“Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God’s unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis).” While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the “details” of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us!

Nos pasamos nuestra vida, desde que tenemos uso de razón hasta el final de los días, tratando de elegir lo mejor, ser lo mejor, vestir y comer lo mejor. Grandes pensadores, filósofos y consejeros, por mencionar algunos, escriben libros, dan conferencias con la misma meta y siempre con el mismo objetivo: “Que sepamos elegir en la vida lo mejor”. El domingo pasado escuchábamos como el buen samaritano y el posadero hicieron lo mejor para el pobre hombre que fue asaltado en el camino. Hoy, la Liturgia nos presenta otra escena en el Evangelio de Lucas: ¿Cómo saber elegir lo mejor?

Jesús, nos narra el Evangelio... entró a un pueblo donde vivían Marta y María, quienes lo recibieron en su casa. Ambas mujeres, me imagino, conocían a Jesús. Este es un punto interesante, ya que Martha eligió la parte del trabajo, sin fijarse en la importancia del invitado. Iba y venía atendiendo los quehaceres, sin prestar la mayor atención. Hasta que de repente, notó que su hermana estaba muy sin prisa, sentada a los pies de Jesús, escuchándolo. Es por esta razón que Martha se atreve a reclamar a Jesús: “Señor, ¿no te importa que mi hermana me haya dejado sola para atender? Dile que me ayude. Pero el Señor respondió: Marta, Marta, tú andas preocupada y te pierdes en mil cosas: una sola es necesaria. María ha elegido la mejor parte, que no le será quitada” (Lucas 10,40-42). Nadie nos separará del amor de Cristo, y ese amor nos hará perfectos, dice San Pablo.

Meet Erin Graham

Conozca Erin Graham

I am Erin Graham, and I am the part-time Communications Coordinator at Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Community. I graduated from O'Connell High School in Galveston, and I studied at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos, Texas, where I earned bachelor's degrees in English and History and a bachelor's in Anthropology from the University of Houston-Clear Lake. I currently am studying for a master's degree at UHCL.

Prior to coming to Sacred Heart, I worked at the Galveston County Daily News and the Houston Chronicle for a combined 17 years. I left newspapers to work in internal and external communications. I have worked for a local government agency, a hospital and as the Communications Coordinator at Mary Queen in Friendswood.

As the Communications Coordinator at Sacred Heart, I compile the information for the weekly bulletin, eNews and other communications sent out by the parish. I also am responsible for updating the website, Facebook page and app. I enjoy working for the church and getting to know the parishioners.

In my free time, I enjoy reading, going to the beach and traveling.

Soy Erin Graham, y soy la Coordinadora de Comunicaciones a tiempo parcial en la Comunidad Católica del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. Me gradué de O'Connell High School en Galveston, y estudié en Southwest Texas State University en San Marcos, Texas, donde obtuve una licenciatura en Inglés e Historia y una licenciatura en Antropología de la Universidad de Houston-Clear Lake. Actualmente estoy estudiando para una maestría en UHCL.

Antes de trabajar aquí en el Sagrado Corazón, trabajé para los periódicos de Galveston County Daily News y el Houston Chronicle por un total de 17 años. Dejé los periódicos para trabajar en comunicaciones internas y externas. He trabajado para una agencia del gobierno local, un hospital y como Coordinadora de Comunicaciones en la parroquia Mary Queen en Friendswood, TX.

Como Coordinadora de Comunicaciones en el Sagrado Corazón, colecto la información para el boletín semanal, eNews (el correo electrónico semanal) y varias otras comunicaciones enviadas por la parroquia. También soy responsable de actualizar la página web, la página de Facebook y la aplicación de la parroquia. Me gusta trabajar para la iglesia y conocer a los feligreses.

En mi tiempo libre, me gusta leer, ir a la playa y viajar.

The Legion of Mary meets on Tuesdays at 10:30 AM in the CBDC.

Have you ever sat on a one-legged stool?

It may be possible, and possibly dangerous, but definitely not easy. Just as stools were meant to have multiple legs, our Faith Formation programs here at Sacred Heart of Jesus need multiple volunteers.

We need you!!

We are so glad to be able to gather together again, but we need people to help with our children, teen and adult programs. It takes a village...

What volunteers do we need?????

Catechists to teach children, teens and adults – for English and Spanish programs

Catechists aides to help the catechists in the classrooms

Youth Ministers to help with teen programs and retreats

Hall monitors to make sure everyone gets where they need to be and stays safe

Parking lot monitors to make sure the grounds are safe and kids are not walking in front of cars

Office workers to make sure catechists have the supplies they need for class and prepare resources

Volunteers who work individually with students who have special needs

Environment helpers to assist with bulletin boards and making our education spaces match the liturgical year

Volunteers to help with adult education classes

Volunteers to help with the Sacramental preparation programs

Our stool will fall over without you!

Please pray and see if God is calling you to this important ministry that will directly affect the future of the Catholic Church and our parish.

Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston continues to serve people in need during the COVID-19 pandemic through all of its programs. Food pantries are open for drive-through food distribution with hours each week at our three locations: Guadalupe Center in Houston; Mamie George Community Center in Richmond; Beacon of Hope Center in Galveston. For hours or other information, click here or call the COVID Assistance Line at 713-874-6521. 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time • Luke 10:38-42

PUZZLE

Circle the things Martha worried about.

MISSION

I will sit on the front doorstep and talk with Jesus every morning.

GOSPEL

When company came, Martha hurried to get the house ready. She made sure the food was cooked. She set the table with cups, dishes, and silverware. She put clean sheets on the beds. She emptied the trash. Mary didn't worry about all that. She stopped everything to listen to her visitor. If your house is neat all the time, you can relax and talk with your guests. Then you can cook dinner together.

PRAYER

Lord, I want to stop working to listen to my visitors.

EVANGELIO

Cuando llegó la visita, Martha se apresuró a preparar la casa. Se aseguró de que la comida estuviera cocinada. Puso la mesa con tazas, platos y cubiertos. Puso sábanas limpias en las camas. Vacío la basura. María no se preocupó por todo eso. No hizo nada para poder escuchar a su visitante. Si su casa está ordenada todo el tiempo, puede relajarse y hablar con sus invitados. Luego pueden cocinar la cena juntos.

ORACIÓN

Señor, quiero dejar de trabajar para escuchar a mis visitantes.
