the Quill and the Cloth

Jesus said to them, "Amen I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you."
-St. Matthew

If we are faithful to the Mass and the Messiah's bride, Holy Mother Church, then we might have noticed that St. Matthew has been playing a major part in our spiritual lives these past months and maybe even days. In this liturgical cycle A, we are hearing nearly every week from the gospel of St. Matthew. Last Monday, we celebrated the great feast of St. Matthew. In today's Gospel from St. Matthew, the apostle has left a strong personal mark on this passage, as He presents the person of Christ as a person claiming that notorious sinners such as tax collectors, and even prostitutes, are entering heaven before those "perfect" people who are faithfully practicing their Jewish faith.

One of the themes that this tax collector named Matthew, who became a follower of Jesus and one of the four writers of the gospels of the New Testament, was in response to his own personal life, namely sinfulness. St. Matthew, like any great saint, knew he was also a sinner and in need of the Savior. Recall that St. Matthew had been a notorious sinner before becoming a follower of the Blessed Lord, by stealing from people through the extraction of taxes, as was the custom among tax collectors in biblical times. St. Matthew knew well that line from Psalm 51 of the Old Testament, "...My sin is always before me...against you, against you only I have sinned and done what is evil in your sight..." St. Matthew's belief that he was saved even though he had been a notorious tax collector and still believed he was sinful, would certainly prompt this apostle to pass on to us the line that Jesus gives in relationship to hope for those who felt hopeless when it came to heaven from the harlots to the hard-core collectors of taxes.

The generation that has gone before us and are now passing on through death, were well taught the Good News that Christ came into our world for sinners. I grew up in a post Vatican II Church that emphasized that Christ came into the world to love us, but the sinner part was largely dropped. I was told back in grade school that God loved each of us largely because it was the nature of God to be loving. It only stood to reason that during my lifetime, from confession, to going to church, to coming forward to do charity, lost some of its zing, because doing those things was just a loving response to God; but not necessarily that we were sinful people and were in need of repentance. So, we have reached a point in our Church's modern history that the practice of the faith is less about the avoidance of sin but more about accepting a style of life that is loving.

Having studied a fair amount of both Church and American history, historians claim that when either a president or a pope are coming to the end of their time in office, they become more and more concerned with their legacy. In other words, from presidents to popes, to even just people in the pew, there is that growing concern as we age as to what will our legacy be, what will we pass on to the next generation both physically and spiritually.

Today we hear a lot about global warming, as many people fear we are passing on to the next generation a planet that is riddled with many physical problems, including all of the recent fires out west, to the endless use of fossil fuels that are rapidly disappearing. Spiritually, as Catholics and Christians we should perhaps be even more concerned about a kind of God cooling. For as the years pass, the upcoming generation has dramatically cooled itself towards Christianity, Catholicism, coming to church, the clergy, contributing, etc. In the spirit of St. Matthew who wanted to pass on the catechetical point that we are all sinners and all in need of the Savior; what spiritual lesson do you want to pass on or are you trying to pass on to your children and grandchildren? Is it that no matter what you say or do in this life, heaven will be a sure-fired bet when you breathe your last? Or in the spirit of the great apostle St. Matthew and the Messiah, is it that we are all sinners, we are all in need of the cross of Christ and all in need of redemption? Maybe in this week ahead we might pass on a little Good News of this gospel message around the dinner table, our desk at work, or during the commercial breaks while watching television in the den. St. Matthew, patron of sinners, pray for us!

Saturday - Standard Time For the Sacrament of Reconciliation

During these past months, due to the pandemic, I have been celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation on a case-by-case basis. Parishioners have called seeking an appointment. I will be returning to a scheduled timeframe, offering the sacrament between the 3:00 P.M. and the 5:00 P.M. Masses at around 4:30 P.M. Please be seated on the St. Joseph side of the church toward the front by the music area. Please enter the cry room door by the staircase (not the sanctuary glass door). If the door is closed, that would mean there is a penitent in the room with Father at that time.

Grandma's Attic Donations Needed!

Donations are now being accepted for the Grandma's Attic sale during our fall festival on November 8th. Home furnishings, décor, Christmas decorations, and housewares are preferred. Please note - we are NOT accepting clothing or exercise equipment for this sale.

We would like to appeal to the home canners and crafters out there for homemade canned goods and crafts! This includes you, gentlemen! Woodworking and other handmade items would be most appreciated! Thank you!

Stewardship of Gratitude

We had an amazing liturgy and attendance last Sunday at the 10:00 A.M. Outdoor Mass. This week's collection is a reflection of this as well. Thank you for your stewardship. In the last two weekends since my return, we have taken in more than $25,000 in revenue, allowing the parish to pay forward an additional amount of $20,000.00 towards our Catholic School commitment. Although we are still behind in our outside commitments from last year by more than $25,000, I believe that we are making good progress in these stewardship areas as we are contending with Covid-19 at this time. As I write this on a Wednesday morning, the news today reported that they are making good advances on the vaccine. I have confidence that once the vaccine is distributed, the distribution of stewardship and participation in the life of faith of the local parish will be increased as well. As always, thank you for your gifts!

