“Jesus stepped forward and touched the coffin; at this the bearers halted, and He said, ‘Young man, I tell you, arise!’ The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all, and they glorified God exclaiming, ‘A great prophet has arisen in our midst,’ and ‘God has visited his people.’”

-St. Luke

Our great string of feasts has been silenced for a while. So, on this first weekend of June, we return to the season of Ordinary Time, and particularly the 10th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Yet, while our feasts are finished and the liturgical life has returned to the “ordinary”, we hear again this weekend from St. Luke an “extraordinary” miracle about an “ordinary” soul being raised by an “extraordinary” and sacred miracle, from being dead and being brought back to life.

The motivation of Christ’s ability to bring this man from death to life is perhaps less motivated by a divine “miracle” that reveals that Jesus is the anointed One of God. Rather, Christ’s motivation might be driven more by “mercy”. There is little doubt that St. Luke is once again trying to convince us of the Good News that Jesus is the Christ by His power over life and death. St. Luke is a master storyteller and is also telling us, through the details of the story, that “MERCY is the MOTIVATOR” for Christ to bring to life this particular soul.

St. Luke also tells us, very quickly, some very important facts in very few words. Fact 1: “Jesus journeyed to a city called Nain.” Nain was a town in southwestern Galilee that still exists today whose name literally means “delightful”. St. Luke is telling us that in this “delightful” town something “divinely delightful” is about to take place. Fact 2: “...a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother...” St. Luke is telling us that the humanity of Christ clearly comes out as he can identify with this family situation. For Jesus was also the only son of the Blessed Mother who became a widow. In our human condition we tend to identify and try to help people who are in a similar situation as ourselves. Fact 3: “...and she was a widow.” St. Luke is not only explaining a “faith” situation, but also a “financial” situation, not only a “spiritual” situation, but also a “stewardship” situation. For the evangelist is telling us that this woman may be alive physically, but was dead spiritually. For, with no husband and no adult son to provide for her, she would be forced to the streets and poverty with no means of financial support. Fact 4: “When the Lord saw her, He was moved with pity for her and said to her, “Do not weep.” Believe it or not, the story is less about the one who has died and more about this widow. Recall the words of the Lord when He states elsewhere in the scriptures that He is the God of the living and not of the dead. Christ’s purpose in performing this “delightfully divine” miracle in this town of Nain (that means delightful) is to remind everyone who is alive that God does not just care for us after we are dead and gone, but also when we are ALIVE and HERE ON THE EARTH!

I believe that, as Christians and as Catholics, we do a very good job when it comes to funerals and funeral liturgies from the Mass, to the music, to the meditation after communion, to the meal, to the memorial marker at the cemetery. In short, we are good at dealing with death both positively when it comes to such things as coming to a funeral, but also to the negative side of culture, when St. John Paul II, spoke about the “culture of death”. Yet, in the case of funerals, after they have concluded, so often we lack in the Church the pastoral tools or perhaps the passion to reach out to the LIVING who are struggling in the shadows of a loved one’s death. It is true that we cannot perform a “miracle” like Jesus does in today’s gospel and bring the dead back to life. But, like Jesus, we can perform simple acts of “mercy” by something as simple as asking how the person is doing after the death, doing a little act of mercy like sending a card or making a call, or maybe, unknown to the grieving, calling that person to mind in our prayers.

Let us not stop doing that wonderful “corporal work of mercy” of burying the dead with dignity and love. But let us also continue to reach out to the widow and the widower, the young child that has lost a parent, the parent who has lost a young child, the single person that has lost a close friend. May we all exercise our baptismal power as a “priestly people” of extending our mercy to the living so that one day we might all share in the risen life with the One who raised the widow of Nain’s son back to life and brought that widow great joy already in this life. Enjoy these “life-giving” days at the start of summer 2016! God bless the faithful of Holy Rosary.

Rev. Paul van de Crommert, Pastor

Stewardship

We had another good week of stewardship this week in spite of the Memorial weekend and holiday. Our parish's ability to break budget at the start of summer is slightly miraculous. Thank you for your gifts. As I mentioned last weekend at the Sunday Masses, I thought that our attendance would be slim as a result of the holiday. On Friday night as I went for a late evening walk, I noticed (through the windows) that most of the downtown establishments in North Mankato were pretty deserted. I was fearful that the same case would be in church on Sunday morning. Yet the Mass attendance was still pretty strong. Holy Rosary parishioners are not only good stewards of their "gifts", but also in "going" to church. Thank you for your great generosity through your time, talent and treasure. (**Please note that our fiscal year ends at the close of June.*) Thank you!

The Holy Water Ran Out!

The use of Holy Water is a wonderful devotional to bring into the home and a wonderful act of faith. When we returned to the practice of distributing water for "Rogation Days" in the spring around the time of the Ascension, Worship Committee leadership thought that 200 containers would be sufficient. Well, we went through 200 after only about 2 Masses and ran out the next weekend when we set out another 100 Holy Water containers. Next weekend we will again return to having the main holy water container in the back of church as was done in years past, along with containers of Holy Water. (**We thank Tom and Mary Clare Wyrowski for restoring and cleaning our old container to look again like new.*) Feel free to pick up Holy Water to take to your home at that time. There is no offering required. Thank you for your faithfulness and devotion.

