Highlights this week

- Archdiocesan Pastoral on Thursday & Friday Nov. 17th & 18th: Every three years, the Archbishop, Priests and Pastoral Councils of all the parishes in the Archdiocese gather together for a Pastoral Assembly to discuss and set the pastoral and spiritual priority of the Archdiocese for the next three years. Fr. Anthony and two members of our Pastoral Council from Holy Trinity and St. John's will attend the Pastoral Assembly this week at Queen of Peace Church in Salem. Please pray that the Holy Spirit will guide all of us at this gathering.
- No Masses on Thursday and Friday due to the Pastoral Assembly.
- Rome/Holyland Pilgrimage If you are considering going on the pilgrimage to Rome and Holyland, registration has started and space is limited. You don't want to miss this great opportunity to walk in the footsteps of Christ. Sign up now at www.holylandtoursllc.com.
- November calendar is out. Please make sure to get a copy in the back of the church for all of the important experiences and events for this month.
- The online donation page has been updated and is available. Please donate and support our parish.

Persevere to the End

1st Reading: Malachi 3:19-20 | 2nd Reading: 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12 | Gospel: Luke 21:5-19

In today's Gospel, Jesus describes events leading up to the end times: wars, earthquakes, famines, plagues, persecution, and even death. It's no wonder some Christians believe the Second Coming could be any day now. After all, our world has seen more than its share of these signs.

However, as Jesus tells the disciples, we don't know when the end times will come. We do know, however, that Jesus remains at our side through the thick and thin of these "in between times." Just as Jesus tells the disciples he will give them "wisdom in speaking" to refute their enemies, he will give us the strength we need to persevere in faith. As St. Paul reminds us, we can do that by imitating the early Christians, working quietly to build up the kingdom of God each day.

When facing a difficult decision or situation, it can be easy to fall into the trap of "catastrophizing" – that is, thinking of our biggest fear coming true, or of the worst that can happen. Today's readings include a laundry list: a blazing fire, toil and drudgery, wars and insurrections, earthquakes, famines, persecution, and death. Yet Jesus tells the disciples, "not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives." Rather than focus on our fears – not only about the end times but in our day-to-day lives – Jesus challenges us to trust in God's love for us. It doesn't mean we should resign ourselves to the difficulties we or others face. However, by placing faith over fear we can seek to help others here on earth, confident that Jesus will lead us home when our time comes.

Many people today suffer due to natural disasters, authoritarian leadership, and human violence. Pray for these victims, of course, but also – in your creativity – seek out ways to use your time, talent, and/or treasure to alleviate their situation if possible.

ST. ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY

NOVEMBER 16

St. Elizabeth, Queen of Hungary, was only twenty-four when she died. But what a beautiful life she had led!

Her father was a king. Her aunt was St. Hedwig. When Elizabeth was very young, she married Louis, a young nobleman, who soon became king. She was sweet to her husband and loved her children.

In the midst of this wealth and prestige of royalty, Elizabeth knew that queens must be very good to the poor and sick. So she took care of them in the palace. She nursed them in the hospitals. Her husband grew concerned. "That's no work for a queen," he said.

One day she went to visit the poor. Her cloak was full of provisions. Her husband met her. "Are you carrying food like a servant?" he demanded. He pulled open her cloak. Out fell, not food, but lovely red and white roses. Her husband asked her forgiveness. He knew she was a saint!

Her husband died when she was still very young. The next king treated her very badly and threw her out of her palace. But, she trusted God, and God took her swiftly to His palace in Heaven.

Elizabeth is the patron saint of bakers, nursing homes, brides, and beggars. Her Feast is celebrated on November 17.

Our Parish Bulletin

We have contracted with LPI, a Catholic media company to produce our weekly bulletin in color at no cost to the parish.

Today's changes in the religious landscape mean adaptability and collaboration for the average parish. But a unified mission delivered with expertise and enthusiasm can help relieve the tensions and fears of parishioners, and engaging more people for Christ.

Church bulletin advertising is a cost effective way to advertise 52 times per year and show support for our local parish community; in turn, parishioners will support you. It is a great way for many businesses to be seen by all the parishioners every week in both a print and digital bulletin.

A representative of LPI will be contacting local businesses, offering them the opportunity to support Holy Trinity -St. John the Baptist Catholic Church weekly bulletin by purchasing a business sponsorship ad!

AVAILABLE NOW! PRINT & DIGITAL AD SPACES

Build your business and help us grow a vibrant faith community!

Shannon Miller from LPI, our bulletin publisher will be securing new ads for our church. As a valuable member of the business community please consider purchasing a print and/or digital ad as your participation makes our bulletin possible each week.

The Catholic Faith Journey

Are you considering becoming Catholic?

Are you a Catholic interested in being confirmed?

Are you a confirmed Catholic who's ready to explore your faith anew?

Join Us for RCIA

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

This year we will embark on an exploration of faith in God. Knowing the faith and living the faith is what the Catholic life ought to be. RCIA is a process where some people are deciding if they are called into the Catholic Church; others have been Catholic all their lives and are now interested in discovering what this really means. Together we witness to the fact that our search for God is a lifelong journey, a journey on which we make the most progress when we walk it with others and with intention.

Being an RCIA sponsor is a very wonderful gift. It not only offers the privilege of sharing the faith journey of the one sponsored, it opens wider the door to deeper love of the Church, her teachings & Sacraments; it is a great responsibility as well as an opportunity to lifelong friendship. - RCIA Sponsor

Through RCIA I have come to understand and be face-to-face with Christ through Eucharistic Adoration. I can feel Him staring back into my eyes and into my heart. It is an experience and a feeling like no other, where I lose track of time and of the world around me. I am simply too busy adoring Him, speaking with Him,

Envelopes may be dropped into the collection basket at Mass, or they may be brought or mailed to the parish office.

Chapel and Prayer Activities:

- The Rosary continues on Mondays at 1:30 pm in the chapel. This is also an important and sacred prayer practice within our Catholic faith. Our Blessed Mother is a powerful as intercessor and compassionate Mother.
- Eucharistic Adoration: Hours for Adoration are Thursday- 12:30-7:00 pm and Friday 9:30-11:30 am. We need to fill each hour. If you feel called to sit before the Blessed Sacrament in adoration and prayer, please fill in one of the hours. Commit to an hour each week. We need all the prayer warriors we can get. Our chapel is available for prayer each day of the week outside of the set Adoration Hours. If you wish to have the code, please call the parish office during office hours (Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays 9:00am—3:30 pm).

Episode 3 features an action packed, back-in-time adventure as the characters use their time travelling Bible to go back and collect relics from the life of Christ. It's an uber-faith-based episode packed with biblical imagery, Catholic theology, adventure and intrigue as the characters get closer and closer to Captain Barnacle's island in their efforts to stop his evil plan for utter darkness upon the entire world!

A highlight of this episode is the two faith filled songs, one about the priesthood and the other, a touching song acting as the background for a picturesque montage of Christ's life. Run time: 24 min.

Adults:Symbolon Episode 7:

Why Do I Need the Church? The Mystery of the Catholic Church • 45m

Though Jesus saves us as individuals, he calls us to live out our salvation as members of a communion of believers. But that can be hard if we don't understand what the Church is and what it is meant to be. Why does the Church claim to have authority over what Catholics believe? How do we reconcile both the divinity and humanity of the Church that Christ himself created? Why is the Church essential to the life of every believer?