This week, we again took another big step forward in terms of stewardship for our parish goal for our area Catholic School of Loyola. This week we contributed another $20,000.00, bringing our total contributions for the year to $72,200.00. Believe it or not, it is still behind what we paid out last year at this time by $27,800.00. Of course, last year we had the added advantage that we were given at the start of that fiscal year a bequest of $50,000.00. In addition, this year we are being challenged with decreased attendance and stewardship due to Covid-19. But all in all, to be nearing $80,000.00 in contributions as we approach the closing days of September is certainly Good News. It is because of your generous stewardship that we are able to keep our broader stewardship commitments. And as always, thank you for your generous gifts!

Worship Committee - This Wednesday

We will be gathering this Wednesday, September 30th, the last day of September, at 7:00 P.M., for an overdue Worship Committee meeting. It has been many months since we have held our last Worship Committee meeting. Although both our liturgies and liturgical environment have been dramatically downsized, we do need to make some decisions in the shadows of this pandemic as we prepare for the holiday season. We will gather in the church social hall, with proper social distancing. You are asked to wear your masks at this meeting.

NovemberFest - November 8th, 2020!

The time is quickly passing, and in about a month we will be celebrating our 6th Annual November Festival. Our early response to our Raffle cash prizes, the items for our Silent Auction, as well as the items that continue to come in for Grandma's Attic, is making the stewardship event look very promising.

Dinner Ticket Sales:

Dinner Ticket sales for the Fall Dinner began last Sunday with our outdoor Mass in the Park(ing) area. We have had a good start, as we are approaching 50 tickets already sold. The take out-dinner (which you will be allowed to eat in the church social hall or on the grounds (weather permitting) will include Truffle Catering's broasted chicken (like we serve at the Vacation Raffle -- YUM!!!), cheesy potatoes, mixed vegetables, dinner roll and apple crisp for dessert. All of this for the price of just $10.00. Children under 12 will be just $5.00.

This year we will only be having advanced ticket sales. The final day of our ticket sales will be Friday, November 6th at 12:00 P.M. Just as you have had take-out from restaurants, so too consider this meal, which will be a BARGAIN, given the amount of food. Meals may be picked up at the church with drive-up/no contact delivery as well as local delivery in the greater Mankato area. (Tips for home delivery will be welcomed for the parish.)

Raffle Ticket:

We anticipate the Raffle Tickets to be arriving from the printer very soon. Last year, along with the various material prizes, the parish gave away a total of $4,455.00 in cash prizes. This year through your generosity the parish has taken in a total of $6,570, an increase of $2,115.00 from a year ago! Wow!! Last year, every household received 20 tickets at a dollar a piece. This year, it was recommended that we reduce the number of tickets for each household but increase the price of the ticket. This year, every household will receive just 5 tickets at $5.00 a piece. Now more than ever, we need the support of every household and you can help by sending in your tickets and donations as soon as you receive them through the mail.

PLEASE NOTE THAT DUE TO COVID-19, WE WILL NOT HAVE RAFFLE TICKETS AVAILABLE FOR PICK-UP BEFORE OR AFTER MASS AS WE HAVE HAD IN PAST YEARS. THIS YEAR, ALL OF THE TICKETS WILL BE MAILED OUT TO EVERY REGISTERED HOME. PLEASE WATCH YOUR MAIL. ADDITIONAL TICKETS WILL BE AVAILABLE IN THE PARISH OFFICES OR BEFORE OR AFTER THE WEEKEND MASSES.

Silent Auction:

We are off to a GREAT START for our online and in-person Silent Auction. As we go to press and are still 5 weeks out from the big day, we have already received some 60 quality items for the Silent Auction, with more coming in daily. The online bidding will be starting well in advance, in the later part of October. Our plans are to have all of the auction items available for review in the school gymnasium several days before November 8th. As in past years, the Silent Auction will close on Sunday afternoon.

Grandma's Attic:

Grandma's Attic will again be held in conjunction with our festival. This area of fundraising will be held on the other half of the school gymnasium along with the Silent Auction. We have already received some good quality items. We encourage you to continue to bring these items for resale from now until around Monday, November 2nd. Hopefully, the parish will have equally good success come November 8th. Continue to consider bringing items for re-sale through the remaining month of September and October.

Save the Date – November 8th !

