Pastor's Message

Take Nothing Except Your Faith

1st Reading: Isaiah 66" 10-14c | 2nd Reading: Galatians 6:14-18 | Gospel: Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

So what comes to mind when you imagine your dream road trip? A well-planned route with scenic stops, nice hotels, good restaurants and quirky sights along the way? Jesus may be my copilot, but given his words in today's Gospel I, 'm not sure I'd want him to be my travel agent! As he sends the 72 ahead of him, he gives them no illusions about the mission that lies ahead: "Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals." Settle for the first house that welcomes you, regardless of the amenities. Eat and drink whatever they offer. Give those you encounter a greeting of peace and remind them the kingdom of God is at hand. As always, Jesus gives these travelers all they will need to share the Good News with others. They return rejoicing! The early disciples refute my "travel agent" doubts, as they show us by example to place our trust in God and take nothing for the journey except our faith and the guidance of the Holy Spirit. In doing so, we can rest assured that our "names are written in heaven."

I'm a planner. So had I been one of the 72 we read about today appointed by Jesus to spread the Gospel in pairs, hopefully my companion would not have abandoned me because of my insistence on planning. Ultimately, our journey of faith – as we share it with others and walk toward the kingdom ourselves – is not something we can choreograph. The more we plan and the more baggage we carry, the less likely we are to hear God's voice cutting through the noise. By stripping away the nonessentials, we can place our trust in the Lord, who will show us the right path. When we place our lives in the service of the Lord, the harvest will be abundant.

Many U.S. dioceses will be welcoming newly ordained priests this month. Pray for them as they begin their ministry, and pray for more vocations.

Celebrate the Life. Cherish the Memories.

Children Questions for God

Ep. 7 - God, Who Did Jesus Save Us?

Episode 7 • 1m 49s

Jesus assembled his disciples and worked many mysteries. After Jesus is crucified and resurrected, He opens the Gates of Heaven. The souls of the faithful are taken to Heaven.

Salvation history continues through the flood and Abraham's selection as the father of the Chosen People. God created the angels and some chose disobedience and are driven from Heaven. St. Michael's role as protector and the Guardian Angels are introduced. "Spend quality quiet time together with your young children. In a day, we have 1440 minutes available: we can find 10-15 minutes for our child — it is called time management. Outstanding athletes have one thing in common they must do: repetition, repetition, repetition. God bless you and your family that our Lord will give you the desire to invest the quality time each day with your firstborn child and all the others to follow."

"Questions for God communicates satisfying and complete answers to the amazing questions of children regarding the Faith. The format is family-friendly and teacher-friendly. It connects with children's natural curiosity, beautifully feeds their imagination, and fills their hearts." --Gladys Davis, PrincipalRidge, IL
