

From the Pastor’s Desk:

“Jesus took Peter, James and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And He was transfigured before them, and His clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them.”

-St. Mark

This Saturday, in the presence of Bishop John LeVoir, 22 students will receive the 7-fold gifts of the Holy Spirit and be “sealed with the Holy Spirit.” NO doubt we extend our congratulations to our youngest adult members of the Church, but also their parents for their pushing and encouragement through all these years of formation, regardless if their children are attending religious education classes or our area Catholic school.

I would be remiss if I did not also express a word of thanks to our catechists who have taught these young people over the years and especially in these past months for this important sacrament. Having taught Confirmation classes over the past 25 years as a priest, from classes as big as 47 and as small as 12, it is a tremendous amount of work and spiritual responsibility. As I write this, I have taught a couple of the Confirmation classes this year. I have been told that this class of juniors is a special class. While every class comes with their own talents and gifts, there is something very “likable” about this class, that gives me the feeling that the Holy Spirit already dwells with them. Yet, however good we might be, there are many distractions and temptations out in this big world of ours. It is easy to drift away from the sacraments and the practice of the faith, even with the best of intentions.

I recently came across a statistic that 79% of those who do leave the Catholic faith do so by the age of 23 years of age. This statistic proves the point that these teenage years and early years of adulthood are so critical for faith development. Even after the age of 18, my parents were not afraid to talk about the faith and the importance of receiving the sacraments with their children. Parents, never get into that casual approach of the Catholic faith when you hear it said: “Well, once they are 18, I cut the apron strings. They are now adults. They have to make their own decisions.” I suspect that if our young adult children were doing something illegal or violent, we would still talk to them for the sake of good health and happiness. As much as we want our children to be both healthy and happy, would we not also want our children to be “holy” as well?

This weekend we hear again the gospel of the Transfiguration. It is a mysterious gospel but also a very practical gospel. The road ahead for Christ and the other young people that followed Him was going to be rough....even deadly. The Lord knew that He needed to give to some of His followers a “spiritual boost” in order that they could make it through the tough road ahead. So, the Lord is transfigured in a brief moment where His clothes become dazzling white and He is in conversation with some of the great spiritual leaders of old.

Confirmation is also a moment of “spiritual transfiguration”. It is a brief sacramental moment in which the seven-gifts of the Holy Spirit descend upon our young people, so that they will see Confirmation as a beginning and not an ending, a true confirmation in the faith and not a graduation from the faith. Through the grace of this great sacrament, may it aid our young people in the valley of life with all of its challenges.

May Confirmation be a transformative moment, not only for our young people, but all of us who gather for this Mass and really every Mass we attend. May the sacraments, lead us by the Holy Spirit to a greater holiness and ultimately, everlasting life. Congratulations Confirmandi!

STEWARDSHIP

Thank you for another fine collection. I know, we were just slightly under our budgeted goal, but it is still excellent stewardship. If you can see it in your heart to give an offering for our Fuel Fund, that would be great. We have had this cold snap of weather and we have been receiving some heavy fuel bills. Next week, I will give you an update and also an appeal to cover our fuel expenses on a winter that will still be with us for a few more weeks. You are doing a great job in stewardship. Thank you for your gifts!!!

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST:

On Sunday March 1st and again on Sunday March 8th, at 6:30 P.M. we will meet in the church with all of our Extraordinary Ministers of the Holy Eucharist. Eucharistic ministers are required to attend one of these two sessions. We will be training new ministers as well as re-training those who have served at the all, as there will be some changes in keeping with church directives. The meeting will last about an hour and a half. Refreshments will be served after the meeting. We will resume the schedule of Holy Communion under both forms beginning on the weekend of March 14th and the 15th. Thank you for your generous response to these meetings.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

“Human rights are not only violated by terrorism, repression or assassination, but also by unfair economic structures that creates huge inequalities.”

- Pope Francis

LENT IS A TIME FOR PRAYER

The three-fold mission of Lent is to intensify our prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Perhaps we could intensify our “prayers” by attending Mass not only on the weekend but also during the week when Masses are offered in our parishes as well as in the greater Mankato area. I also encourage you to attend the Stations of the Cross this week on Friday at 5:30 P.M. Maybe as you are coming home from work or perhaps before you eat supper, you can come and pray for about a half hour and recall the Lord’s redemptive journey on the road to Calvary!

EASTER CANDLE - THANK YOU

We are grateful to an anonymous benefactor for donating the new Easter candle that will be used during the Easter season. Thank you to the others who had expressed interest in donating the candle as well. You are all so generous as parishioners. I will keep you posted if there are any other sacramental needs for our parish in the weeks and months ahead. God bless you!

EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT – FIRST FRIDAY

In consultation with the Holy Rosary Worship Committee, we are beginning this Friday, March 6th, following the morning Mass, the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on the main altar of the church until 3:00 P.M. The practice of adoring the Lord in the Holy Eucharist through the monstrance is a long-standing devotion of the Church that has received renewed spiritual support of the faithful in recent years.

We are in need of people to take care that while the Blessed Sacrament is exposed, there is at least one person in attendance in the Church in prayer. Sign-up sheets will be at the entrances of the church. A member of the Worship Committee will also be calling to make sure that as we begin this devotion, all seven hours are covered. If the response is strong, we will expose the sacrament longer on First Fridays. We may suspend exposition only through the summer months when so many people are away if we cannot find enough people to cover the hours. At this point we will wait and see.

Coming to spend time before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament is a “perfect” spiritual devotion to take on in this time of Lent when we are called to intensify our life of prayer. “We adore you oh Christ and we praise you, for by your Holy Cross, you have redeemed the world!”

Transfiguration in children

- If a child lives with criticism, the child learns to condemn.
- If a child lives with hostility, the child learns to fight.
- If a child lives with ridicule, the child learns to be shy.
- If a child lives with shame, the child learns to feel guilty.
- And:
- If a child lives with tolerance, the child learns to be patient.
- If a child lives with encouragement, the child learns confidence.
- If a child lives with praise, the child learns to appreciate.
- If a child lives with fairness, the child learns justice.
- If a child lives with security, the child learns to have faith.
- If a child lives with approval, the child learns to like himself.

FROM THE MANKATO SERRA CLUB

Our Holy Father Pope Francis has recently announced the canonization of Blessed Junipero Serra upon his visit to the US in Sept 2015. The Mankato Serra Club established in 1955 to promote and affirm vocations has prayed to this special man as the patron of their organization.

When Father Junípero Serra founded California's first mission in 1769, he was 56 years old and asthmatic, with a chronic sore on his leg that troubled him for the rest of his life, and he suffered frequently from other illnesses, as well. He stood just 5 feet, 2 inches, and, as a journalist later wrote, "He certainly didn't look like the man who would one day be known as the Apostle of California." Yet he endured the hardships of the frontier and pressed forward with remarkable determination to fulfill his purpose: to convert the Native Americans of California to Christianity.

ACT OF CONTRITION

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended You and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell, but most of all because they offend you, my God, who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of your grace, to confess my sins, to do penance and to amend my life.