The Month of June

Most of us know that the month of May is dedicated to the Blessed Mother. Did you know that the month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus? Did you know that the month of July is dedicated to Christ's Precious Blood. Actually, every month of the year is dedicated to a specific area of the Catholic faith. (**I hope all the parishioners of Holy Rosary know that the month of October is dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary! Right?*)* You may have noticed that the environment has changed in our sanctuary from the Blessed Mother to the Sacred Heart. We are still anticipating the arrival of our St. Francis statue from Italy. We hope to display that statue of St. Francis at the start of the month of July! Happy June!

Rescheduling – Final Communal Anointing

We had previously scheduled the third Communal Anointing service to be held at Pathstone Assisted Living and Nursing Care Facility for Thursday, June 9th, at 10:15 am. However, there is a need to re-schedule this final Communal Anointing session to Thursday, June 23rd, at 10:15 am at Pathstone. Please make note of this on your calendars who have not had an opportunity to receive this sacrament in either of the first two sessions this past spring.

Save the Dates!

Mass in the Park/Fall Festival

Over the years, and in every parish that I have served, the faithful will inevitably say; "Oh, we would have loved to come to this parish event or that parish event, but we had already scheduled something else at that time!" WELL...to avoid this scheduling dilemma, I would like to invite all of you that have heavy social calendars to book two dates now, months in advance, for the sake of your parish Holy Rosary.

Our Mass in the Park has been scheduled for SEPTEMBER 18TH AT 10:00 AM. (*As always, there will still be the 5:00 pm Mass on Saturday evening, but there will not be an 8:00 am Mass.) Please pray for sunshine and no wind!!!

Our annual November Fest has been scheduled for Sunday, NOVEMBER 13th. We will again have a Folk Mass like last year, that was so well attended. We will still celebrate the 5:00 pm and 8:00 am Masses as well. (Yes, we know that the Vikings are playing. We will have a large screen and refreshments for those die-hard-fans!) Pray that we also have favorable weather! We do not want either ice or snow!

PLEASE MARK YOUR CALENDARS TODAY SO THAT NOTHING TAKES PRECEDENCE OVER YOUR PARISH FAMILY GATHERINGS!

Recycle, Reorganize, Redo Sale is History

Thank you to all who donated items for the sale - we couldn't have done it without you. Thank you to all the wonderful and energetic movers, set-up, and take down crews. Thank you to all who helped with the actual sale. Thank you to VINE Faith in Action for picking up the remains of the household items. Thank you to Weber's Custom Catering for the coffee cart. Last, but certainly not least, thank you to all who patronized the sale - the CCW gained about $800.00 to be used for the cleaning and painting of the church kitchen.

Church of St. Paul's Festival

Church of St. Paul, Nicollet, will be hosting their Parish Festival on Sunday, June 12th. Mass is at 10:00 am. Staff members and teachers participated in retreat days on May 31, June 1 and 2. Our agenda included prayer, reflection on our year, visioning and setting goals for the coming year, training in technology, writing Essential Learning Outcomes, setting up task forces for summer discussions, a preview of the work we'll do during our August retreat days, and celebration of staff members' years of service to Loyola.

Teachers Val Koch, Chris Biehn, Trisha Sizer, Sue Goebel, and Janelle Campeau will participate in diocesan Science curriculum writing days June 20-22. Did you know? Schools in the Winona Diocese cooperate with the University of Notre Dame's ACE (Alliance for Catholic Education) program, which provides three-year cycles of training in writing and evaluating curriculum. (We are in our third year of working on Math, and in our second year of working on Social Studies.) The first task is always to look at the MN state standards and increase the rigor in every learning objective.

Summer cleaning and remodeling projects are underway. Among our summer projects are creating a new main entry way, a third Preschool classroom, a Tech Cafe for online learning, and a common staff workroom.

Has your family ever thought about hosting an exchange student? The miles, language, and cultural differences sometimes make us feel worlds apart from each other, but when you welcome an international high school exchange student into your home, you quickly discover they become family! Loyola is currently looking for two families to host two international students from Spain. If you are interested, or would like more information, please contact Loyola, 507-388-0600.

Save the Date! LoyolaPalooza is coming! August 20, 5-11pm on the Hill! Live music, beer trucks and wine, food vendors, raffles and fun! Featuring Neon-Live, The Plott Hounds and a final band still to be announced...

From the Mankato Serra Club

Most people are aware that Pope John Paul II credited Mary's intercession for sparing his life when four bullets from a would-be assassin struck him while he was blessing pilgrims in St. Peter's Square on May 13, 1981. A year to the day later, the pope placed one of those bullets in Mary's crown at the Shrine of Our Lady of Fátima in Portugal. This leaves little doubt as to the real, practical and powerful grace of Mary's maternity toward priests. The Mankato Serra Club works to affirm and promote religious vocations and meets on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of every month for more information call 507.696.8119.
