciful, loving, forgiving God will be waiting.

St. Joseph, Pray for Us

We see that at the beginning of the New Testament, as at the beginning of the Old, there is a married couple. But whereas Adam and Eve were the source of evil which was unleashed on the world, Joseph and Mary are the summit from which holiness spreads all over the earth. The Savior began the work of salvation by this virginal and holy union. - St. Pope Paul VI

Saint Joseph will help you get to the wedding feast of heaven.

Since we know that St. Joseph loves us and so we love and honor him in return, we can trust that he will help us get to heaven. The greatest thing any father can do for his children is help them get to heaven. Our first father (Adam) ruined this possibility for all his children. Our first father's disobedience caused the downfall of all creation and kept us from entering heaven. Saint Joseph's fatherhood, on the other hand, elevates us and helps us to enter heaven. He loves us, helps us become saints, and brings us to the only path that leads to heaven: Jesus.

Lukas Storyteller: Saint Joseph and the Virtue of Obedience

For Adults

A Bible Study on the Annunciation

Dr. Ben Akers leads us through a brief reflection on the scene of the Annunciation in Luke 1:26-38. He engages the scripture verses line by line highlighting some of the key Old Testament passages evoked by the angel Gabriel's words. The reflection concludes with some thoughts on how we can imitate Mary's "yes" to the Lord in our own life, especially in this time of suffering.