Although this year a good number of the activities normally associated with this major fund-raiser have been lessened or eliminated like other parishes in the area and across the Diocese, we still anticipate a most successful day on November 8th if everyone is willing to do their part. As you all well know, Covid-19 has forced us to come up with new and creative ways to operate our fund-raisers for a few more months until a vaccine is distributed. I hope and pray that we may surprise ourselves with an even more successful day than we could imagine, both through our parishioners' participation as well as the stewardship success of this day. Thank you for your support!

Faith Formation

First Holy Communion Parent Meeting

A brief parent meeting will be held THIS Sunday, September 27th at 6:30 P.M. in the main church for those parents and their third graders who still wish to make their First Holy Communion this fall before the start of the Advent season. THIS IS NOT A MEETING FOR OUR PRESENT SECOND GRADERS. THEIR PREPARATION MEETING FOR FIRST RECONCILIATION WILL BE HELD LATER THIS FALL. Your third grade students are also welcome to attend the meeting on the 27th if they wish. Please note that masks are required when you enter the church. See you next Sunday third grade parents.

No Faith Formation This Week!

This Sunday, September 27th, will be a busy day of Faith Formation development as I will be meeting with both our Confirmation candidates from 1:00 - 3:00 in the church and then later in the day at 6:30 P.M. with our Third Grade parents for First Holy Communion preparation, again in the church. Next Wednesday, on October 7th, we will be meeting again liturgically for our second session with grades 6-9. Perhaps you can take a little time for some home-spun spiritual development on the Wednesdays that your son or daughter is not in class.

Grades 6-9 Meet NEXT Week

We have had a very good response to our Faith Formation registrations even though we are in a pandemic and have a modified form of Faith Formation this year. We have around 75% of the enrollment of last year. It is not too late to register and to expose your child not to the virus but to the VIRTUE of the sacraments and growing in relationship with the Savior. If you have misplaced your registration, please call the parish office. If the weather is permitting, we will be outside on these beautiful fall days, otherwise we will be in the school gymnasium. Masks are not required outside.

Second Grade 1st Reconciliation Parent Informational Meeting

A parent meeting for the preparation for First Reconciliation will be held on Sunday, October 11th at 6:30 P.M. in the main church. Parents are required to be in attendance. Your second grade son or daughter are also welcome to attend if they wish. The meeting will last about an hour. Instructional material will be handed out as well as the new format distributed for both the preparation and distribution of the sacrament during this time of Covid-19. A letter of reminder will also be sent out. It is very difficult to "catch-up" in a few minutes a preparation meeting for someone who has not been in attendance. Please do your best to prioritize and pass onto other parents of this upcoming meeting. We hope to see you all there.

Good Counsel Learning Center

Good Counsel Learning Center is now accepting registrations for one-on-one, online tutoring in reading and math for youth and adults. Students and tutors meet virtually once or twice a week for hour-long sessions. Tuition is $25.00 per hour, but scholarships are available with verification of financial need. For further information, call Sister Dorothy Zeller at 507-389-4229 or visit at www.gclearningcenter.org/registration.

Good Counsel Learning Center is recruiting experienced educators to provide one-on-one online tutoring to local students. Tutors will meet with students individually for 1-2 hours per week via Google Meet to help with homework and provide instruction in content areas as needed. As a tutor, you will help students improve their skills and gain confidence for academic success. The greatest need is for teachers with experience in grades K – 8. Distance-learning technology and training will be provided. A small stipend is offered per hour. For more information, call Sister Dorothy Zeller at 507-389-4229. To apply, visit gclearningcenter.org/apply.

Wired to the Heart update

Taking into consideration the health and safety of our families, volunteers, donors and potential attendees, Loyola's annual Wired to the Heart event, originally set for mid-November will be postponed to Saturday, February 6, 2021. We will continue to monitor the data and the recommendations of health officials in regard to in-person events. The committee will continue our planning for this fabulous event, whether it will be held in-person or virtually. Thank you for your continued support. Please watch for our event updates.

Employment opportunities

Loyola will soon be offering bus service to some of our students outside of the District 77 bus routes. We are seeking a shuttle driver for the morning route, with the potential of adding shifts. For more information, please contact Trudi Clements, 507-388-0606.

Priesthood Sunday

Today, September 27, 2020 has been chosen by the USA Council of SERRA International as a day to honor our priests. Our priests play an indispensable yet mysterious role in mediating the sacred, of witnessing to the extraordinary in the special, yet ordinary, moments of everyday life. How often do we really get to know our priests, and how often do we thank them for all they give us? Without the priesthood, there would be no Eucharist, and without the Eucharist, there would be no Catholic Church. Let us remember to say thank you to our priests often for all they do for us, and especially let us remember to pray for them every day!

Grant them wisdom, let their minds be sober and watchful, so that they may be filled with works of healing and words of instruction. May they teach your people in meekness and serve you in holiness with an undivided mind and a willing soul. Amen.
